NOW HIRING!

Applications are due before 5 pm on Monday, March 19th

The Brunswickan is looking for applicants to all of its editorial positions. As a member of the Brunswickan Editorial Board, you will have a strong influence on current affairs and the chance to elicit change on campus, in Fredericton, in the province, and all over Canada. Our editors usually have or develop strong organizational and interpersonal skills, precise and well-tuned writing.

If you are interested in writing, publishing, public affairs, politics, or human rights, and, obviously, if you want to get involved in journalism, this job is a big checkmark on a potential employer's list! This is your chance to take your career in hand.

We are currently hiring:

Editor in Chief: This is the job for you if you have previous experience as a manager with a small media organization and strong managerial and interpersonal skills.

Managing Editor: For this job we are looking for a business-oriented student with a background in accounting.

News Editor: We want applicants who are passionate and well-informed about current affairs both on campus and off. High motivation is a plus.

Associate News Editor: Again, an applicant with an interest in current affairs will go far.

Arts Editor: If you consider yourself an artsy person, if you attend shows or keep track of new music and entertainment trends, and if you love to embrace new ideas and art forms, this job is for you.

Sports Editor: Ever wanted to see V Reds games for FREE? Sports editors should have a general knowledge of most sports and curiosity for new and exciting athletic adventures. This job is hands-on, so bring your mud clothes!

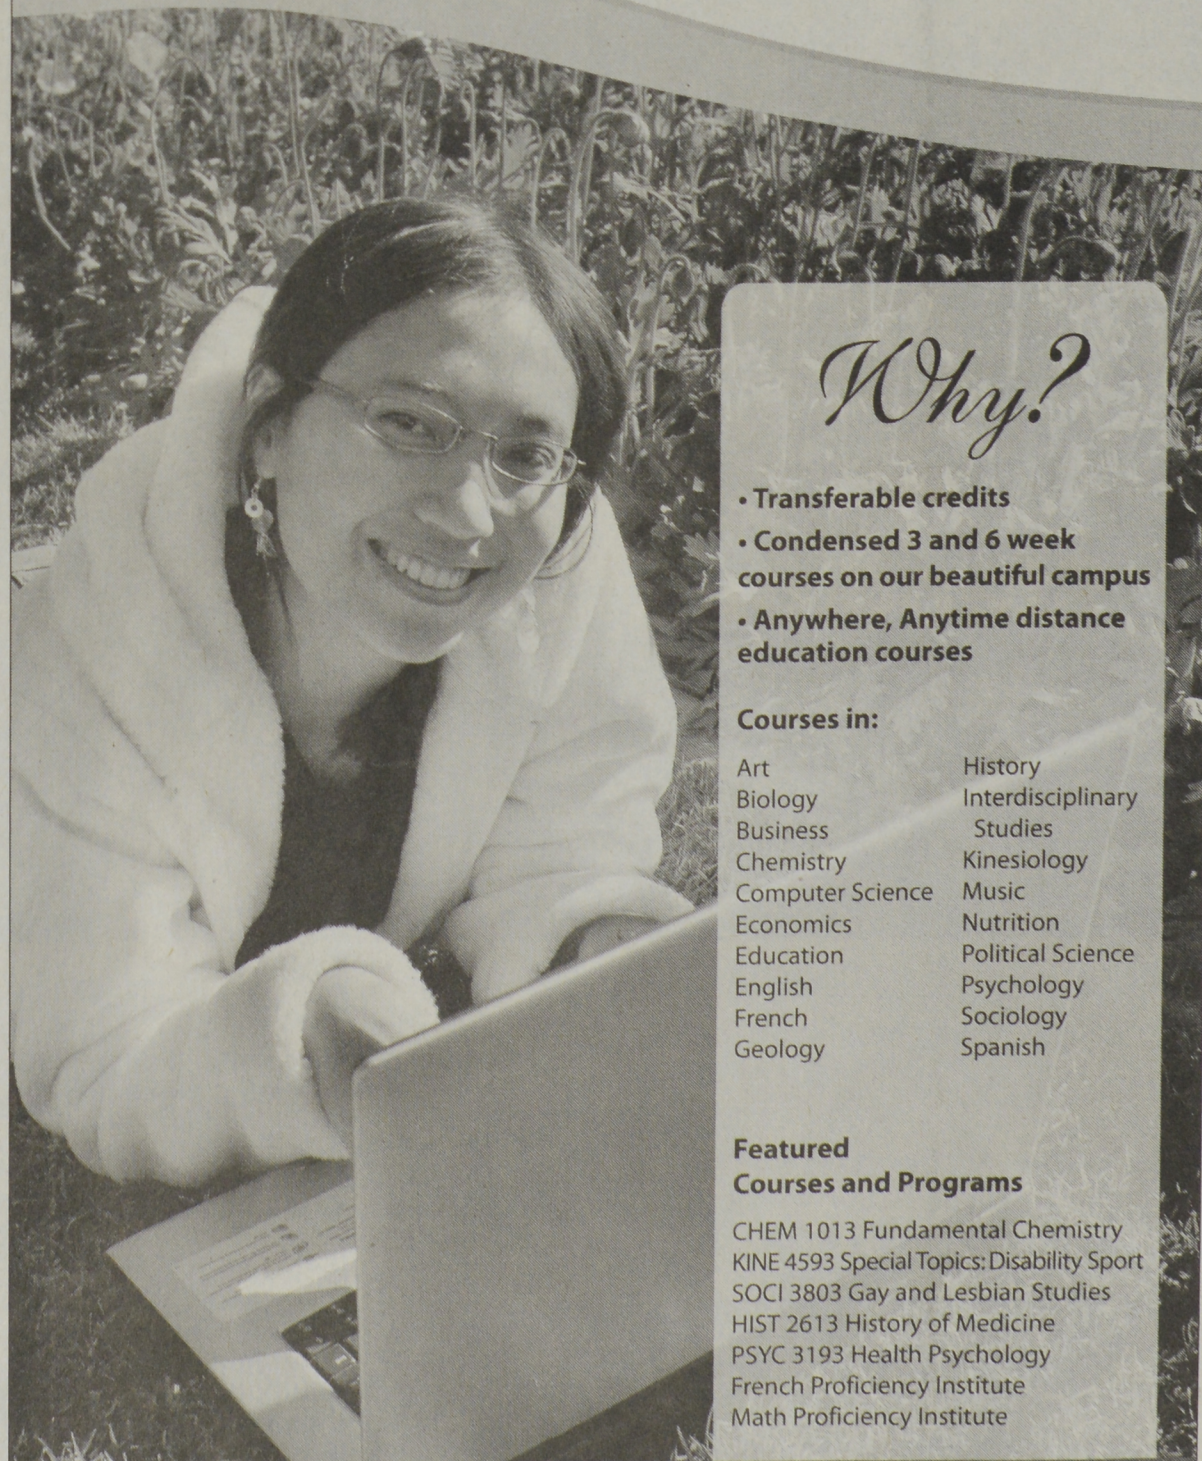

Production Editor: Students with a background in Media Studies and with experience with Adobe InDesign or other graphics programs do well in this position. If you're creative and like to visualize ideas, this is your chance!

Copy Editor: Do you have an obsession with proper grammar? Do grammatical errors in published work piss you off? Do you find yourself correcting mistakes in bathroom graffiti? If so, copy editing is your thing!

So drop off resumes (writing samples or photo and layout portfolios encouraged per position) to the Brunswickan office in room 35 of the SUB, or drop us a line at managing@unb.ca. Excelsior!

Applications are due before 5 pm on Monday, March 19th
