Tell the SU what YOU think about teaching at UNB.

The SU Learning Enhancement committee is visiting every faculty on campus hearing your thoughts about teaching quality at UNB. If you see us filming fellow students also let us know what you think. Questions? Contact Jill, academic@unb.ca or 458-7655

Let Your Voice Be Heard

It's that time of year: Student Opinion Surveys! Online (until Dec. 7th) or in class--let your instructors know what you think about their teaching!

Silent study zones

Need some alone time with your books? We've booked space for you to study throughout the exam period in the SUB Ballroom & SUB 26. Each day we'll have cookies and juice for you to enjoy!

Quickies

Negotiations between the university and the faculty union are still under way, SU meets every Wednesday in SUB 103 if you have questions.

The English Corner Cafe goes live again next semester; contact academic@unb.ca for more info.

Next univeristy senate meeting is November 29.

New Brunswick Student Alliance awareness quiz

For a Chance to win cool prizes, send your correct answers for all three of the following questions to finance@unb.ca.

1. How many years has the NBSA been representing students?
2. How many campuses participate in the NBSA?
3. What does NBSA stand for?

Answers to all questions can be found at www.nbsa-aenb.com. Hurry up and be the first to claim your free stuff!!

Lead the Revolution. Be an Apple Campus Rep.

You don't have to be an Apple Campus Rep to get an education discount, but you do have to be one to get this incredible marketing experience.

What is an Apple Campus Rep?

An iPod-wearing, concert-throwing, PowerBook-toting, savvy-talking, pavement-pounding, Apple evangelist.

What will you do?

Representing Apple offers you a unique marketing experience. Throw events, distribute marketing materials, embody the digital lifestyle, and put smiles on thousands of faces.
