APPEAL TO FOSS
FOR RICHESON

Boston, April 26—A final step by counsel for Clarence V. T. Richeson, the confessed murderer of his former sweetheart Miss Avis Linnell, to secure a commutation of the death sentence was taken this afternoon when the attorney appeared before Governor Foss. The lawyers urged the governor to lay their petition asking that the sentence of death be changed to one of life imprisonment, before the executive council.

Although the lawyers would not which they would seek to have the divulge all of the grounds upon sentence commuted it is known that they lay great stress upon the mental condition of their client. Another point which was made was that Richeson voluntarily confessed and saved Norfolk county thousands of dollars.
The conference was held behind closed doors.

SCOTCH SETTLEMENT

April 24—The snow is about all gone in this section still the weather continues cold and disagreeable.

The lumbermen who operated on the Macnaquac are now engaged driving their logs to the rafting place at the Mouth of Macnaquac. They report the drives coming along fine.
R. Aiken's drive will be in, in the course of a day or two—and Currie, Barr & Co are not far behind.

Geo. S. Hagerman had the misfortune to lose his fine driving mare "Lady" not long ago. She took sick after being driven to Fredericton and died at Long's Hotel stable.

Miss Ethel Clarke came home last Saturday after spending a week with friends in Fredericton and St. Marys.
Miss L.E. Allen of Boston who was called here by the illness of her uncle David Haines, expects to return some time next week.

Mr. David Haines who was hurt very badly by being kicked by one of his horses on March 26th died at an early hour on Sunday 21st inst.
It was thought after the intense suffering of the first few days that he would recover. Then he had an attack of pleurisy from which he seemed to rally fairly well, when other unlooked for complications set in,
and in spite of the most tender nursing and the utmost care he passed peacefully away aged 72 years. He leaves a sorrowing widow but no family. The funeral service held at his late residence on Monday, 22nd., was conducted by Rev. Mr. Colpitts, pastor of the Baptist Church, Macna-quac of which church deceased was a devout member and Rev. E. J.
Thompson of Keswick Ridge.

Mrs. Dunbar Jones, Hawkinsville
Corner has been visiting her sister
