

Douglas Fetherling Writer-in-Residence

Douglas Fetherling, author and editor of over 50 books, is the new Writer-in-Residence at UNB Fredericton until April 2001.

He will make his public debut in UNB's Alumni Memorial Building Lounge with a reading on Tuesday, September 26th, at 4:00 p.m.

Admission is free and members of the public are welcome.

"I look forward to assisting members of the public as well as the UNB community with their writing and publishing questions," Mr. Fetherling said.

Mr. Fetherling is well known in New Brunswick as a weekly books columnist in The New Brunswick Reader. His books include Travels by Night: A Memoir of the Sixties and the recent poetry collection, Madagascar. A former literary editor of both The Toronto Star and The Kingston Whig-Standard, Mr. Fetherling has written novels, travel narratives, social history and cultural criticism.

Reading with Fetherling will be poet Sharon McCartney, who recently moved to Fredericton from Victoria, B.C. Her first book, Under the Abdominal Wall, was published last year. Addressing such difficult subjects as childbirth, illness and loss, it has been called "an extraordinary first book, fierce and joyous at once."

UNB Import Car Club seeks new members

Kyle Vojdani and Paul Masry

The official UNB car club Import Car Association and "Research," (I.C.A.R.) is about to open its doors.

I.C.A.R. is a forum in which UNB students and faculty with an interest (read: obsession) in cars – primarily imports – can meet for discussion and other activities.

I.C.A.R. received some positive feedback near the end of last year when the idea was proposed to the UNB Student Union. Although still awaiting official recognition from the Student Union, the group has been told they can proceed with plans for the 2000/01 school year.

Last year a number of students and faculty members expressed an interest in such a club. I.C.A.R. is actively seeking new members for this year.

Currently, I.C.A.R. is planning a number of great events which will be open only to I.C.A.R. members. These activities will include various gatherings and parties, and hopefully, a track day at the N.B. Speedway.

To join, simply send an e-mail to unb_icar@hotmail.com and you'll be added to the current members list. The only requirements are that you have an interest in cars and have some sort of vehicle.
