Senate a close race

By DEBORAH GENEAU
Brunswickan Staff

With the results of Wednesday's SRC election two things become apparent. First of all, the popularity of the newly formed Student Party does not extend past its leader John Bosnitch. Secondly, student apathy has not diminished, as only 20 per cent of the student population turned out at the polls.

The three seats on Senate will be awarded to the three top contenders in that race. Likewise, the two rep-at-large seats will be filled by those top two candidates.

The final results are as follows:
