Dallison. The launch and reading will take place on Thursday, Oct. 23 at 7 P.M. in the faculty-Staff Lounge, Ward Chipman Library Building, UNB Saint John. Marc Milner, chair of the Department of History at UNB Fredericton, will host the event. Copies of the books will be available for purchase courtesy of the UNB Saint John Bookstore. Refreshments will be served. For more information on launch of these two new books, contact the UNB Saint John Bookstore at 648-5540, sjbooks @unbsj.ca.

Gallery 78. November 2 - 23. Opening reception, Sunday, November 2nd , 2 - 4 P.M. Carolyn Purdy "Ins and Outs". Purdy's work is difficult to describe for someone who has not experienced it. Riotous sumptuous colour, objects or subjects which practically leap off the canvas and paper with peripatetic personality. Looking at them, one feels as if one has entered a Walt Disney animated cartoon or gone through the looking glass. This exhibition marks the artists' first foray into oil on canvas having studied extensively recently with Fredericton's master of the medium, artist Glenn Priestley. The show continues until the 23rd.

Researchers in the Faculty of Kinesiology are studying the effects of heat exposure on muscle function. They are looking for healthy men between the ages of 18-30 who are not currently involved in competitive athletics to participate in their study. The time commitment will be approximately 8 hours over 2 days. You will get fitness testing regularly priced at over $100 done for free! If interested, please contact Liz at: c202s@unb.ca for further information.

Award-winning novelist Kerri Sakamoto will read from her new book One Hundred Million Hearts on Tuesday, Nov. 4, at the University of New Brunswick in Fredericton. The free reading will be held at 8:00 P.M. at Memorial Hall. The public is welcome to attend. One Hundred Million Hearts tells the story of a Japanese-Canadian woman who discovers her father was a kamikaze pilot. Author of the critically acclaimed 1998 novel, The Electical Field, Ms. Sakamoto won the 1999 Commonwealth Writers Prize for best first book and the Canada-Japan Literary Award. She was also nominated for the 1998 Governor General's Award for Fiction. A graduate of the University of Toronto, Ms. Sakamoto also earned an MA in English from New York University. She has published short stories and scripts for independent films and has written extensively on Asian North American arts. The Nov. 4th reading is sponsored by the UNBF department of English and the Canada Council for the Arts. For further information call Edith Snook at 506-458-7397.

Mixed Levels Middle Eastern Dance for Women and Girls. Shantell Powell teaches Middle Eastern dance ("belly dance") at the GoodLife Fitness Centre for Women upstairs at the SuperStore on the corner of Smythe and Dundonald.
