

Rap Room is alive but needs more staff

Rap Room is the place to go on campus if you need a friend.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Two Rap Room personnel, Alice Reynolds and Pat Rooney, would like to explain what Rap Room is all about to UNB students.

People ask what we are and what we do.

Rap Room is a place. We are located behind the men's residence office, and opposite the SUB. You will be able to recognise us by our symbol, the Rap Room man, painted on the door beneath the clock on the building. Inside you will be greeted by a comfortable atmosphere of dimmed lights, soft chairs and music.

Rap Room is an organization. We are open from 6:30 - 12:30 every evening as well as Friday and Saturday evenings after 12:30. You can drop in and chat about anything, be it the weather, loneliness or anything else that you might wish to talk about. We can offer a listening ear and a cup of coffee.

Rap Room is PEOPLE. We are NOT professional counsellors. The people of Rap Room are students just like anyone else. They are willing to listen. To whatever it is you have to say. Anything that is discussed in Rap Room will not go beyond you and the person you are talking with. Confidentiality is our policy.

Rap Room is a feeling. We are waiting to be your friends. Mid terms are here, and exams are coming. The relaxed atmosphere and welcome at Rap Room may be just what you need to break the tension. So why not drop in and see us. Remember, our doors are always open .....for you.

On October 27th Rap Room held an election, with positions open for co-ordinator, personnel manager and advertising manager. With the new positions filled and the old ones remaining the same, the positions are as follows: Co-ordinator - Pat Rooney; Personnel Manager - Barry Sheehan; Advertising Manager - Linda Saulis; Secretary Comptroller - Alice Reynolds; Statistician - Bill Bonner. The steering committee is very enthusiastic and has several ideas in the planning stages. So keep your eyes open. You are going to hear a lot about Rap Room. Remember, we are very alive.

Yes, Rap Room IS alive. But it is working with a skeleton staff. The executive, also known as the steering committee, has undergone a major change and the membership has dropped from last year.

Rap Room needs volunteers, who have some spare time and are interested in helping their fellow students. If you can lend a sympathetic ear, why not drop in an talk to us, or give us a call at 455-9983.

Rap Room is alive, but not too well. We need volunteers. Why not drop in and check us out? We can't do it without you!

With Hallowe'en coming on Friday, UNB security personnel are going to be out in full force.

Their forces will consist of all security officers and 10-12 Campus Police. City Police may be patrolling every so often and if they are needed can be called in for assistance, said security spokespersons recently.

Students caught committing any damages on campus will be sent to the Student Discipline Committee or the civil courts depending on how serious the damage is. Non campus students will be sent directly to the civil courts.
