 LOST EIGHTEEN
 INNING GAME

Bates Lost to Bowdoin in Longest Game in History of College Baseball in Maine

Brunswick, Me., June 7.—After 18 innings of baseball here today Bow-doin defeated Bates 5 to 4 in the final game of the Bowdoin schedule. It was the longest intercollegiate baseball game ever played in Maine, the previous record for a long game having been established June 8, 1910, when Colby defeated Bowdoin in 17 innings.

There was a large crowd at the annual Ivy Day game. The game opened badly for Bowdoin, Bates scoring three runs in the first inning on a base on balls, a wild pitch, errors by Tuttle and Joy and hits by Reagan and Shepard.

After that Bowdoin steadied down and Bates did not score again until the 11th. One reached third, in the third and one second in the fifth, sixth and eighth.

Bowdoin tallied for the first time in the third when Skolfield and La-case, who had been hit, scored on an error by Stinson. Means hit a high fly which Stinson failed to see until it struck the ground at his feet. As two men were out both Bowdoin base runners had started when the ball was hit and both scored before it could be fielded.

In the eighth Bowdoin tied the score, Tilton and Means each hitting for two bases and Tilton scoring. In the 11th Talbot led off for Bates with a hit, went to second on Griffith's sacrifice and scored on Shepard's double to right field.

Tuttle who was playing his first game for Bowdoin saved the day for the White by driving a home run down the 220-yard straightaway on the running track in left field. After that there was no scoring until the 18th inning, when Brooks went across the plate. He reached first on an error by Reagan, went to second 8 on Stinson's wild pitch, and scored on Weatherill's single.

Capt. Means, Brooks and Joy all played their last game for Bowdoin as all will graduate this month.
 Joy's record of 27 putouts has probably never been equaled in one game in this State.

Bowdoin lost a pretty chance to win the game in the 10th. With the bases full and one out, Cooley hit a fly to Shepard, Skolfield who was on third started an instant before the ball was caught and was called out when Capt. Griffin of Bates touched third base.

Griffin figured in a double play, had 16 putouts, 2 stolen bases and one sacrifice hit.

BIG LEAGUE SCOUT LOOKS
OVER ST. JOHN BALLPLAYERS

(St. John Times-Star.)

Hist. There's a baseball scout in town. The name of the mysterious one is R. O. Seybold and he comes from Pittsburgh. Although he would not admit the fact, it is understood on pretty good authority that he is here in the interest of the Cleveland Baseball Club, and that his mission is to look over some of the recruits that have been signed up by the Marathon management. Mr. Seybold arrived in the city on the Boston express, on the same train that brought Joe Tarbell and George Winter to St. John. He was on the Marathon grounds yesterday afternoon and saw the game between the Marathons and the Woodstock team.
 Last night he was seen in conversation with Joe Tarbell, the Marathon pitcher, and it is whispered that he was endeavoring to sign Joe with the Cleveland team.

Mr. Seybold played for many years with the Philadelphia Athletics, and during his time with that team was a great player. He played left field, and figured in the line-up of the Athletics in many of their big games.
 In 1902 he played with the team when they batted with the New York Giants for the world's championship and was one of Connie Mack's best players. He has been out of the game for several years but has managed several of the smaller teams in the states. This year he played for a while with the Richmond, Virginia, team in the United States League.

To a Times reporter last night Mr.
 Seybold said that he was just touring around the country on a holiday trip. He said he would attend the game this afternoon, and see what kind of ball they were playing here.
 In speaking of yesterday's game he said that he was greatly pleased with the showing made by the both teams.

After leaving here he expects to look over some of the New England teams. He is well acquainted with —Ganley to go to Right Field—Duggan and New Players Arrived at Noon Today

Manager P. J. Duggan of the Fredericton Baseball Club, returned at noon today from his wanderings, accompanied by Bob Ganley, the veteran outfielder who was with Fredericton last season, and Pitcher Brown, who has been doing some good work in New England.

Ganley has been in the south during the spring, playing with the Chattanooga team, but left a short time ago, Manager Duggan securing his services. With Ganley to help the team out in batting and Brown to brace up the pitching end of the team, Fredericton is expected to show improvement. Ganley will replace Fitzgerald in right field and will play this afternoon against Woodstock. It is not yet decided whether

St. John, June 10.—The Marathons found themselves Saturday afternoon and rolled up on the baseball artists from Woodstock eight runs, while the visitors were only able to tally once.
 The whole game looked quite easy for the locals and they batted and fielded as though they had not recently suffered eight defeats in a row. The game was a good exhibition from start to finish and the 2,000 fans in attendance were elated over the showing made by the rejuvenated Marathons. All the locals seem to need now is more vim and accuracy in their hitting and this is sure to come with proper coaching.
