GOLDS STOP REDS 6-0

GOLDS 6 - REDS 0

The 1964 version of the U.N.B. Red Bombers played their annual intersquad game on Sunday afternoon, Sept. 20th, before a small crowd of fans. The first half of the ball game was rather dull and uninspiring, featuring frequent exchanges of punts. During the first half, the Reds, piloted by Radcliffe and Courtice were definitely the better ball club.

The second half featured much better football as quarterbacks Ross and Courtice took to the air. The Gold club favoured the well known sweeps and quarterback Ross used the pro pass to mix his plays. The passing game used by the Reds was of a different variety with Courtice throwing the long bomb to pick up several long gains. However, the Golds, featuring the superb running of rookie back Danny Palov were able to move the ball well around the ends. As a result the Golds scored the only touchdown of the game with Mike Ross throwing the pro pass to end Norm Labbe in the end zone. The convert attempt was wide.

Throughout the game, running backs Palov, Logie, Lynch and Harvey ran well. Defensive backs Cunningham and Ward also had good afternoons. The outstanding pass receivers were Dew, Webster and Labbe. Linebackers Dotey, Malnerich, Kovich and Kirk were definitely impressive. Both offensive lines are rather inadequate, but these weaknesses should be corrected by the addition of Jack O'Neil and with the pressure of upcoming games. The quarterbacking seemed to be adequate, but was by no means outstanding.

SUMMARY:

If the offensive line plays as its potential indicates, fans should be treated to some good football this season. The running backfield is undoubtedly one of the best to be seen at U.N.B. for many years. The defensive unit is definitely more impressive than last year's version. As a whole the 1964 Red Bombers should produce a better season's record than last year's 4 wins and 4 losses.

Bob Cunningham and Mike Ward of Red team attempt to stop a Gold runner in broken field action. Golds defeated Reds on a touchdown by Norm Labbe.

Blake Ferris and Tom Pinkard lend a helping hand to Peter Harvey who was injured on the play. Pinkard also is ailing with a shoulder dislocation.
