Incumbant John Bosnitch was returned as SRC President on Wednesday night, November 9. He garnered 1035 votes to Richard Burton's 623 and Scott Thomas's 463. It is unprecedented at UNB for the SRC President to win a second term.

Bosnitch won nine polls out of thirteen. His major victories came in the SUB where he got more votes than his opponents combined, with 228 to 73 for Richard Burton and 61 for Thomas. Bosnitch and Thomas effectively split the engineers' at Head Hall, but still edged Thomas by 35 votes there. He made a surprising victory at Tilley Hall, predominantly the home of Business and Arts students.

Second-place finisher Richard Burton was the overwhelming choice at Lady Dunn and Tibbitts.

Former Brunswick News Editor, Brenda Paul, won the vice-presidency Wednesday, handily defeating this year's Red 'N Black director Stephen Brooks with a tally of 1225 to 778. She beat him at every poll except Ludlow Hall, where a campaign snafu caused her to have no advertising in the building during the campaign.

while he just edged out Bosnitch 103 to 94. Thomas had 67. He was also top man at McLeod.

A disappointing finish

The winners

Aubrey Kirkpatrick was declared winner in the race for comptroller rather early in the night by CHSR-FM. He showed a strong lead by the time McLeod reported in halfway through the vote-counting. He ended up with a total of 1257 to Hugh Brown's 740.

In other seats Chris Chapman was returned as Forestry rep. and Lynda Banks and Chris Stanton took Education.

was delivered to Scott Thomas, EUS president, who waged a costly campaign. He ended up with 21.8% of the vote.

Mary Abraham adds another achievement to her list as she steps into a position on the Board of Governors. Abraham has been valedictorian, class of '83, and president of the Political Science Students' Association among other posts.

Returning SRC President John Bosnitch won a Senate seat, a job that lasts until 1985.

eligible voters exercised their right, down from last year's high of nearly forty per cent. Almost all voters chose a president, with only a few spoiled ballots.

The race for valedictorian was an exciting one as all three candidates kept within twenty votes of each other for most of the way. Lade and the counting Deana Johnson and David Reckziegel were extremely close. Only with Head Hall did Reckziegel pull away with about 50 more votes than his opponents at that poll. Reckziegel will be delivering his Valedictory address to the class of '84.
