46-35 BOMBER RAID RETAINS '58 TITLES

by JOHN REYNOLDS

(Sackville) It's clinched! The Bombers have taken both the New Brunswick Football League and the Maritime Intercollegiate Football League championships for the second straight year. Their tough 46-35 win over Mount A. last Saturday was far the best football game seen in this province this season, from both the spectators' and players' viewpoint.

The only sour taste was that left in the mouths of Mount A. "old sports" and alumni generally. The game had been planned as the focal point in a round of "homecoming week" festivities, to salute many years of Mountie success in varied fields.

Halfback Norm Bolitho personally killed any plans Gus MacFarlane and Co. had for the day as he compiled a fantastic 243 yards in only nine plays. Quick calculation shows the Sault Ste. Marie product racked up an average of 27 yards a crack, on anything from over the shoulder catches, or his favorite, half back off tackle plays.

Bolitho brought the fans to their feet on the game's first play with a 75 yard run, only to be robbed of a touchdown on the Mount A. 5. Mountie Coach MacFarlane said after the game "I was really impressed with Bolitho on his off tackle plays. He's as good or even better than any backfielder in the the Maritimes".

Sensational Start

Big Red hit the Mounties fast-and-furious in the first quarter, building up a quick 26-0 lead.

Francis Hughes was the first to hit paydirt on a pass from quarterback Pete Rylander with Ed McLellan converting. Minutes later Ken Harvey went deep into Mountie territory to pull down another of "Pistol" Pete's tosses for a major with McLellan converting. Steady Eddie then decided to score one personally with a sweep around left end, lugging the ball in a cast-iron hand.

Despite being left in Fredericton Friday with the 'flu and under doctor's care, Doug Cottrell arrived in Sackville before game time, dressed, and went in to score Big Red's fourth touchdown.

The Mounties proved they were far from "broken" as Zipay and Bruce MacFarlane each scored touchdowns for the garnet and gold. Bolitho then scored his first major of the day on a 15 yard pass play to round out the half time score 33-13.

Throughout the second quarter the pace had quickened, as both squads viciously blocked and tackled their way up and down the mud topped field. UNB lineman Larry Friedman, Jack Davis, Gerry Scarfe, Ted Boswell and Gus MacFarlane's friend Dave Fairbairn, bashed the Mounties back time and time again as they tried to catch the Bombers before the half ended.

Bombers Blast Out

Mounties opened the quarter with a team spirit similar to that displayed in the first half. Quarterback Dave Cuthbertson galloped over on one of their fantastic offensive lineups which seemed to confuse the Bomber defensive momentarily. Zipay followed with the second major. Harry Haukkala converted both TD's.

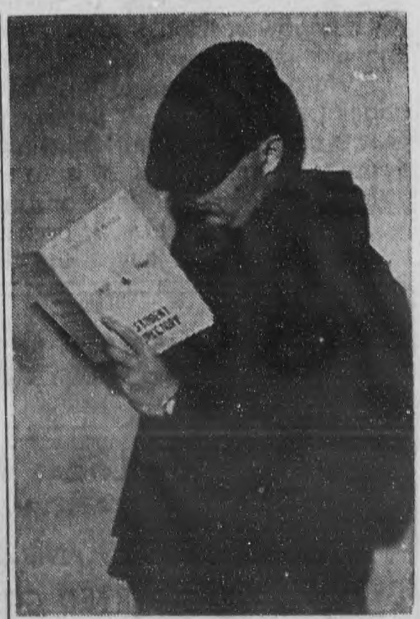

Mount A. put on the rush again but were forced to kick. This paid off with a rouge which pulled them within five points of the Bombers. (continued on page 4)

The Great Trek

As there was no train to Mount A. this year, everything else on two, three and four wheels made do in the emergency and headed for the marsh.

Hikers in suitably festive dress and in like spirits, littered the roads Friday evening and Saturday morning. Though one chap was last seen working out a plan for a roller-bearing, hitch-hiking thumb, all 600 or so who made the trek are reported to have returned safely.

That is to say all but the few unfortunates whose vehicles left the highway at various points: adding to the highly disregarded plea for rail service to and from the forum's delights. Luckily, this year no post-game antics secured '58's headlines.

FAST DEALERS GO DUPLICATE

Disciples of Goren, Schienwald and Jacoby; come one, come all. Even if you use your own system, you will be welcomed by the UNB Duplicate Bridge Club at the Oak Room of the Student Centre, tonight at 7.30 pm.

This is a spanking new organization that first saw light last spring. Following the success of four UNB students in winning the Maritime Intercollegiate Duplicate Bridge championship at the Acadia Winter Carnival, the club was formed by interested individuals. This fall a constitution was drawn up and a monetary grant was received from the SRC.

Temporary president and director of the club, Vernon Smitz states that the equipment necessary for duplicate bridge play is on its way from New York and should be available for use tonight.

Expecting a good turnout, Mr. Smitz and other experienced players will be on hand to explain duplicate rules and methods of play; and for beginners, instruction will be available.

Rehearsal Call

No rest for the wicked is Paul Rennie's motto as Red 'n' Black Revue time creeps closer.

Director-producer, Mr. R. has issued a call for all those with skits to be fitted into the show's agenda, to pull the plug and get arrangements completed. Dates for the '59-'60 song and dance carnival are only three weeks off.

Rehearsals on the main production numbers have been going well; so well in fact that those in the opening number are asked (ordered) to be at the All Purpose Room of the Student Centre tomorrow (Wednesday) night at 9 pm.

More full-throated citizens are needed for this opening piece, for which rousing lyrics have been written, and all interested should be at the Centre tomorrow evening.

Old Candidates Run; Voting Nov. 25

Junior Representatives to SRC—two to be elected. The following are to be considered as nominees due to the fall elections: Aubrey Wayne Smith, Roy Daniel Davis, Frederick Earle Smith.

Sophomore Representatives to the SRC—one to be elected. The following are considered as nominees due to the fall elections: Charles Isaac Hubbard, Sharon Maye MacDougald, Derek Michael Oland, Gordon Douglas Rankin, Elizabeth Anne Selig, Douglas Henry Wood.

New nominations for both Junior and Sophomore Representatives will be accepted in writing, signed by a nominator and secondor of the class concerned. Nominations will include the candidates' full names, and will be handed to either the President or Secretary of the SRC by noon of November 14. Elections are to be held on November 25.

Drama Chief at UNB

Mr. Richard MacDonald, of Ottawa, National Director of the Dominion Drama Festival, will visit Fredericton tomorrow as part of an extensive tour of the Atlantic provinces. He will address a public meeting in the Tartan Room of the Student Centre tomorrow evening at 8:15 pm.

AITKEN TOP HOUSE

John Weldon, President of Aitken House receives the Gaiety Men's Shop Trophy and congratulations from Mr. Harry Goldman after winning the recent inter-residence blood donor competition with a 94.6% turnout.

Mr. MacDonald's visit to Fredericton, sponsored by the UNB Drama Society is part of a survey he is conducting for the Canada Council. As a result of this survey, concrete recommendations will be presented to the Council which will serve as the basis of assistance by the Canada Council to the amateur theatre movement across Canada.

On the UNB campus he will find amateur theater flourishing. Having built their own drama hub up the hill, the local longhairs were invited to Dominion Drama Festival in Edmonton in 1958 and Halifax, N.S. last year, an honor reflecting the high standard of production. Enthusiasm on campus reached a high point last March when "A View From The Bridge" was produced and it is hoped many students will enjoy the coming Christmas chiller "The Mousetrap".

WEEKLY CHESS MEET

Like to keep regular?; another campus organization presents the opportunity. The UNB Chess Club has announced its '59-'60 season with a meeting and competition scheduled every Monday night.

President Bill Stanley (3rd EE) expects upwards of 30 new and former members each Monday in the Student Centre's Oak Room at 7:30 pm.
