FIVE VOTES FOR.....

New York, July 6—Now that the summer season has at last begun in earnest, it is quite timely to speak of the latest styles in outing apparel especially for the younger women and girls. There are many new and attractive things in motoring and riding costumes, but they differ principally in the matter of material, not so much in cut.

POLITICS IS LIVELY IN STATE OF KANSAS

Topeka, Kas., July 31—If the present political campaign in Kansas had much longer to run the big wheat and corn and other crops promised for the State this year would be in grave danger of neglect. But fortunately for the State and the prosperity of its citizens the campaign will end with the primaries next Tuesday, leaving the people free to turn their attention from politics.

On the eve of the primaries for the choice of candidates for all public affairs from United States senator and governor down to county officials the situation is admittedly the most complicated in the political history of the Sunflower State. About the only feature in connection with the contest that stands out clearly is the fact that Republican discord has increased the prospects of Democratic success in Kansas next November to an extent that would scarcely have been thought possible twelve months ago. That the Democrats are alive in their opportunity is evidenced by the fact that there is a great scramble to get on the Democratic ballot, there being an abundance of candidates in the primaries for every office to be filled.

The contest for Republican presidential electors has been so bitter as to attract nationwide attention. The attempt of the Taft following to defeat the enemy by injunction proceedings failed, with the result that both the regulars and the progressives will have sets of presidential electors on the primary ballots. The progressives are fighting with might and main for a victory in the primaries. The battle is being directed by Governor Stubbs, William Allen White and other Roosevelt leaders of national reputation.

Governor Stubbs is fighting for the Republican endorsement for United States senator in opposition to Senator Curtis, whose term will expire next March and who is a candidate for renomination. Senator Curtis is a Taft supporter, while Governor Stubbs is one of the "seven governors" who persuaded Roosevelt to enter the presidential race. The Governor is making his fight on an out-and-out progressive platform.

Four Democrats aspire to succeed Curtis in the senate. They are Judge Thomas L. Bond of Salina, S. H. Allen of Topeka, W. H. Thompson of Garden City and H. P. Ferrelley of Chanute.

The Republican contest for the gubernatorial nomination are Arthur Capper, the Topeka editor, and Frank J. Ryan of Leavenworth. Capper is allied with the progressives and Ryan leans towards the regulars. The Democratic contest for the gubernatorial nomination is between J. B. Billard, mayor of Topeka, and Geo. H. Hodges of Olathe, a member of the State senate. The chief plank in Billard's platform is the resubmission of the prohibitory law, in which he is opposed by Hodges.

In addition to governor, both parties will nominate candidates for justices of the supreme court, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, auditor, treasurer, attorney general, superintendent of public instruction, superintendent of public instruction, superintendent of insurance and State printer. Practically all of the present State officials are candidates for renomination. District judges and members of the legislature also are to be nominated.

Spirited contests are on in nearly all of the congressional districts. All of the present representatives are candidates for renomination. Anthony of the first district and Campbell of the third district have opposition. Victor Murdock of the eighth district, one of the prominent Roosevelt leaders, is opposed for renomination by J. B. Adams of Eldorado. Joseph Taggart, the only Democratic member of the Kansas delegation in the lower house, will be renominated in the second district without opposition.

In addition to the Republicans and Democrats, the Socialists will have an almost complete State ticket on the primary ballots. The Socialist party choice for United States senator is A. W. Ricker of Girard and for governor, G. W. Kleihege of Lawrence. The Socialists will have candidates in six of the eight congressional districts.

Despite the bitterness of the present fight between the two factions of the Republicans the opinion prevails among the foremost of the party leaders that after the primary battle is over the rank and file of the party will get together for a united fight against the Democratic opposition at the November election. The harmony workers find much encouragement in the fact that even the most enthusiastic of the progressives have hesitated to suggest placing a Third State ticket in the field.

Helena, Mont., July 29—A State convention of the third party supporters in Montana met here today to elect delegates to the coming national convention in Chicago.

BASEBALL NOTES

Larry Lajoie being out of the game put quite a crimp in Napless Naps hitting and fielding.

Manager Hank Ramsey of the Troy team, may take a team made up of New York State leaguers to Cuba this fall.

Barry McCormick, the former big leaguer, has been released as manager of the Mansfield team in the Ohio State League.

The veteran Capt. Anson, who still watches the game closely, picks the Boston Red Sox to win the American League pennant.

Jack Dunn has a great team at Baltimore this season and the Rochester Hustlers will have to go some if they beat out the Orioles in the International League race.

George (Chief) Johnson, the big Indian twirler of the St. Joseph Western League team, recently sold to the Chicago White Sox, won fifteen out of his first twenty games this season.

John McGraw, who has just celebrated his tenth anniversary as the manager of the New York Giants, says that the late Frank Selee was the greatest manager that ever piloted a big league team.

The Vancouver Northwestern League Club has purchased Archie Parsons, the crack gardener of the Basano team. Parsons hit for .370 and was the leading batter in the Western Canada League.

In a recent game between Davenport and Decatur, in the Three-I League, Davenport made an odd triple play in which two men were retired at the home plate and another at third base.

Jimmy Thorpe hasn't anything on the Boston Braves when it comes to the deaehion industry. Where the Braves shine is in the baseball deaehion—playing ten different kinds of ball in one afternoon.

The best of them fall when they run against Walter Johnson. Ty Cobb averaged six hits a day for three days in Philadelphia, then moved on to Washington, faced Johnson in the first game and didn't get a hit.

Pennant hopes of the Chicago fans are 18 carats fine one day and not worth a jitzney the next. The Cubs beat the Giants and the pennant is won; then the Quakers wallop the Cubs and the pennant is lost only to be won again when the Cubs take a fall out of the Dodgers.

You may know the St. Lawrence from history or picture books, but you'll never realize it until you see it from the deck of an ocean liner. The R. M. S. Royal Edward and R. M. S. Royal George offer you the last word in comfort and travel service to round out the pleasure of a trip to England down the most delightful river in the world. Write for Descriptive Booklet.

RING NOTES

One-Round Hogan takes on Tommy McFarland in San Francisco on Wednesday night. McFarland is the latest lightweight developed in California and a good future is predicted for him.

The Sydney N.S., fans were duped last Friday night. They were led to believe that the boxer Mickey McIntyre knocked out in two rounds was Peck Lefavour of Brockton. The latter writes the Globe that he has not been out of Brockton. It is such deception that has hurt the game to a great extent.

Bill Papke has agreed to meet Eddie McGoorty in Kenosha on Labor Day. Papke will get a good trimming if he is no better than the last time he boxed here and judging from the battle he put up against Moreau in France a month ago he has not made much progress.

Jim Barry, the Chicago heavyweight, is again under the management of Teddy Murphy.
