ITEM I Maria Waver spoke as a student senator on the proposed revision in the credit system for the Arts faculty. Three proposals will be brought forward to the Arts Council next Monday.

1) Students would be eligible to take six credits at their own risk.
2) Anybody with a certain specified average would be permitted to take six credits.

3) Five credits would be applied as a strict rule.

BE IT RESOLVED THAT this SRC recommend to the Arts Council that Arts and Business students be permitted to take one extra credit per year at their own discretion.

De Freitas:Fisher 17-0-1 (carried)

ITEM II Mike Richard reported on a proposed revision in Article VII of the Constitution which would require the implementation of a formula reducing the number of seats on Council on the basis of the enrolment number of students in each faculty. This proposal would be effective in the Spring elections and will be tabled to a meeting of Council in two weeks time.

ITEM III COMPTROLLER'S REPORT

The Student Athletic Association has agreed in the cost sharing agreement proposed for I.D. cards.

ITEM IV PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Housing Questionnaire - The major committee recommendation is proposal for a new housing questionnaire and survey.

Bierfest - Mr. Neale has submitted a list of proposals to the Dean of Students with regards to the incidents at the Bierfest during the Festival. These recommendations propose a series of regulations guiding the future operations of any functions where liquor is served.

Fredericton Tenants Association -

BE IT RESOLVED THAT we support in principle the idea of greater tenants protection in the law of landlord and tenant and BE IT

FURTHER RESOLVED THAT these changes reflect the protection given to tenants in other jurisdictions such as Nova Scotia and Ontario and further, that we support the Fredericton Tenants Association in their endeavours to provide greater protection to tenants.

As an arbitrary example of the latter - 550 students in a particular faculty would require two representatives on the SRC, or 801 students in another faculty would expect to have three representatives.

Richard left the Constitution Committee's proposals with council for their consideration and, notably Steve Mulholland, the new SRC vice-president, suggested that all present members of the council try to come up with as many suggestions as possible as to how the proposals outlined by Richard might be improved even more.
