Have you ever wondered what life is all about? What on earth you're here for? First Congregational Church of Fredericton invites you to discover your five purposes in life over "40 Days of Purpose" beginning Easter Sunday. It all begins with a pre-40 Days Videocast featuring best-selling author and pastor, Rick Warren, at the church on Saturday afternoon, April 12th. Many have found their lives profoundly touched by these 40 Days with God. So will you. To find out more or to register, please call 458-0093.

The University of New Brunswick's Military and Strategic Studies Program presents: "NATO After the Second Gulf War" A Public Lecture by David B. The stepping stone forum presents Moira McLaughlin. She will illustrate with slides, the stories the dead can tell. Moira McLaughlin, who teaches at St. Thomas University, is the forensic anthropologist who is called in by the RCMP, and other law enforcement agencies in the Maritimes, when suspicious remains are discovered. She will explain how she does her job, and contrast this with the 'evil inanities' of the television programme 'CSI', which presents a seriously distorted account. The forum meets every Wednesday at 15 Saunders street, 2:00 p.m.

ANGLICAN CHAPLAINCY UNB and STU

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

As usual, I am writing to you to do two things:

1. to assure you of my prayers for you individually and collectively, which I see as a central role I have as your chaplain - especially as we come to the end of the term with its extra pressures and responsibilities.
2. to remind you of the twice weekly celebrations of the Holy Eucharist in the Edwin Jacob Chapel at UNB.

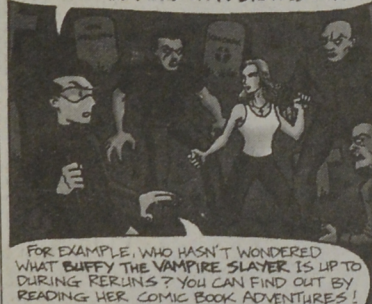

The final services of this semester are:
Friday, April 4 (today) at 12:30 PM
and Sunday, April 6 at 4:45 PM.

Every blessing to you now and always,

THE REV. WILFRED LANGMAID
