Atlantic Sinfonia performs at Memorial Hall Atlantic Sinfonia will perform on January 16, 8:00 p.m., at Memorial Hall, UNB campus in Fredericton. This concert, with special guest pianist Julien Le Blanc, will feature the music of Chopin and Haydn. Advance tickets are on sale now at the Centre for Musical Arts, Memorial Hall, 458-7836, or sinfonia@unb.ca or at the door the night of the performance. General admission: $20, Seniors $15 and Students $5.

The first Kin campus Club in the 87 year history of Kin Canada, Canada's largest all-Canadian service organization, will be formed January 19 on the campus of University of New Brunswick. Kin Canada's National President Leona Thorogood, along with Kin dignitaries from across Canada will witness the birth of the UNB Kin Crew. This historic event marks a dramatic addition to Kin Canada's wealth of service and volunteers and provides a leadership and developmental opportunity for UNB and STU students. Nineteen charter members will be sworn in at UNB's Student Union Building, followed by a reception hosted by their sponsor, the Fredericton Kinsmen Club.

Kick start the New Year with a wide variety of non-credit courses offered by UNB's College of Extended Learning. Starting in January, you can hone your writing and photography skills or learn a new language to use on your vacation. If you're looking for something shorter, consider our series of weekend workshops on card making, quilting and winter survival skills. For more information, call 452-6360 or visit our website at <http://extend.unb.ca/pee>.

Join local artists Jennifer Beckley and Karen LeBlanc on Friday, January 18th at 5:00 p.m. for the opening of their exhibits Frenchys Sutra and Weave 2 Weave. The exhibitions are part of the UNB Art Centre's WERKSTATT series, an annual emerging artists showcase. Join the artists for an "Artist Talk" on Monday, January 21st at noon. Jennifer Beckley's Frenchys Sutra features unique fabric compositions originating from various Maritime Frenchys stores. "Sutra" comes from ancient Sanskrit, meaning "stitching together with intention". Weave 2 Weave is Ms. LeBlanc's first solo exhibition highlighting Jacquard weaving technology. The exhibits run from January 18 to February 29th in Memorial Hall, UNB Art Centre, 9 Bailey Drive on the UNB Fredericton campus. The galleries are open Monday through Friday 9:00 - 4:30 p.m. Admission is free.

Business Basics is a free information session for anyone who has questions about how to start a business. The session is offered by Enterprise Fredericton. Business Basics will be on Tuesday, January 22, 2008 from 6:00 p.m.-8:30 p.m. in the Petricodiac Room at the Crowne Plaza Hotel, Downtown Fredericton. For more information or to register please contact Enterprise Fredericton by calling 444-4686.

The Fredericton Arts Alliance will be hosting an Arts Evening at 7:00 p.m. Wednesday January 16th at Charlotte Street Arts Centre on 732 Charlotte Street. The presentation will be held in the multi-purpose room. Artists, arts organizations, and all those interested in the arts are welcome. Pauline Bourque, Executive Director of the New Brunswick Arts Board (ArtsNB), will provide a history of the organization, an update on the ArtsNB grants and will also discuss the changing profile of the Arts Board. For more information please contact the Arts Alliance at 443-9900 or frederictonartsalliance@nbnet.ca.
