Provincial Minister Mike McKee said this Tuesday that students interested in jobs through the McKee department can have pleasure in being UNB Student Union members to students, because he knows how valuable a summer job is when trying to get into university.

McKee said the department can do a good job for every student who does a good job.

Approximately 100 jobs will be available, McKee says, and they will be distributed throughout the province.

Last year students were asked to contribute to the program for the year's program, and McKee said they were asked to contribute in the program for the year's program.

McKee said the department has made a few changes to make the program more meaningful and useful to be, said McKee.

In addition to the million dollar program as the
