

CHSR celebrates 15 years in the business

On Saturday, January 24, College Hill Student Radio celebrated its 15th anniversary of UNB radio operations. Approximately 200 people gathered in the Tartan Room of the Memorial Student Centre to take part in the festivities. Former members of Radio UNB and CHSR as well as invited guests, joined with the present membership in congratulating the 1976 Barry Award winners.

The Barry Awards, named in honour of the first director of Radio UNB, Dr. Barry Yoell, recognize the outstanding contributions made during the year by CHSR personnel. The Awards were donated to the station by the University Alumni Association. The winners of the awards were selected by the executive of the station several weeks prior to the anniversary.

John McGuire won the Sports Award, while first year members Dan Arsenault and Bill Sanderson received the Behind the Scenes and Rookie of the Year Awards respectively. Assistant News Director Gary Perry was awarded the News Award for his organization of that Department. Joe Labelle, who also serves as Assistant Public Affairs Director, was given the Public Affairs Award for the excellent job he had done in reporting the Student Aid Demonstration activities of the province. Former CHSR Director J. David Miller was given the Best Technician Award for his work at the station this year and for his leading role in obtaining official DOC certification for the station during the summer months.

Anderson, awarded the Best Show prize to Mike Lee for his show "Classical Gas" on Sunday afternoons at 2:30.

CHSR Director Chris Pratt presented the Director's Award for 1975-76 to Business Manager Allan Patrick. Patrick was cited for his contribution to the spirit of the station during the past year.

Chris Pratt took the opportunity to present the station's new logo to the membership of the station and the guests in attendance. The drawing of a cheshire cat produced by Neville House resident Gordon Roper will have a prominent place on CHSR's float in the upcoming Winter Carnival parade. The suggestion for the new logo came from station member Bob Rhead as part of a contest held at the station before Christmas.

After the Awards CHSR member and guests enjoyed the buffet and the CHSR punch specially prepared for the occasion. CHSR's resident jack of all trades, Doug Bearisto cut the Anniversary cake before the dancing started.

Newspaper Columnist Lynch told the Fredericton Board of Commerce that Canada's most socialised country in the western world last Tuesday added he was glad to see enterprisers finally speaking.

Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau's new economic policy described by a joke. According to him the government is skillful at controlling anything. The joke concerned a father son in a fishing schooner to put in to an inlet during the next morning, they and discovered that the anchor dragged and they were father said to throw out the anchor but the son replied was no rope attached to father then said to throw anyway because it would some.

Lynch said the Progressive Conservative leadership "wide open". The man who have won, Alberta Premier Lougheed, said Lynch, resigned said Lougheed finds politics more fulfilling federal variety, particularly that the emphasis in the presently shifting to the governments.

Also, said Lynch, Lougheed not want to confront a large bureaucracy he could not.

Lougheed is not bilingual press has given him a hard said Lynch.

According to Lynch, realism rules out a more appealing as Peter Lougheed.
