Raiders Trample Washington State

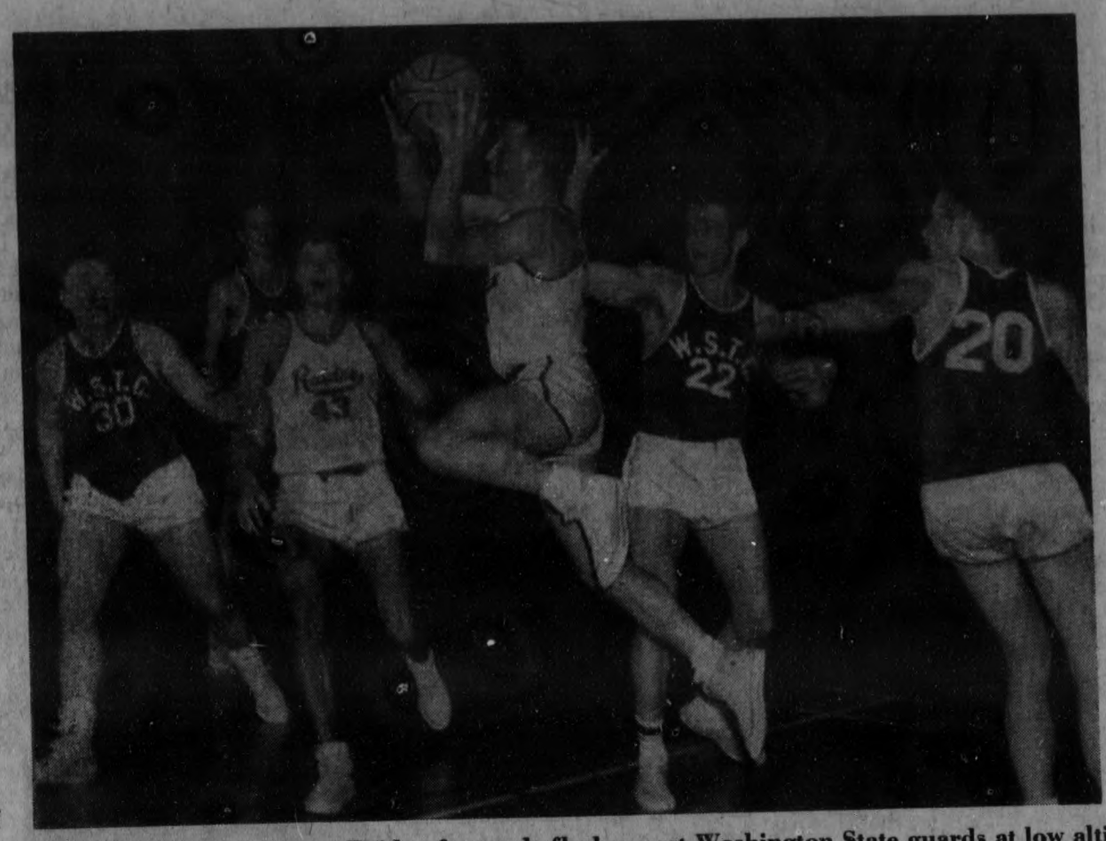

by ARNOLD ASKER

The University of New Brunswick's Varsity Red Raiders, riding high on the crest of a fabulous six game winning streak, notched victory number seven at the Lady Beaverbrook gymnasium last Friday night, surprising the Washington State Teachers College cagers from Machias, Maine 77-64.

The visitors, previous thirteen point winners on their home floor over the same Raider quintet, opened the game with a tremendous offensive attack and for awhile it appeared as though a repeat performance was in the offing. The teachers experienced no trouble whatever in riddling U.N.B.'s vaunted defense in the early stages, maintaining the jump on the Raiders to run up a 26-14 lead at the ten minute mark of the first half. Rollie Labonte, backcourt ace, ignited the varsity attack with some beautiful clutch shots from the outside and and from that point it was U.N.B. all the way. Playing inspired ball, the Raiders tightened up on defense, at the same time reversing the offensive pattern of the game to hold a 39-36 half time lead.

The second half provided the Raider fans with plenty to cheer about as they controlled both boards, forcing W.S.T.C. to play their type of game, while continuing to increase their lead. Coach Nelson substituted his bench freely throughout the last ten minutes of the game with all second stringers shooting well on the court. Rollie Labonte spearheaded the offensive drive with 18 points in a fine display of outside shooting. Ken Harvey, the "recalled veteran" contributed 14 to the winning effort with team captain Ted Tomchak, and Laird McLennan hitting for 12 and 10 points respectively. Ordman Alley, high scoring W.S.T.C. performer, led his team with 18 points, followed by Jim Gordon with 15.

It becomes more apparent with each outing that the strength of this year's cage team lies in "team play" offensively and defensively, it's a real treat to watch them perform . . . looks as if Ken Harvey and Bill Redden are quite capable filling the void left by Eric Lakes, now with the R.C.M.P. . . . wonder what would happen if an opposing team played man to man defense, my guess is it would be their greatest mistake . . . it follows then what happens if we fail to be consistent from the outside . . . time will tell.

Laird "Mouse" McLennan, Raider forward, flashes past Washington State guards at low altitude to add two points to the Raiders' 72-64 win on Friday night.

ROYAL LIFE SAVING CLASSES

REALLY NOVEL

What would you think boys, if a co-ed phoned and asked you out, suggesting you bring a flashlight? ? Well, two foresters found out Thursday night! ! Yes, —— had a picnic in the George Street Cemetery with two imaginative co-eds.

Quite a surprise eh? And quite cold? ? Congratulations girls—for such an original idea!

Synchronized Swimming

Lyn Weisner, a fourth year Physical Education student, has organized a Synchronized Swimming Club for all co-eds interested in learning swimming skills and routines. The coeds have been practicing on Thursday nights 9-10 p.m., and are hoping to have a routine ready for the Winter Carnival weekend. Best of luck girls in your undertaking.

Devils Blast Acadia And Dal Continue As League Leaders

by JOHN WHEELOCK

WOLFVILLE, N.S. — Brilliant play in the first period when they scored 3 goals enabled the Pete Kelly coached Devils to defeat the Acadia Axemen by a score of 4-2. The game marked the fifth without a loss in the Maritime Intercollegiate puck loop.

The Devils struck early in the first period when Frank Barteaux picked up a loose puck in the Acadia zone at 1:55 and quickly rifled it home for the opening tally.

Later in the period, the Devils posted goals by Dave Peterson and Al (Capone) Furlong. The period ended 3-0 and U.N.B. having the desirable edge in play.

In the second period, the light Acadia team rallied gamely with a goal by Bob Seward. Fast skating centre John Warden picked up a pass deep in Acadia territory and quickly carried down to the Devils goal where Seward scored on the rebound.

In this period, the Devils were slightly outplayed and missed on several good scoring opportunities.

The third period saw the Devils still unsteady on the attack and on the defence. Acadia again hit for a goal by Ray Clark at the midway mark. It was Dave Inch though with his steady net minding that kept the Devils in the game until Daryl LeBlanc scored the insurance marker that the team needed.

Throughout the game there were eleven penalties called. Six of these went to the Devils, while Acadia picked up a misconduct in the second period.

For the game, Pete Kelly made some line changes. On the first line veteran "Pooch" Clark was centering Dave Peterson and Daryl LeBlanc. The scoring line saw Wayne Nugent centering Frank Barteaux and Boyd LeGallais.

The first period was one of good, clean, well-played hockey in which the Devils seemed to thrive upon. Daryl LeBlanc, who ended the scoring in the Acadia game, started the Devils on their winning ways at the 31 second mark. In the period four penalties were split evenly by both of the teams.

The second period began with the same wide open play that characterized the first period and was to continue throughout. Dalhousie captain Don Bauld evened the score for the Tigers at 8:45. At 11:50 veteran Ken Marchant moved up to a forward position between Frank Barteaux and Boyd LeGallais, picked up a loose puck in the corner and scored unassisted to put the Devils ahead 2-1.

The big turning point in the game came with a game misconduct penalty to Dalhousie star forward Bill Buntain for deliberate intent to injure a player. The Devils quickly took advantage of the opportunity as Boyd LeGallais rifled home a pass from Joel Violette. The period ended 3-1 for the Devils.

At 2:21 of the third period, rookie Dave Peterson made it 4-1 for the Devils. John MacKeiga scored for Dal, but Claude MacKinnon quickly scored to keep the Devils out of range of the Dalhousie attack. At 16:31 Jeff Leach tipped in a pass from Joel Violette to close out the scoring in the game.

An injury to Dave Inch in the second period failed to impair his brilliant play throughout the game as he went on to make 31 saves.

The three stars chosen at the end of the game by the Dalhousie reporters were: 1. Daryl LeBlanc, 2. John MacKeigan, 3. Ken Marchant.

Having regained their old form on the ice, the Devils should be able to continue their winning ways when they host the Saint Francis Xavier team on Saturday evening.
