

on the inside

Wow! This week the inside adds four pages of sheer quality to its bulk. Rhodesia, the hot spot of today, is discussed by four of our African students. On the lighter side, a true story by one of the "creative" writers on campus. Did you attend the Drama Society's fall production? Our critic takes a look at their four plays on page 9. By the way, for added enjoyment read the ads this week.

A student in Sculpture once said,
"I'm tired of working with lead.
And iron and clay
Seem to rust and decay.
So, I'm working
in marble instead."

Penny-wise and dollar-wise,
The student who would like to rise,
Will use this saving stratagem—
A bit each week in the B of M!

Student Union Building

Were you one of the 929 students who signed the petition? You've helped accomplish something. That petition, adopted by the SRC, together with the criticisms of students at four public hearings, has prompted the SUB committee to try for a change. Last week the architects were asked to submit plans for a new building incorporating as many of the students' ideas as possible. So the future looks brighter. Aren't you glad you did your part.
