

How hip is HIP-DIAL?

By Cynthia Kirkby
Brunswickan News

HIP-DIAL, the Student Union telephone information line, has great potential for hipness but misses it due to outdated news.

The free 24 hour service, which is intended to keep students aware of campus happenings, got off to an inauspicious start. An incorrect number was printed on the back of the Beaverbook, so the SU placed stickers with the correct number over each. As well, during its first month, HIP-DIAL contained information up to two weeks old.

Chantale Walker, V.P. University Affairs, promised that the service will be updated weekly once things settle down.

HIP-DIAL (447-3425) provides information on Academics, Finances, the Student Union, Varsity Reds Sports, and Loonie Movies. The automated service will allow only one selection to be accessed per call. However, you can speed up the recorded voice so it sounds like a squirrel.

YCI looking for volunteers

Brunswickan News

Anyone interested in international development work and cultural experiences need look no further. Youth Challenge International (YCI) is presently accepting applications for volunteers to work on summer development projects in Guyana and Costa Rica. YCI is looking for applicants for the following: participants between the ages of 18 and 25, assistant leaders ages 23-26 and group leaders ages 26+.

The deadline for the summer projects is October 9th, 1995; applications and more information can be acquired at the Career Resource Library.

Last summer UNB student Mark Bray took part in a YCI development project in Guyana. "This is a unique experience since the participant is given an active role on an international team consisting of YCI workers and locals. This is an amazing first exposure to international development and living in a new environment and culture. There are many different types of projects, building, social work, scientific research and more, however, I took part on a building project in a remote Amerindian village for 10 weeks. This is an experience that could only be organized by an organization like YCI since they have a grass roots approach to development and they have developed close contacts all over the country."

All people that are interested are encouraged to apply and experience the unique, fun and rewarding selection weekend that will take place in the Halifax region at the end of October. All applicants from the Atlantic Provinces will be at this selection weekend.

Why not call HIP-DIAL?

The Brunswickan, in its 129th year of publication, is Canada's oldest official student publication. The Brunswickan is generally published every Friday during the school year by Brunswick Publishing Inc. with a circulation of 10,000. Membership is open to all University of New Brunswick Fredericton students, but all members of the university community are encouraged to contribute.

The opinions contained in this newspaper are those of the individual writers, and do not necessarily reflect the views of The Brunswickan.

The Brunswickan, while being an open forum for the viewpoints and opinions of all UNB students, may refuse any submission that is judged to be racist, sexist, libellous, or containing attacks of a strictly personal nature. The Brunswickan reserves the right to edit for brevity. Letters generally shouldn't exceed 300 words in length and must contain your signature, student number and phone number, or it will not be printed.

All copy submitted must be double spaced, on ONE side of the page only and must be legible. If we can't read it, we won't print it. The Brunswickan now accepts copy on 3.5 inch disk, either Macintosh or MS-Dos format.

Articles printed in The Brunswickan may be freely reprinted provided proper credit is given.

The Brunswickan est imprimé avec flair par Acadie Press a Caraquet. The paper is impeccably delivered by Mark Robichaud and a big white van named Desire.

Subscription rates are $27 per year. Second class mail is in effect — #8120. National advertising rates are available from Campus Plus at (416) 362-6468.
