The Brunswickan, in its 134th year of publication, is Canada's Oldest Official Student Publication.

We publish weekly during the academic year with a circulation of 12,000. We are the largest circulation student newspaper in Atlantic Canada and the largest circulation community newspaper in New Brunswick.

All members of the University Community are encouraged to contribute, however, only students are eligible to become staff members and hold editorial positions.

While we endeavour to provide an open forum for a variety of viewpoints and ideas, we may refuse any submission considered racist, sexist, libellous or those containing attacks of a strictly personal nature. The Brunswickan reserves the right to edit for brevity and even levity. Letters to The Editor generally shouldn't exceed 300 words in length, though exceptions may be made. All submissions must contain your name, student number and a phone number where you can be reached or the submissions will not be printed.

The opinions and views expressed in this newspaper are those of the individual writers, and do not necessarily reflect the views of The Brunswickan, its Editorial Board, or its Board of Directors.

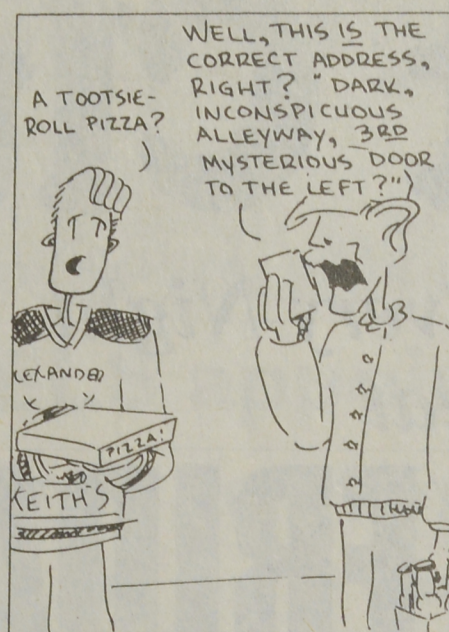

Articles in The Brunswickan may not be reprinted without permission. Contact the Editor-in-Chief for details.

We are members of U-Wire, and a media exchange of university media throughout North America. We are subscribers to the Associated Press. We are founding members of the Canadian University Press.

The Brunswickan is owned and operated by Brunswick Publishing Inc., a fully independent body. Since May 1999, our operations have been subsidized by the full-time undergraduates of the University of New Brunswick by a media fee of $7 per student, providing approximately 20% of our operating budget. Advertising sales accounts for the remaining 80% of our budget. Additional financial support comes from The Graduate Student Association, which represents graduate students at UNB.

Quotes on education

It takes a village to raise a child. -African proverb

Children have never been very good at listening to their elders, but they have never failed to imitate them. -James Baldwin

Skill to do comes of doing. -Ralph Waldo Emerson

We must not believe the many, who say that only free people ought to be educated, but we should rather believe the philosophers who say that only the educated are free. -Epictetus, Discourses

Life is a succession of lessons, which must be lived to be understood. -Ralph Waldo Emerson

Give me the children until they are seven and anyone may have them afterward. -St. Francis Xavier

Treat people as if they were what they ought to be and you help them to become what they are capable of being. -Johann W. von Goethe

All I really need to know ... I learned in kindergarten. -Robert Fulghum

Too often we give our children answers to remember rather than problems to solve. -Roger Lewin

Don't limit a child to your own learning, for he was born in another time. -Rabbinic saying

If we value independence, if we are disturbed by the growing conformity of knowledge, of values, of attitudes, which our present system induces, then we may wish to set up conditions of learning which make for uniqueness, for self-direction, and for self-initiated learning. -Carl Rogers

I found one day in school a boy of medium size ill-treating a smaller boy. I expostulated, but he replied: 'The bigs hit me, so I hit the babies; that's fair.' In these words he epitomized the history of the human race. -Bertrand Russell

As the twig is bent the tree inclines. -Virgil

The nice thing about standards is that there are so many of them to choose from. -Andres S. Tannenbaum

Academy: A modern school where football is taught. -Ambrose Bierce, "The Devil's Dictionary"

Education makes a people easy to lead, but difficult to drive; easy to govern but impossible to enslave. -Baron Henry Peter Brougham

A university is what a college becomes when the faculty loses interest in students. -John Ciardi

The whole art of teaching is only the art of awakening the natural curiosity of young minds for the purpose of satisfying it afterwards. -Anatole France

I have learned silence from the talkative, toleration from the intolerant, and kindness from the unkind; yet, strange, I am ungrateful to these teachers. -Kahlil Gibran

If you have both feet planted on level ground, then the university has failed you. -Robert F. Goheen

College isn't the place to go for ideas. -Hellen Keller

To teach is to learn twice. -Joseph Joubert

I also believe that academic freedom should protect the right of a professor or student to advocate Marxism, socialism, communism, or any other minority viewpoint—no matter how distasteful to the majority, provided... (if only we could read the rest of this one!) -Richard M. Nixon

Try not to have a good time...this is supposed to be educational. -Charles Schulz

A fool's brain digests philosophy into folly, science into superstition, and art into pedantry. Hence University education. -George Bernard Shaw

The illiterate of the 21st century will not be those who cannot read and write, but those who cannot learn, unlearn, and relearn. -Alvin Toffler

God made the Idiot for practice, and then He made the School Board. -Mark Twain

The purpose of a liberal education is to make one's mind a pleasant place to spend one's leisure. -unknown

The purpose of a liberal education is to make you philosophical enough to accept the fact that you will never make much money.

I find that a great part of the information I have acquired by looking up something and finding something else on the way. -Franklin P. Adams

Even a fool knows you can't touch the stars, but it doesn't stop a wise man from trying. -Harry Anderson, "Night Court"

Real knowledge is to know the extent of one's ignorance. -Confucius

It takes a long time to understand nothing. -Edward Dahlberg

Imagination is more important than knowledge. -Albert Einstein

The little I know I owe to my ignorance. -Sacha Guitry

A child of five would understand this. Send someone to fetch a child of five. -Groucho Marx

It is impossible to defeat an ignorant man in argument. -William G. McAadoo

Your ignorance cramps my conversation. -unknown

If ignorance is bliss, why aren't there more happy people? -unknown

The confidence of ignorance will always overcome indecision of knowledge. -unknown

Philosophy is a game with objectives and no rules. Mathematics is a game with rules and no objectives.

Since when was genius found respectable? -Elizabeth Barrett Browning

Minds are like parachutes - they only function when open. -Thomas Dewar

There are only two truly infinite things, the universe and stupidity. And I am unsure about the universe. -Albert Einstein

Intellectual brilliance is no guarantee against being dead wrong. -David Fasold

Don't play dumb. You're not as good at it as I am. -Colonel Flagg, "M*A*S*H"

Man's mind, once stretched by a new idea, never regains its original dimensions. -Oliver Wendell Holmes, Jr.

The mind of a bigot is like the pupil of the eye. The more light you shine on it, the more it will contract. -Oliver Wendell Holmes, Jr.

In the province of the mind, what one believes to be true either is true or becomes true. -John Lilly

Like most intellectuals, he is immensely stupid. -Marquise de Merteuil

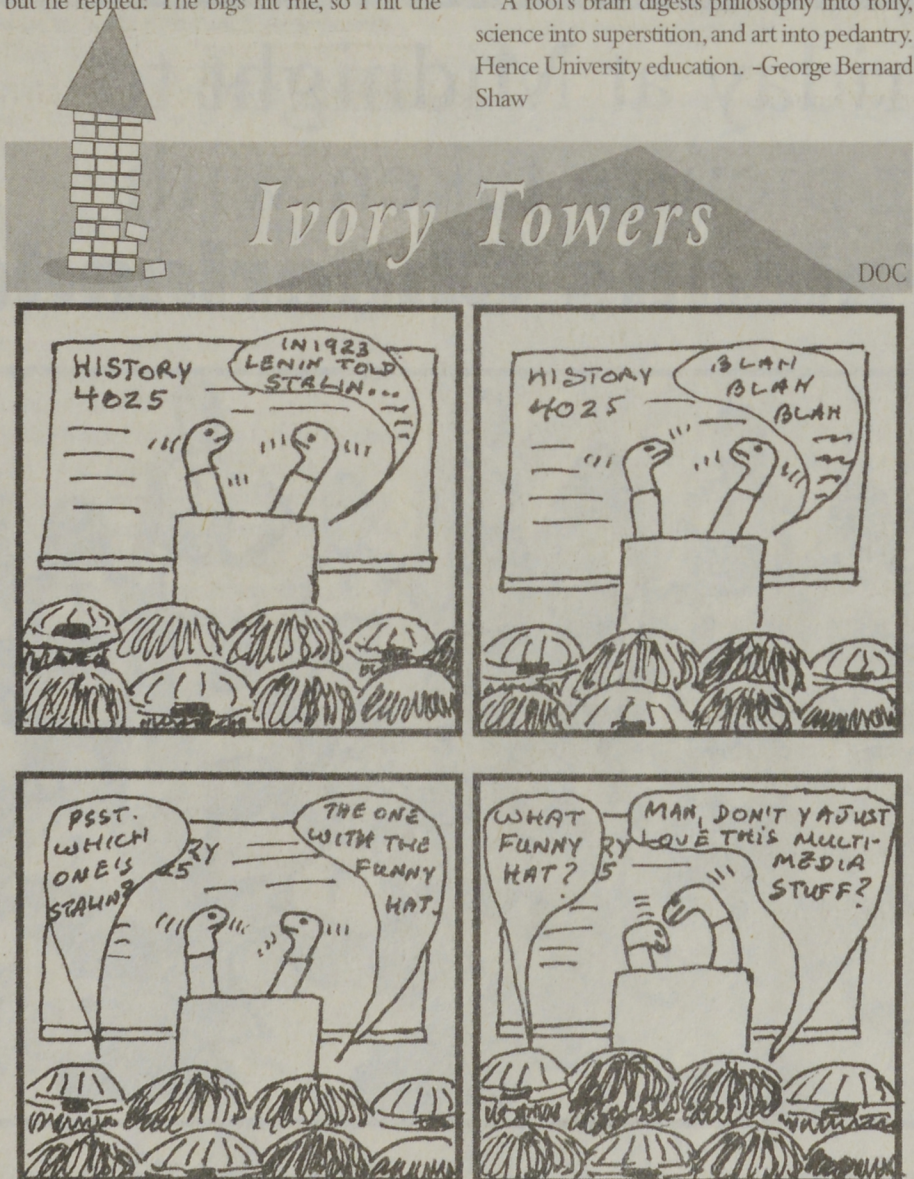

The intelligent man is one who has successfully fulfilled many accomplishments, and is yet willing to learn more. -Ed Parker

It is dangerous to be sincere unless you are also stupid. -George Bernard Shaw

The function of genius is not to give new answers, but to pose new questions — which time and mediocrity can solve. -Hugh Trevor-Roper

I not only use all the brains that I have, but all that I can borrow. -Woodrow Wilson
