UNB Get Off To Strong Start

by Mark Clark

UNB's Baseball team launched its season last weekend with two double headers at home, notching up three wins and one loss. In UNB's 3-1 defeat of Cape Breton University on in game one on Saturday, Steve Murphy pitched seven innings for UNB and gave up five hits, two walks and four strikeouts. Offensively, Ryan Corey led the way for UNB with a double, a single an RBI and a run scored, while Andrew MacLaggan had two singles and two RBIs; Tim Burns took the loss for CBU.

In game two, UNB scored a 10-0 win over CBU in a game mercifully called after five innings. Alex Yaychuk pitched a no-hitter into the fifth inning before giving up a single, walking only one and garnering two strikeouts. Andrew MacLaggan was the standout offensively with a triple, two singles and four RBIs. Greg Hallet had a single, a double, two RBIs and scored two runs, while Cory Christie also doubled for UNB.

UNB split a double header with Dalhousie on Sunday, losing game one 12-2 before rebounding with a 7-2 win in the second game. Game one saw Ryan Corey rack up three singles while John Burns doubled, with Josh Soucy taking the loss. Josh Collins went all seven innings in game two, striking out seven, giving up four hits and walking none. Matt Beckwith broke the game open in the fifth inning with a three RBI double, while Dan Estey and Ryan Corey each had a double and a run scored. In all, nine different players had hits for UNB.

UNB takes to the road for three double headers this week, squaring off against conference newcomers Atlantic Baptist University in Moncton on Wednesday before heading to Cape Breton on Saturday and Halifax on Sunday to face CBU and Dalhousie respectively.
