

Loyola Warriors in Carnival Tilt

The UNB Red Devils play host to the Loyola Warriors of Montreal on the home ice surface of the Lady Beaverbrook Rink at 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, February 6. For the Warriors, under the tutelage of Jack Kennedy, it will be their second visit to the home freeze.

Admissions will be only by Winter Carnival Pass, only.

Two years ago at the UNB Winter Carnival the Warriors gave the coasting Red Devils more competition than they bargained for, as the home brews came from behind in a stiff checking, hard-fought contest to eke out a 4-2 victory in the final stages.

The Loyola Warriors, members of the Ottawa-St. Lawrence College Conference, can be expected to put up a tough game.

Warriors are rated highly in their league and are noted for their explosive offence. Also, Loyola will probably turn out to be the roughest team physically that the Devils will have faced so far.

The Devils and the Warriors both were hosted at the recent Dalhousie Invitational Hockey Tournament during the Christmas holidays. The Warriors made it into the finals against the University of Montreal where they bowed 4-2. The Red Devils had fallen before the U of M squad by a 7-5 count in the preliminary round.

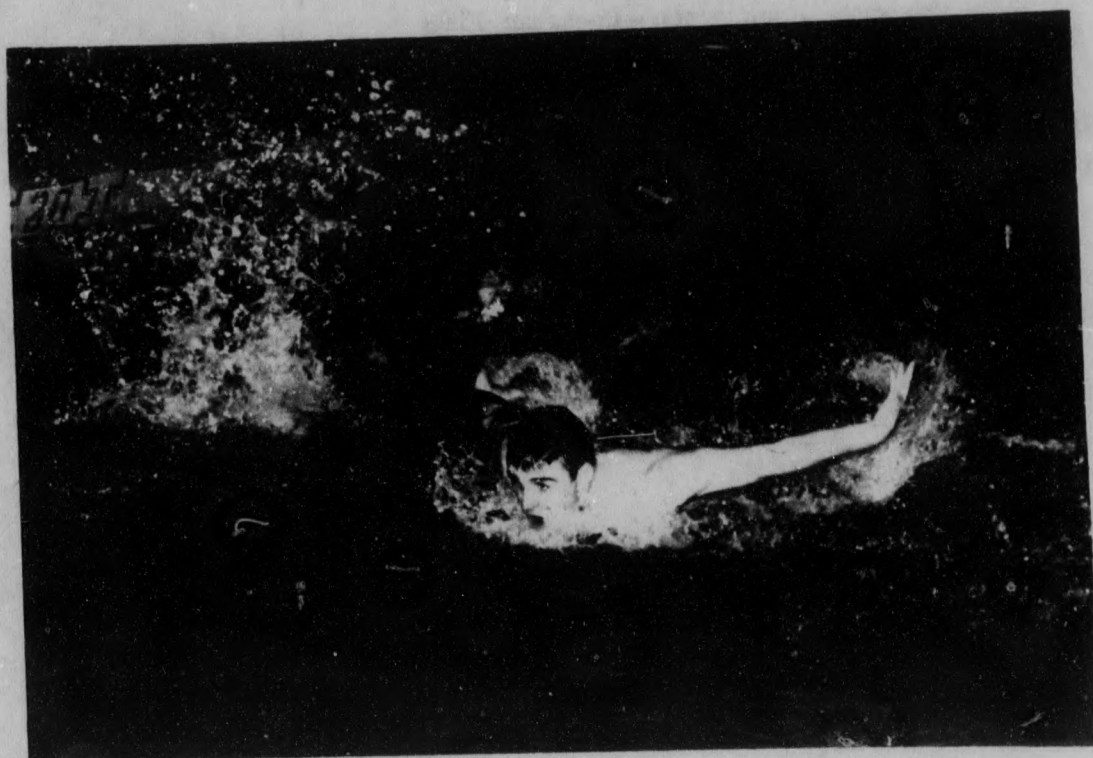

Prior to the tilt, starting at 1:00 p.m., the fans will be treated to the Carnival Follies, an ice show of local skating stars. Soloists Shirley Doherty, Pat Martin, Sue Leal and Linda Rejall will hold the throng spellbound as they twirl and crinkle the ice to the enchanting tunes of Bo Diddley. Chorus numbers and a male comedy are also on tap.

Parajump

This year the Parajump Club, with the help of jumpers from across Canada and the U. S., will be a spectacular part of Carnival. Jumps will be made throughout Carnival, weather permitting, and should once again prove to be exciting.

There will be a special drill in which the participants will drop in free fall with coloured smoke bombs, which will be held at noon on Friday. Spectators are asked to help the Club in their safety measures by keeping off the river during the show.

Basketball

Two exciting basketball games will be featured in the gym on Friday afternoon; of course all pass holders will be admitted free of charge. At 2:00 p.m. the Red Bloomers take on the Mount A girls team and then at 4:00 p.m. the Red Raiders tackle the Mt. A men's team coached by the colourful Gus MacFarlane.

Seats will be hard to find on Friday so we suggest you come on Thursday.

Swimming

This year's Carnival sees the UNB Beavers hosting Mount Allison University swim team in a dual meet starting at 2:00 p.m. in the Lady Beaverbrook Residence Pool. UNB has been victorious during the last two meets with the "Swampers" and will be looking for another win this year.

The Beavers are undefeated this season and this meet will be the last home meet in the 1964-1965 schedule, so make sure you see them during Carnival.
