FRANCIS JOSEPH OBSERVED SIXTY-FIFTY YEAR OF YEAR

Vienna, Dec. 5.—With the flying of flags and the holding of services of thanksgiving in all the churches, the people from end to end of the dual monarchy today celebrated the beginning of the sixty-fifth year of the reign of Emperor Francis Joseph, whom is most often referred to as the most beloved ruler in Europe.

In the present struggle for the control of the Balkans, which threatens to result in a general European conflict, Francis Joseph, now in his eighty-third year, once more takes the center of the stage of world diplomacy. And Europe, mindful of his long and wonderful reign and the great influence it has been for peace, is wondering if his life as a ruler is to end as it began, in a bloody war.

Those who have known Francis Joseph the ruler of the last forty-five years, say he will avoid war; those who remember the boy of eighteen, who came to the throne in the midst of the storm and tumult occasioned by the revolution of 1848 and saved a tottering kingdom, who, in spite of defeat after defeat, has kept an empire of eighteen warring peoples together, who put down the Hungarian revolt with the world against him, and again won Hungary by peace when he lost it in war, these say he will not hesitate to fight if he thinks it necessary to preserve the life and honor of the dual monarchy and the welfare of his people.

If Francis Joseph goes to war at 83, after forty-five years of peace, he will lose the glory that has come to him as the great pacificator and the rest he has well earned. But in sacrificing himself for the empire he will be doing only what he has done from his eighteenth year. He has lived for the empire only. Again and again has his domestic life been darkened by unspeakable tragedies, but he has never allowed his personal afflictions to make him forget for a single moment the necessity for attending to public duty.

Then, sixty-four years ago today, Francis Joseph was somewhat unexpectedly called to the throne and he found his realm in a state of indescribable confusion. The policy of his immediate predecessors had been harsh and repressive and the great revolutionary war of 1848 caused formidable uprisings in both Austria and Hungary. These were sternly repressed and drastically punished. The ancient liberties of the Hungarians were curtailed and ultimately abolished, and Francis Joseph seemed destined to be perpetuated in history as one of the most despotic of European monarchs.

From this bad reputation he was saved by what seemed at the time a series of tragic misfortunes. In a short campaign in 1859 Austria was defeated by France and deprived of nearly all of her Italian territory. Then followed the crushing defeat inflicted on her by Prussia in 1866, and her expulsion from the German confederation.

This series of national humiliations only served to make apparent the statesmanlike qualities of Francis Joseph. From projects of foreign aggression he turned to plans of national betterment. The claims of Hungary began to receive consideration. The plan for a federal empire was adopted and Francis Joseph was crowned anew King of Hungary in 1867.

So peculiar a constitution as that of Austria-Hungary called for the exercise of patience, tact and administrative ability of the highest order, but for forty-five years the "Emperor of Sorrows" has managed to overcome all difficulties and yet retain a personal popularity which is without parallel among the present crowned heads of Europe.

ELDERLY MEN AND WOMEN MUST NOT USE CALOMEL, SALTS OR VIOLENT CATHARTICS

Harmless Delicious "Syrup of Figs" is Best to Cleanse Your Stomach, Liver and Thirty Feet of Bowels of Sour Bile, Decaying Food, Gasses and Clogged-up Waste

You old people, Syrup of Figs is particularly for you. You who don't exercise as much as you need to; who like the easy chair. You, whose steps are slow and whose muscles are less elastic. You must realize that your liver and ten yards of bowels have also become less active.

Don't regard Syrup of Figs as physic. It stimulates the liver and bowels just as exercise would do if you took enough of it. It is not harsh, like salts or cathartics. The help which Syrup of Figs gives to a torpid liver and weak, sluggish bowels is harmless, natural and gentle.

When eyes grow dim, you help them. Do the same with your liver and bowels when age makes them less active. There is nothing more important. Costive, clogged-up bowels mean that decaying, fermenting food is clogged there and the pores or ducts in these thirty feet of bowels suck this decaying waste and poisons into the blood. You will never get feeling right until this is corrected—but do it gently. Don't have a bowel wash-day; don't use a bowel irritant. For your sake, please use only gentle, effective Syrup of Figs. Then you are not drugging yourself, for Syrup of Figs is composed of only luscious figs, senna and aromatics which can not injure.

A teaspoonful tonight will gently but thoroughly, move on and out of your system by morning all the sour bile, poisonous fermenting food and clogged-up waste matter without gripe, nausea or weakness.

But get the genuine. Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Exlixir of Senna." Refuse with contempt, any other Fig Syrup unless it bears the name—prepared by the California Fig Syrup Company. Read the label.

COAST HOCKEY TEAMS PRACTICALLY COMPLETE

New York, December 4.—Declaring that the story was absurd, Harry M. Stevens, warm friend of the late John T. Brush and his family, absolutely denied the report that the New York National League Baseball Club was to be sold.

Rumor had it that the Brush heirs intended selling the club to Edward Tipton and C. L. G. Billings. These two prominent horsemen were greatly surprised yesterday when they were told of the report.

"That is the first I have heard of it," declared Mr. Billings. "I never entertained the idea of owning any stock in the Giants' club and I am pretty sure that Mr. Tipton never sought to buy any interest in the club, even if it had been for sale."

Don't Diet Yourself TO DEATH TO CURE DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION. IT ISN'T NECESSARY.

While it is necessary for the dyspeptic to abstain from rich, greasy, highly seasoned food, it is useless and injurious to deprive the sufferer of a full supply of good nutritious food sufficient for the needs of the body.

Weakening the body will never remove dyspepsia, on the contrary, all efforts should be to maintain and increase the strength.

Burdock Blood Bitters will increase the strength, and at the same time enables one to partake of all the wholesome food required, without fear of any unpleasant after results.

Miss Martha A. Brooks, Galetown, N.B., writes:—"I have been troubled with indigestion for more than seven years, have tried several doctors and different medicines, claiming the power to cure, but all without success. Having heard of the many cures effected by Burdock Blood Bitters, I decided to give it a trial. I have taken only one bottle, and that one has done me more good than all the other medicines I have used. My appetite, which was very poor, is now good, and I can eat most everything without any disagreeable feelings."
