

THE SAINT JOHN GAZETTE,

AND GENERAL ADVERTISER.

[Vol. XV.]

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1801.

[No. 98.—TOTAL 767.]

ST. JOHN: PRINTED by JACOB S. MOTT, at his Printing-Office in Prince William-Street, where Essays, Advertisements, &c. are thankfully received.

New-Brunswick.

House of Assembly.

Frederickton, 26th January, 1801.

HIS EXCELLENCY came down this day to the Council Chamber, and opened the Session of the General Assembly by the following SPEECH to both Houses.

Gentlemen of the Council,
and Gentlemen of the Assembly,

DURING the period which has elapsed since our last meeting, we have continued to enjoy internal peace and tranquillity; and I have been able, without public inconvenience, to defer calling you from your private affairs till now, when the Revenue Laws, passed at the last Session, are near expiring. The continuance of these Laws, with such additions or amendments as may be found requisite for the present service or future prosperity of the Province, is the principal object that I have now to recommend to your deliberation.

Gentlemen of the Assembly,

I have given orders for the Treasurer's Accounts and such other Papers as may be necessary for your further information to be laid before you.

The salutary measure of extending the Revenue Acts of the last Session to the term of two years, has been productive of a considerable saving to the Treasury, which, I have the satisfaction to inform you, is now in a condition to answer every demand on account of past services.

Gentlemen of the Council,
and Gentlemen of the Assembly,

I cannot here omit to congratulate with you on the providential preservation of HIS MAJESTY'S LIFE on a late occasion of imminent danger, and to express that grateful sense of the divine favor, in that instance, manifested to our Country, which must have been deeply impressed on the mind of every loyal subject of a Sovereign so truly and so deservedly beloved and venerated.

ADDRESS OF THE COUNCIL in answer to HIS EXCELLENCY'S SPEECH.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY THOMAS CARLETON, Esquire, Lieutenant Governor, and Commander in Chief of the Province of New-Brunswick, &c. &c. &c.

THE HUMBLE ADDRESS OF HIS MAJESTY'S COUNCIL in GENERAL ASSEMBLY, SIR,

We beg leave to return our thanks to your EXCELLENCY for your SPEECH in the opening of the present Session; and to testify our sense of the wisdom and vigilance of your EXCELLENCY'S Administration, under which we have so long continued to enjoy internal peace and tranquillity.

We consider it as an auspicious circumstance, that your EXCELLENCY has been able without public inconvenience, to defer convening the General Assembly during so great a part of the period to which the Revenue Laws of the last Session were extended; and we shall be happy to concur in the continuation of those Laws with such additions or amendments as may be found requisite for the present service or future prosperity of the Province.

We accept with the warmest emotion, your EXCELLENCY'S congratulations on the providential preservation of HIS MAJESTY'S LIFE, on a late occasion of imminent danger; and we participate with your EXCELLENCY in that grateful sense of the divine favor, in that instance manifested to our Country, which must have been deeply impressed on the mind of every loyal subject of a Sovereign so truly and so deservedly beloved and venerated.

To which HIS EXCELLENCY was pleased to return the following Answer.

Gentlemen,

The obliging tenor of your ADDRESS affords me the greater satisfaction from the experience I have had of your steady and exclusive regard to HIS MAJESTY'S service, and to the real welfare of the Province.

ADDRESS OF THE ASSEMBLY in Answer to HIS EXCELLENCY'S SPEECH.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY THOMAS CARLETON, Esq. Lieutenant Governor, and Commander in Chief of the Province of New-Brunswick, &c. &c. &c.

THE HUMBLE ADDRESS OF THE HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

May it please your Excellency!

To accept the sincere thanks of the House for your obliging SPEECH at the opening of this Session of the General Assembly.

The House recognize with great satisfaction the internal peace and tranquillity, which, during the period elapsed since their last meeting, the Country under the auspicious Administration of your EXCELLENCY continues to enjoy: And that, without public inconvenience, your EXCELLENCY has been enabled to defer calling them together until the Revenue Laws, passed at the last Session, were near expiring. The House will give their immediate attention to the continuance of these Laws with such additions or amendments as may be found requisite for the present service or future prosperity of the Province, and which they will now make the principal object of their deliberations.

The House thank your EXCELLENCY for the orders you have been pleased to give that the Treasurer's Accounts, and such other Papers as may be necessary for their further information, be laid before them.

The House are extremely happy to find that the salutary measure of extending the Revenue Acts of the last Session to the term of two years, has been productive of a saving to the Treasury sufficient to answer every demand on account of past services.

The House of Assembly are most sensibly affected by the congratulations of your EXCELLENCY on the providential preservation of HIS MAJESTY'S LIFE on a late occasion of imminent danger; and devoutly wish to express with your EXCELLENCY their grateful sense of the divine favor, in that instance manifested, and which must have been deeply impressed on the mind of every subject of a Sovereign so truly and so deservedly beloved and venerated.

To which HIS EXCELLENCY was pleased to return the following Answer.

Gentlemen,

I thank you for the assurance you give me of an immediate attention to the business which I have recommended to your deliberation, and for the expressions of approbation which accompany this pledge of your zeal for the public service.
