2 THE BRUNSWICKAN

MARCH 26, 1980

QUESTION: In view of the fact that SRC president, Perry Thorbourne has been found to have made a serious number of misrepresentations about the information concerning the referendum, should he be allowed to continue as President?

Threat 3

It's a decision for the students of the university to decide.

Wade Prest

For 4

Definitely not. This SRC referendum is the biggest scam and Thorbourne should definitely resign immediately.

Peter Archibald

For 4

No, he's good at lying implicitly. Dishonest politicians are worse than stupid ones.

Groucho Marx

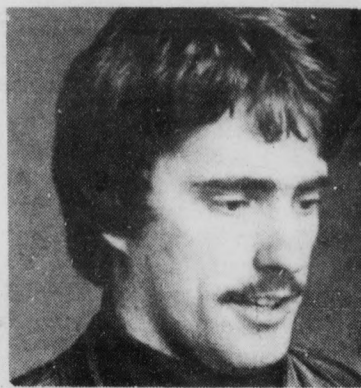

Satire 3

That's the most ridiculous thing I've ever heard.

Mike Corbett News Director CHSR

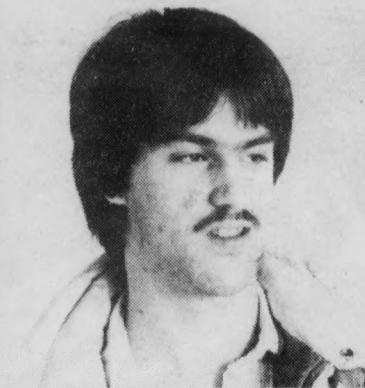

No, the man has destroyed his own credibility. Regardless of the financial troubles of the SUB, lying cannot be excused.

Derek Ogden

BBA 4

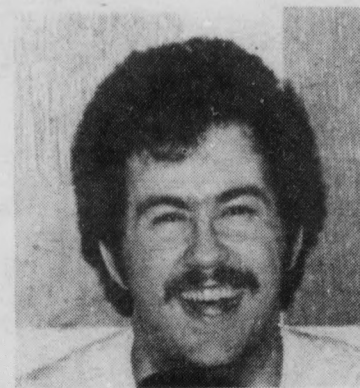

He should continue but with better explanations.

Kim Grondin

BA 1

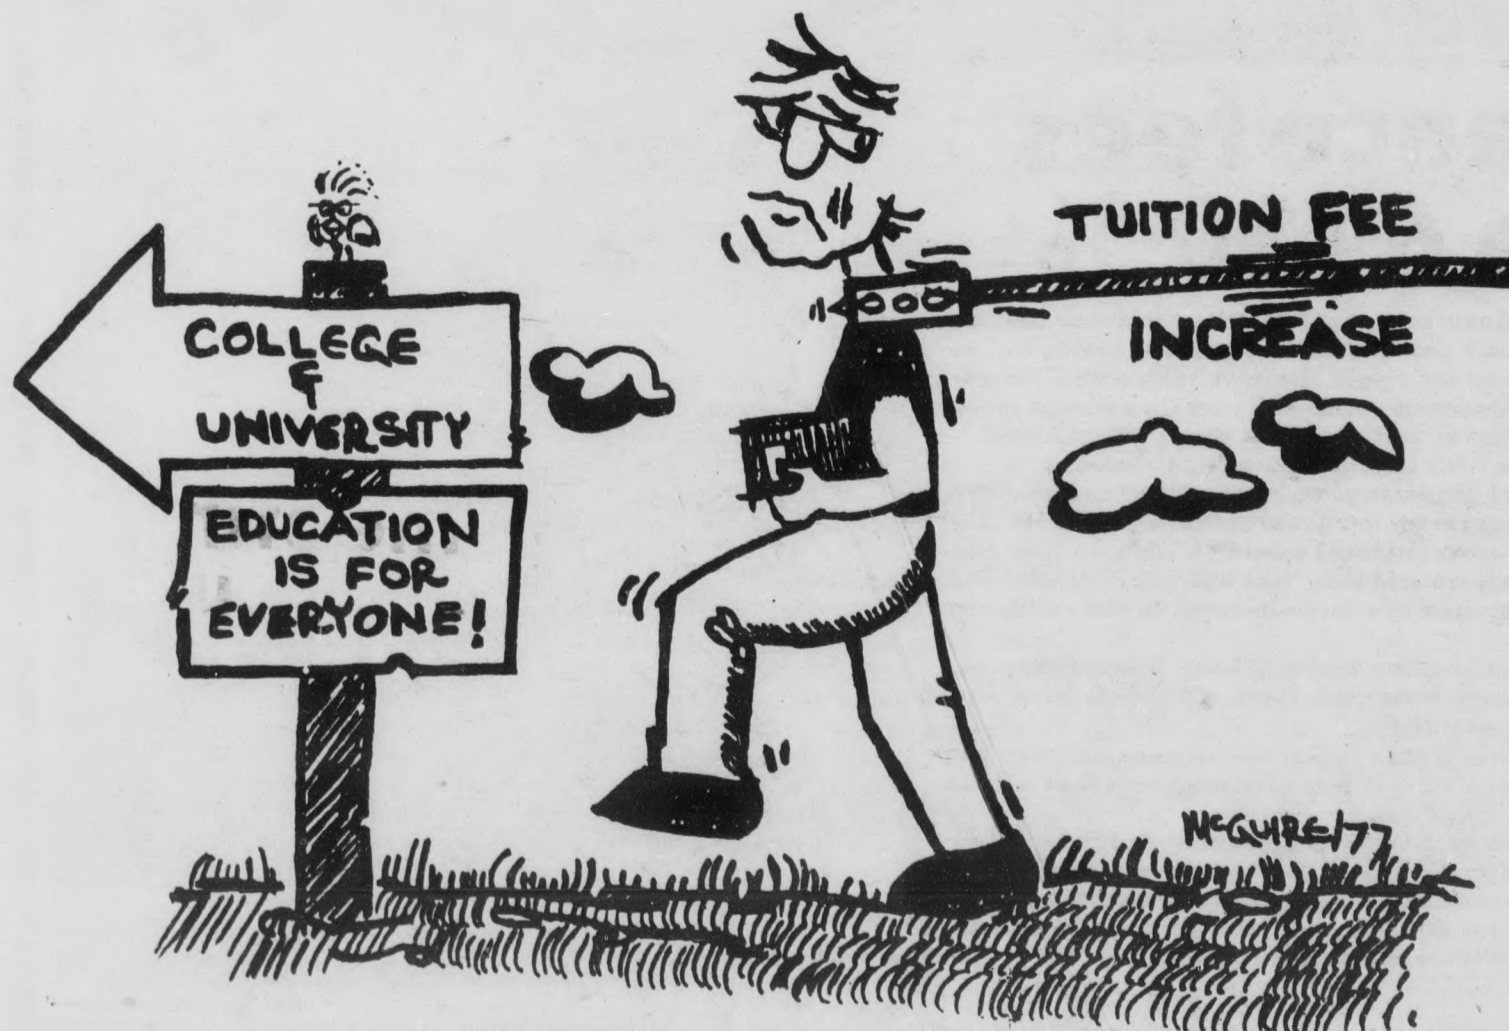

No, they shouldn't be allowed to get off something like that.

Ross Libbey

BAIII

My feeling is that Perry shouldn't take the fall alone. All decisions were made by the entire executive council and they should all answer for it.
