Acadia Picked to Beat Mt. Allison Today

Capt. Dupuy of King's College, Says There is Nothing to it But Acadia on Form Displayed by 2 Teams in Matches with His Team --King's College XV Arrived Last Night-- Playing U. N. B. This Afternoon

King's College Rugby team, which is to play the University of New Brunswick at College Field at four o'clock this afternoon, arrived here by C.P.R. last night at eight o'clock and was welcomed at the railway station by a big crowd of U.N.B. students.

The members of the visiting team are guests at the York Hotel and are a clean-cut lot of boys who have the appearance of good football players. As far as size and weight is concerned the Blue and White gives U.N.B. little if any advantage.

FINAL WORDS.

The U.N.B. team had a light workout yesterday, devoting particular attention to dribbling, heeling and signal work. The practice took place in the rain but that did not interfere in the dressing-room at the close of the practice the coach, "Babe" Church, addressed a few solemn words to the XV and the occasion was impressive. It is to be hoped that the results of his labors will be seen today.

The two teams are to line up as follows:

|---------------|-------------------|
| King's | U.N.B. |
| Murray | Fullback |
| J. Harley | Halves |
| Helbert | Murphy |

A RUM SELLER'S CASE
SAYS EDITOR McLEOD

Under the heading "A Rum Seller's Case," The Maritime Baptist last week has the following:—"A report, unconfirmed at this writing—and which we hope may remain unconfirmed—says the recent investigation of charges against Police Magistrate Kay of Moncton will result in his dismissal. Not having seen the evidence we cannot fairly form a final judgment of the case. It is known however that a certain class of men in Moncton with sympathizers in St. John and elsewhere have had a strong and bitter feeling against Magistrate Kay and have done their utmost to have him removed. Their sole objection to him is that he faithfully administers the law against convicted violators of the Canada Temperance Act, which is in force in Moncton. We believe we are correct in saying that those who instigated the recent investigation and whose names were attached to the petition asking for an investigation, are, the large majority at least, the men who have repeatedly been convicted of law violations. They are simply persistent, illegal rum-sellers and their kind, who want to get rid of an official whose idea of law is that it should be enforced. Whether there is anything else in the complaints against the magistrate we do not know; but there is much reason to believe that his being offensive to the rum gang is at the bottom of the movement for his removal. And any man who provokes the ill-will of such a disreputable and criminal crowd is more likely to be worthy of support than censure. Later—Since the foregoing was in type the dismissal of Mr. Kay has been announced. More may need to be said of this case."

Sears not With Team—Acadia Conceded to Have Big Advantage in Weight on Wet Field

Sackville, Oct. 24—The Mount Allison football team, accompanied by several supporters left this morning for Wolfville where tomorrow, the annual game will be played with the Acadia fifteen. The basketball team chosen from the lady students of the University and the Ladies' College pupils also left this morning for Wolfville and tomorrow evening will try conclusions with the Acadia girls. The football team will line up as follows: Full, Milton; halves, Clay, Pickard, Godfrey, Thompson; quarters, Dickinson, (capt.), Malcolm, Lucas; forwards, Titus, MacDonald, Durrant, Cramm, Greg, Palmer, Pickup, Armstrong, Tompison, Outerbridge and Barnes, will be carried as spares. Ears, one of the fastest halves in the business was unable to accompany the team, being laid up with an injury. The team is very light and this fact will, of course, be a disadvantage, especially if Friday happens to be wet. In that event the weight of the Acadia team would not rally count for a great deal. Acadia's chief strength this year is supposed to lie in its forward line but the Andrews boys in the back line are crackjack players and will keep the Mt. Allison players pretty busy if they are in their usual form.

CAPT. DUPUY'S FORECAST

Capt. Dupuy of the King's College Rugby team now in the city which has played both Mt. Allison and Acadia stated to a representative of The Mail last night that he would unhesitatingly pick Acadia to win this afternoon's Intercollegiate League match at Wolfville. He bases this opinion on the form displayed by the Garnet and Blue in the match against King's. Capt. Dupuy states further that Acadia has the best team she has turned out in years. The forwards in weight average well up to 180 pounds and the whole team is fast and plays the modern game of quick scrummaging and as much open play as possible. With regard to Acadia's defeat of Dalhousie Capt. Dupuy stated that he doubted if the Wolfville College could beat Yellow and Black now. Judging by Intercollegiate League Standards however the Acadia team ranks high in his estimation. After today's game the King's College captain will be able to compare the three teams of the Intercollegiate League and his opinion will be published in The Mail tomorrow.

JOHNNY EVERS MANAGER OF CHICAGO NATIONALS

EVERS SWINGING AT THE BALL

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 24—President Charles W. Murphy of the Chicago National League baseball team today conformed the report that the leader of the team for the next five years would be John Evers, second baseman in this year's team. Evers said he expected to sign a contract for the five years' term today, and President Murphy indicated that his understanding was the same.

PUNTS AND DROPS

Fredericton High and Rothesay Collegiate clash here tomorrow afternoon in the final game of the Inter-scholastic series. The local team will have the same line-up as in the other games and looks good enough to win.

King's College may play in St. John on the way back to Windsor.

"Chick" Jago has shown up so well at quarter-back in practice of late that it would not be surprising to see him given a chance to show what he can do in a match behind the U.N.B. first team's scrim.

In today's match at College Field the average weight of the King's College forwards is said to be 100, and that of U.N.B. 166.

The result of today's match here and of that at Wolfville should just about put the fans right on Intercollegiate Rugby dope.

According to what the King's College players say the Acadia team this year is as willing to scrap as to play Rugby, thus confirming press reports of the King's—Acadia game at Windsor.

"Nothing to it but Acadia," is the sum and substance of the forecast of the King's players with regard to today's Intercollegiate match at Wolfville.

The U.N.B. scrim has been licked into shape pretty well lately and is working in good style. The Red and Black has a code of signals for scrim work with McGibbon as director. The code probably will get a work-out in the match against King's today.

Rain all day yesterday and more last night has not made the College Field extra good for Rugby. However it has to be pretty bad weather before it will interfere with a Rugby game. The completion of the new roofed grandstand makes it possible for spectators to see a game on a rainy day without being drenched.

That the Argonauts have the best team in the Interprovincial Union is the opinion of Ben Simpson, the veteran Tiger centre-half, who officiated at the Argonauts-Montreal game last Saturday. Simpson has warned the Tigers that they have got to play the game of their history to save themselves from defeat on their own gridiron this coming Saturday.

Players of Rugby Union Said to be Paid Money for Time Lost in Playing

London, Oct. 22—English Rugby football is faced with a scandal which may lead to a wider breach in the English Rugby Union than that which caused the formation of the Northern Union in the 90s. Rugby is ostensibly a purely amateur game in England in distinction to the Association game, which is played largely by professional teams. Recently the Northern Union adherents invaded Devonshire and attempted to recruit players from the existing Rugby clubs. This campaign led to the exposure of the fact that many of the Devonshire players were receiving compensation for time lost from work in addition to their expenses while playing with their teams. The practice is open among the teams of the Northern Union, which has revised the Rugby rules until the form it plays is so strenuous that professional players are necessary for a successful team.

Some of the Devonshire players who have been suspended for negotiating with the Northern Union invaders state that the payment for lost time is general in the Rugby Union, and they declare that they will expose the system of the investigation which has been ordered by the governing committee of the Union.

The scandal comes at a particularly inopportune time, as the South African Springboks have just commenced a tour of the British Isles as the guests of the Rugby Union.

RING NOTES

If the dope that John Wille is handing out about how he stands in New Mexico is correct, there is some easy money for Jim Flynn meeting Wille there. The latter says that there is $20,000 in that State that will be bet that he can stop Flynn in seven rounds. Wille is no "piker" but the fans will not take his statement seriously.

Kid Graves of Wisconsin has been matched to go 10 rounds with Marty Brown the New York welterweight, in the main bout before the Brooklyn Beach A.C. Monday, Oct. 28.

Jem Driscoll, featherweight champion of England, is again ill, and upon advice of his physician has called off his bout with Owen Moran and also cancelled his proposed trip to this country. Moran declined to take Driscoll's forfeit.

Jack Redmond the Milwaukee lightweight has been matched to meet Kid Alberts of New York in a 10-round bout at Brooklyn Tuesday, Oct. 29. Young Ahearne will box Lee Barrett of Wisconsin and Johnny Solzberg of Brooklyn will meet Jimmy Murray at the same show.

Summit, N. J., Oct. 25—The annual boys' conference of the New Jersey Young Men's Christian Association opened here today for a three days session under the presidency of Charles R. Scott, State secretary of boys' work. An interesting program has been arranged, especially for the Saturday afternoon session, when Henry S. Parr, of Ridgewood, N. J., will preside. A number of highly interesting addresses will be delivered.

when they try conclusions with the Torontonians. He thinks Argonauts will beat Ottawa, and make a three-cornered tie between Tigers, Argonauts and Ottawa.

Steve Casey of the famous New Zealand "All Black" team, has put up a bit of a record in that he has played in 100 representative matches and taken part in nearly 300 engagements, and has never met with an accident. Rugby cannot be so very rough after all, when a front-rank forward can tell this tale.

Stanford University, who were defeated 6 to 0 by the visiting Australian Rugby team in the first game defeated the visitors 13 to 12 in the second.
