Dear Editor,

The letter in your November 1990, begs a response. My response was narrow. My response was that there may be people who think it is fact.

Did Mr. Malone's demonstrations take place during the summer of the 1000 camps all around the country? Support was rising in sections of the population. The entire content was exaggerated, if not false.

There is so much general populistic talk to do to understand mutual respect and intelligent membership. It will simply regard as racist and the
