WALTER COX
HAS GOOD MATERIAL
FOR 1912 CAMPAIGN

Sterling McKinney joined Dover Stable last week--important additions from Middle West

(Boston Globe)

Sterling McKinney, 2.06 1/2 now is quartered in a stall at the Dover, N. H., track, being one of the eight additions to the stable of Walter Cox last week. The famous stallion was sent to New England for the reason that his owner Barton Pardee of Lock Haven, Penn., is sending all of his horses to Cox for training and racing. Lady Vincent, 2.20 1/2 and Esther W., 1.13 1/2, two trotters selected for the Pennsylvania man by Tommy Murphy have been turned over to Cox as has a three-year-old by Sterling McKinney while the pacer Woodcliff King, 2.12 1/2 has wintered at Dover.

Lady Vincent failed to get to the races last season, so must be counted a doubtful proposition. Ester W., is the daughter of Director Moore First who raced so well in the oil country last July and was grabbed by Murphy for a long price.

These two mares will add considerable strength to the Cox stable as Mary G., and Aroma McKinney it gives him four trotters that have shown enough to warrant staking through the circuit.

FOUR OTHERS

Walter picked up four horses at the Lackey sale that promise to be useful and they landed at Dover just before the Spring snowstorms set in. Cox paid only $2000 for the 6-year-old roan gelding, James W., 2.17 1/2, but he looks choice judges by his showing last year, when he gained nine brackets, taking his record at Hamilton, O., in the fourth heat of a winning race and trotting the fifth in 2.17 most of his winning races five heat events.

PACING STALLION

The pacing stallion Add F., 2.13 1/2, for which Cox paid $1600 has the reputation of being one of the most consistent race horses over the Ohio and Indiana and half-mile tracks. He started in about 15 races last year, all in 2.20 or slower classes and took the record at Hamilton, O., in the third heat of a winning race.

In all of his starts he was hardly ever out of the money, although he gained only five brackets. While reported to be a high class individual, Add F. is not of plain breeding, his sire being the non-standard stallion Judge John Hughes his dam Tribby by Eagle Monroe, second dam by a horse known as Ohio Chief.

IN THE MONEY

For $1135 Cox secured the pacing mare Mansfield, 2.14 1/2 by Alstrath, 2.24 1/2, dam Kumer by Creg. Like the others this one also hails from the half-mile tracks of the Middle West and has shown splendidly in all her races. Last year she started ten times, gained four brackets and was in the money in every start. She took her record at Ottawa, Ill., in a three heat race pacing every heat in 2.18 1/2. The fourth animal to come from Cambridge city is a gray unmarked trotter by Keller Thomas, with a story that sounds attractive.

CALIFORNIA'S HAMMER THROWERS

In the California-Southern California meet, Shattuck of U. of C. threw the 16-pound hammer 160 feet 3 inches, and Hale of the same team put the 16-pound shot 45 feet 4 1/2 inches, while Kretzinger another teammate did 22 feet 3 1/2 inches in the broad jump.

California has a freshman who does 148 feet 5 inches with the hammer.

F. P. HATT WON ROLL-OFF

There was some fairly good bowling at the Queen Hotel Bowling Alleys last night when the weekly roll-off took place. F. P. Hatt was the winner with an average of 85 1/2.

RING NOTES

Charley Hitt and Kid Henry are to meet in private next month. Jack Britton and Ray Temple have been matched to box in Oakland, Cal. April 3.

It took nearly three hours for the operation which was pronounced successful. The surgeons told O'Rourke that Palzer's nose will be better than ever.

Al Kubiak and Jim Savage who has put two of the "hopes" out of running for a while at least, have been matched to box in New York, March 29.

PICKED TEAM OF N.H.A. STARTS
ON TRIP TO PACIFIC COAST

Will Play at Vancouver April 2nd and at Victoria April 4th--Seven-men Team will be Used--East and West Teams are Pick of Professional Hockey

Montreal, March 26--"Starting what is probably the most pretentious tour ever undertaken by any Canadian hockey team, ten players representing the pick of three N.H.A. teams left last night for the Pacific Coast to play a short series with the All Stars of the Western League. The players making the trip organized by Art Ross, the great Wanderer defence man are as follows: From Quebec, Moran, Malone and MacDonald; From Ottawa, Ronan, Darragh and Shore; From Wanderers, Sprague, Odie Clegborn and Fred Taylor, headed by the Wanderer captain and promoter of the trip, Art Ross.

It was originally intended to take Lesser to play goal, but when it developed that the Ottawa man would be unable to go, Moran was chosen instead. Then at the last minute Darragh had to be substituted for Kerr. While Taylor is being carried as a spare there is every likelihood of his playing.

Three games will be played against an all-star aggregation of British Columbia players. The first will be staged at Vancouver on the 2nd of April, the second at Victoria on the 4th, and the final match at Vancouver.

On paper the players that will oppose each other in these contests are the fourteen best men in the Dominion, and other things being equal the matches should be rattling good ones.

The line-up for the games will be:

EAST	Goal	WEST
Moran	Point	Lehman
Ross	Cover	F. Patrick
Shore	Rover	Johnston
Ronan	Centre	Lalonde
Malone	Right	Dundonald
O. Clegborn	Left	Hyland
Darragh		Mallen
Spare: East, McDonald, S. Clegborn and Taylor. West, L. Patrick and Gardner.

ZANDRANG PELLETIER
HAULED OVER THE COALS

"The trouble with the Postmaster General is," volunteered Mr. Lemieux, "that he has one language for this House and another for his electors. I say he was one of the worst sinners in Quebec during the last campaign. Why, he did not even run as a straight Conservative."

"I did," shouted Mr. Pelletier.

"You did?" exclaimed Mr. Lemieux.

"Yes, I did," the Minister reiterated.

"Then all I can say of that is that you have more brass than the Niobe herself," retorted Mr. Lemieux.

"The Minister has the audacity to say that he did not run in the last election as an avowed Nationalist. Despite what he had said he is a co-proprietor of L'Evenement. He was such only a week or two ago, when I looked up the matter. If he has withdrawn it is only during the past few days. And at Montmagny during the campaign, with his master, Armand Laverne, his own paper reports him as saying that he did not run as a Conservative, but as a Nationalist, and that every French-Canadian should regard him as the representative of their race. I proclaim myself as a Nationalist, and I am proud to be a Nationalist," read Mr. Lemieux of the Minister's reported speech, "and now he has the audacity to tell the House he ran as a straight Conservative. He had read Mr. Bourassa's message, and had condemned Sir Wilfrid Laurier as the 'Nestor of the Imperial Conference.'"

Concluding, Mr. Lemieux said that if the present government were able to evolve a sane Imperial policy it would have the support of every Liberal from Quebec. Quebec was true and loyal "notwithstanding the fulminations of the firebrand I see before me now," pointing at Mr. Pelletier.

The latter sprang to his feet, Mr. Lemieux must not think he could "throw mud" with impunity against the honor and the reputation of the most honest men in the Province of Quebec.

"When I spoke of you!" exclaimed Mr. Pelletier, "while the Liberal benches rocked with ironical laughter."

"He cannot call me an arch-traitor," proceeded Mr. Pelletier.

"Oh, I did not. That was your friends," put in Mr. Lemieux, while the Liberals cheered again.

Mr. Pelletier caught sight of a copy of The Globe lying on Mr. Lemieux's desk. He jumped up and shouted that Mr. Lemieux had not been reading from L'Evenement at all, but from The Toronto Globe.

"Oh, yes I was," replied the member for Rouville, holding aloft L'Evenement.

"Well, he had The Globe there," retorted Mr. Pelletier, "and The Toronto Globe has the habit of making certain reports of a political speech which are absolute errors, and of such nature as to deceive the public."

Continuing, he declared he was going to read a letter written by Mr. Lemieux in August, 1903, in which he had affirmed himself and quoted "his

Giants Cutting Squad to Required Twenty-five and Holding all Young Players Possible

Dallas, Tex., March 24--The victory of the Giant Regulars over Dallas this afternoon was somewhat lost sight of tonight by the announcement that Arlie Latham, the picturesque old coach, was no longer with the team.

On account of the limiting by the National Commission of the number of players in National League clubs as many of his youngsters as possible to 25, and McGraw's desire to carry it, it became necessary to let Latham go.

Arlie left for Memphis to see Charley Murphy in hopes of getting a job with the Cubs. Latham is a good instructor for young players. The players are a little sad over his departure, and his merry jests on and off the field will be missed.

Before leaving Dallas, the Regulars scored a victory over Dallas, 11 to 4, hard hitting featuring.

PURSE OF $16,000 FOR BOUT

New York, March 25--The National Sporting Club of America today made an offer of a $16,000 purse for a ten round bout between Matt Wells, light weight champion of England, and Paddy McFarland, of Chicago, the match to take place on a date of the fighters.

BASEBALL NOTES

Harry Smith and Bill Bergen are both catching for Newark this season. Both are spoken of as the possible captain of the McGinnity outfit with the odds on Bergen as McGinnity says he will have a catcher for a leader and Bergen is likely to do the most work.

"Buck" Freeman would like to be back with the Boston Nationals now that the right-field fence has been placed at so convenient an angle for home runs; but Buck's big league days are over and he's still the contented manager of the Scranton team.

LOCAL CURLERS
CLOSED SEASON
WITH BANQUET

Dr. A. B. Atherton, President, Was Host--Season of 1912 was very Successful

The Fredericton Curling Club formally closed its season last night with a banquet at the rink which was tendered the members of the club by the president Dr. A. B. Atherton. About forty were in attendance and a very enjoyable time was spent.

At the conclusion of the supper which began at ten o'clock there was a number of speeches and songs. Lt. Col. T. G. Loggie, J. H. Hawthorn and Dr. V. B. Bridges all of whom made reference to the president's efforts in connection with the club and with the game of curling. Dr. Bridges also paid tribute to Dr. Atherton's skill as a surgeon.

The president replied and in a humorous vein thanking those who had spoke for the good wishes expressed. He regretted that he had not become a curler earlier in life. During the evening there were also songs by Messrs C. F. Randolph and George G. Parker and by Dr. Bridges.

SUCCESSFUL SEASON

The season just closed has been one of the most successful in the history of the club although the number of matches played has been smaller than is usually the case. Out of six matches played but one has been lost by the local curlers losing to the Thistles at St. John by six points. In five matches the total margin over their opponents was 153 points leaving a net margin of 153 points on the season's play. The Thistles, St. Stephen were beaten here and St. Andrew's and Carleton beaten in St. John. The membership of the local club is large and enthusiasm and interest in the game has never been surpassed.

Of the 16 managers of the major league teams this year, 15 have at one time or another fought under the National League banner. The exception is Jake Stahl of the Red Sox, who broke into the American League his first year out and never has played with the old organization.

They say a good workman is known by his tools. You cannot expect your maid to keep everything ship-shape unless you give her every modern help. To keep house without GOLD DUST is to do work by hard, old-fashioned methods. For cleaning everything and anything about the house--from cellar to attic--GOLD DUST is worth its weight in gold. It cuts grease and dirt like magic, does away with scouring and scrubbing, and saves time and tempers.

Your servant can do more and better work and keep sweet with the aid of GOLD DUST in all household cleaning.
