THE RESPONSE OF "OUR GIRLS"
To the Wail of the Polymorphians.

BY M. J. H.

Cease, brother, cease your wailing,
To your aid we all come sailing,
For we know your hearts are quailing
With your Father Adam's failing,
"Tis not good to be alone."

You can rate, and prate, and smoke,
Play a game or crack a joke,
But alas! your hearts are broke
If of work you do a stroke,
Without the aid of woman.

So we're coming, brothers, coming.
And we'll work like bees a-humming,
While we leave to you the bumming,
For we know you'll do it "stunning."
Without the aid of woman.

Then, when the work is done,
We'll be asked to "take a run"
By Old Adam's every son,
And to keep ourselves quite "mum"
As glory's not for woman.

Still, like bees we could you sting,
If at us your taunts you fling,
But instead we laugh and sing.
Knowing well that June will bring
Glory to a woman.

Though you hinder our desire,
Yet we need not cherish ire,
Simply heap true "coals of fire,"
For no man climbed ever higher
Than the summit reached by woman.

And Old Time can never bring
To a future Queen or King
Any greater, grander thing,
Than the love the world will fling
At her feet, The Royal Woman.

Adown the coming ages,
Her name on history's pages
Will be revered, by sages,
The mind that truly gauges
The dignity of woman.

THE GRAND PARADE.

Tuesday afternoon, June 22, will witness one of the largest and best parades ever seen in this city. The following is a partial list of those societies who have signified their intention of turning out:

Firemen and Salvage Corps with paraphernalia, beautifully decorated. The firemen have invited Fredericton, Moncton, Amherst, Woodstock, St. Stephen and Sussex to participate with them in the parade, and expect to have at least 250 men in the ranks.

The Orangemen will be to the front in full regalia and will make a good showing.

St. Andrew's Society and Clan Mackenzie will turn out in force, representing some 150 members; they will march to the music of six pipers.

St. George's Society will march, as will also the Sons of England, and will be represented by about 125 members.

The Loyalist Society have made arrangements to turn out.

The Boy's Brigade will don their uniforms to the extent of over 100 members and will add much to the success of the parade.

The uniformed Knights of Pythias, the Odd Fellows' Society, and a number of other societies have not yet signified their intention of taking part in the parade. They may be heard from later.

PARADE COMMITTEE.

The Parade Committee is composed of the following gentlemen:

- | | |
|-------------------|---------------------|
| A. O. Skinner, | T. B. Robinson, |
| Thos. Kickham, | John H. Toage, |
| Colonel Blaine, | C. T. Lugin, |
| J. L. Carleton, | D. H. Waterbury, |
| Geo. Blake, | J. McKinney, Jr., |
| J. R. Armstrong, | J. A. Fowler, |
| D. J. Purdy, | Robt. Maxwell, |
| Geo. McAvity, | G. U. Hay, |
| A. O. Crookshank, | J. J. Gordon, |
| W. Walker Clarke, | Rev. W. W. Rainnie, |
| John Kerr, | Harold Perley, |
| J. D. Hazen, | J. I. Robinson, |
| Chairman. | Secretary. |

The citizens of Fredericton have decided to celebrate Her Majesty's Diamond Jubilee on July 1st. Committees have been appointed to arrange a programme of sports and a monster procession for that day. This will enable the Celestials to take in the St. John demonstration.

Will review the parade from King Square.
