this show will stay with you for all time! Pat Pelletier brings his one-man, one-night-only performance Primal Instinct to Memorial Hall, Friday November 23rd at 8:00 P.M. Pat Pelletier is one of Fredericton's most seasoned and well-respected drummers. He's played the local scene for over 15 years, performing with some of the region's top musicians in country, rock, blues, heavy metal and jazz bands. He's recorded over 15 albums, been featured at the Harvest Jazz and Blues Festival and the ECMAs, opened for I Mother Earth, and just launched a CD with Age of Days. Pat Pelletier's first solo performance will explode with the kinetic percussive energy that has become his signature style. Using rhythm and vocals, and an improvisational approach, he will explore the dualities of chaos and control, noise and silence, in a performance that will lay bare the primitive and the civilized. Pat will build it up and tear it down in an hour's worth of pure power. Primal Instinct is an evening of sonic and rhythmic transcendence. Mark it down and bring all your friends to Groundbeat: Primal Instinct featuring Pat Pelletier. Memorial Hall on the UNB Campus, Friday November 23rd, 8:00 P.M. $5.00 at the door. This is a wet/dry event.

MOVIE NIGHT

Join us for Movie Nights on Campus! Bring a friend, bring a snack and kick back for a good movie on the big screen every Wednesday night, at Tilley Hall auditorium at 8:00 p.m. esdrCINEMA will be hosting campus screenings of all kinds of great films: live music concert footage, cutting edge documentary, independent film, underground, short films... great movies on the big screen that you won't find at the mall

Wednesday, November 21st at 8:00 p.m., esdrCINEMA presents, "Escape to Canada", the movie explores the provocative notion that Canada, not the United States, is the pre-eminent freedom-loving country in North America. Reporter/humorist Albert Nerenberg investigates legalized pot, same-sex marriage, and conscientious objection to war. For the record, Nerenberg encourages audiences to experience his work in something called "stonervision".

The Fredericton Shambhala Meditation Centre, 20 Serenity Lane (corner of Hanwell Rd), is offering a free public talk on Meditation & Shambhala Principles, taught by senior teacher Mary Campbell of Halifax, on Friday Nov. 30, at 8:00 P.M. This public talk will be followed by a weekend meditation workshop to which meditators new and experienced are welcome: "The Art of Being Human" on Saturday & Sunday, 9:00 A.M. - 5:00 P.M. Workshop cost is $75. For further information call Jean Ahlgren at 455-0089.

The Canadian Internet Policy and Public Interest Clinic (www.cippic.ca) is doing research on identity theft for the Identity Trail project (www.idtrail.org). If you have been a victim of identity theft and are willing to fill out a victim impact statement, please contact us. The statement is a questionnaire and will take 15 to 20 minutes to complete. Volunteers will receive $20. You can contact me at: Philippe.shink@unb.ca or phone 457-3956.

Dr. Maggie Mamen, family psychologist and author, will present an lecture entitled "Parent Power: The Quiet Revolution" on Wednesday, November 21 at 7:30 P.M. at Head Hall Auditorium (engineering building), UNB Campus-Fredericton. The more our children become empowered by influences outside the family, the less confident we parents feel when trying to defend our rights and uphold our responsibilities to our children. This presentation will explore peaceful ways in which we may regain our confidence and reclaim our families. Doors open at 6:30 P.M.; the event is free and open to all. This event is co-hosted by LEAP! and the Healthy Families, Healthy Communities Association and <http://www.fredkid.com>.

Would you like to support a great cause? Our mission: To stop impaired driving and to support victims of this violent crime.
