

$343.00 return New York to Panama
for up to 150 days.

Student packages to these destinations are now being arranged.

If you have a place you and a group of friends would like to go to come and see us.

CSL TRAVEL &

Rm. 3 SUB

AIR
PANAMA
INTERNACIONAL

SEPTEMBER 17, 1970

High

By MARV GREEN

EDITOR'S NOTE:
everybody complain
prices and poor service Bookstore. Marv Green
dent member of
Bookstore Committee
this is unjustified.

"Wow! Twenty dollars
textbook. Why, there
more than 60 or 70
book. What a rip!"

How often around
year have we heard
echoing around the B registers? The fact is, that while some
making money off
certainly isn't the B
is basically a
operation.

Located in its pre
since 1963, next to t
Store exists solely
required texts, neces
ary materials and
courses here at the U
well, records, crested
posters, gifts and pa
sold. The staff welc
orders on these item

Why do textbooks co
they do? There are s involved. First it sho
that publishers set th
not the Bookstore. Th
price the books and p
the shelves. One re
high cost is that mo
quantity printings th
small market. Only
across the country m
certain text at a g
publisher then has to
hefty markup so as
costs on the limited p
This differs from m paperbacks where
volved, from publis
can take just a littl
each copy because quantities printed.

Another important
quite often highly te
become obsolete qu
means that these bo
higher so as to be p
they become outdat

Textbooks suffer
burden in that the y
order for the first o
has to stay in stock t
the while accumul
and carrying charg
inventory is financ