V-Reds men's hockey win, tie in weekend action

by Jeff Smith

The UNB men's hockey team will take the three points they earned this weekend – they almost got none. The Reds tied the Saint FX X-Men on Saturday 3-3 and edged the Saint Mary's Huskies on Sunday, 5-4 in overtime.

The win-tie weekend leaves the Reds ranked tenth in the country with a record of 11-7-4-0 and placed fourth in Atlantic Canada with 26 points – three behind first placed Dalhousie.

On Saturday night at the Aitken Centre, the Reds battled back in the third period after being down 3-2 to earn the tie. Graham Schlender notched the goal at the 13:10 mark with assists by Brad Rice and Todd Alexander.

The game started out well for the Reds as they scored twice and looked strong after 40 minutes of play. Jason Hegberg and Joe Gerbe scored for UNB. That made the score 2-1 heading into the final period with the X-Men getting the late second period goal by Paul Dunphy with only 40 seconds to go.

UNB had trouble for the first ten minutes of the final frame and St. FX capitalized. Patrick Grandmaitre scored early at 3:07 and Ryan Walsh scored for the X-Men five minutes later to take a 3-2 lead. It was then that the Reds realized the lead they had lost and Gene Chiarello stepped up to make the saves when he had to - to keep the game close. The Dairy Queen-Pepsi player of the game, Graham Schlender, finally tied the game and earned UNB the point as nothing was decided in overtime.

On Sunday against the Huskies, the Reds came out playing strong for the first two periods as they led 4-0 heading into the final period. Scoring for UNB were Kyle Werner, Todd Alexander, Jeff Peddigrew and Ryan Walsh. Getting assists were Calvin Watson and Dave Geris with two and Craig Soke, Kyle Werner, Jason Hegberg and Joe Bouvier with one a-piece.

With some luck and two 'off-skate' goals, Saint Mary's came back with a strong third as they scored four straight goals to tie the game at four. Neither team could beat the goalies and the game was deadlocked after regulation.

In the overtime period, it appeared that the Reds came out to win and they did - at the 1:37 mark. Brad Rice scored the winner and was named player of the game, with an assist going to Kyle Werner.

UNB's next games are this weekend as they visit Saint Mary's on Friday and then St. FX on Saturday. Their next home game will be on February 6th at the AUC, as they host STU in the Mark Jeffrey Memorial game; game time is 7:00pm.

UNB's Calvin Watson shoots on SMU goalie, Brent Zelenewich, who is able to make a nice grab. UNB continued to pelt the now second place Huskies for the rest of the game, defeating them 5-4 in the overtime period. The Reds are now in fourth place in the standiings, with 26 points. The men's hockey team will see some more action this weekend when the visit Saint Mary's on Friday and StFX on Saturday. Their next home game will be the Mark Jeffrey Memorial game vs. STU on February 6th at 7:00 pm. Be there.

SMU Huskies shut out women's hockey team

by Cindy Brown

The University of New Brunswick women's hockey team matched up against the Saint Mary's Huskies on Sunday.

Huskies' goaltender, Cheryl Wright, blocked all 31 shots on net to bring her team to a 3-0 victory over the Reds.

Christina Hann broke the two period, scoreless tie for the Huskies with only 2:50 left in the second period. Hann's goal, assisted by Kerrie Boyle, was followed by another one by Stacey Roundell at the 7:50 minute mark in the third, assisted by captain Tasha Noble. With only 33 seconds left in the game, Kerrie Boyle scored an empty-netter to increase the gap to three.

UNB netminder, Emily Hobbs made 29 saves for the Reds, who dropped to 5-2 in the standings. The Huskies improved their record to 5-1.

Red's coach, Bev Boies commented on the game: "We were pleased with the overall effort put forth, we just may have gotten a few bad bounces. St. Mary's was able to capitalize on a couple of our mistakes while we didn't capitalize on any of their's. All in all it was a learning experience and we are still focused on our goal of being AUS champions."

The women will see action again this Friday night when they play the Saint Mary's Huskies in a 7:00 pm contest at the Aitken Centre. Come on out to the game and cheer on the team.
