THE BORDEN GOVERNMENT AND NAVAL QUESTION

(Toronto Globe)

Mr. Borden and three of his Ministerial colleagues have started on a journey to London which may be fraught with very grave consequences to both the Dominion and the Empire, as well as to the relation in which they now stand to one another in the matter of Imperial defence. The present ministry took last session the responsibility of advising Parliament to repeal the act that embodied the naval policy of the Laurier Administration. That policy was to proceed with the formation of a Canadian fleet of war vessels which should be under the absolute control of the Canadian Parliament, and should be placed, only with the consent of that Parliament, under the control of the British Admiralty in time of war. Hitherto no naval policy to take the place of the one thus specifically renounced has been formulated, and it has been repeatedly intimated officially on behalf of the Borden Administration that none will be adopted until its authors "know where we are standing within the Empire." To find that out is the motive of the present Ministerial mission.

On one general principle all political parties in Canada are unanimously agreed—Liberals, Conservatives, and Nationalists; that this Dominion is under no constitutional obligation to make any contribution to the British navy without having some voice in the determination of British foreign policy. The naval policy of the Laurier Government offered one solution of the difficulty created by the maintenance of this principle; whether the naval policy of the Borden Government will offer an essentially similar remains to be seen.
The probabilities seem to be in favor of the latter alternative. It is not at all likely that the Canadian Ministerial delegates will consent to surrender any part of our present autonomy; it is just as unlikely that the British Ministry will consent to surrender to any other part of the Empire a formal share in the prerogative that has always belonged absolutely to the Government of the United Kingdom; that of declaring war and of concluding peace. No British statesman, either of the United Kingdom or of any of the dominions overseas, has been able to show how the Empire's foreign policy can be successfully maintained if the diplomatic freedom immemorably allowed to the British Foreign Minister is to be hampered by an advisory Council, whether its membership does or does not include representatives of the dominions.

The fear that has constantly haunted the minds of the people of Canada is that this Dominion may some day be drawn into the vortex of European militarism, and may find its dearest interests imperilled by involuntary participation in a foreign war, of which the vast majority of its people do not approve. In order to guard against such a contingency it has been stated on the eve of the departure of the Ministers that they will seek representation in an Imperial Council dealing with the issues of war and peace as affecting the welfare of the Empire as a whole.
It is safe to predict that if they succeed in this demand—of which there is little probability—they will not be supported in it by the people of Canada. Public opinion on this point was admirably expressed by Sir Wilfrid Laurier in the Conference of 1911, when a colonial statesman moved a resolution expressing regret that the dominions had not been consulted about the Declaration of London. Sir Wilfrid opposed the motion on the ground that if the dominions gave advice on the matter they would have to be prepared to back it with force. At that Conference the British Foreign Secretary is said to have given the delegates of the dominions some confidential information about his foreign policy.
That is a very different matter from dominion delegates being members of a Council in which they would be a minority but would be in honor bound by its findings. The situation so created would be perilous all round, and so, doubtless, Mr. Borden and his colleagues will be informed.

NEWS FORECAST FOR THE COMING WEEK

Washington, D. C., June 29—With the close of the two weeks' headline engagements played by the presidential nominating conventions, State politics will now have an opportunity to do a turn on the political stage. While the leaders in national contests are pausing to for-breath after the strenuous times in Chicago and Baltimore the politician in a number of the states will come together to nominate candidates or otherwise prepare for the State campaigns this fall.

Ohio's Republican State convention, which adjourned early in June after awarding President Taft the six delegates-at-large to the national convention, will reconvene Tuesday to nominate a State ticket. In Pennsylvania the Keystone party, made up of those-called reform element of the two leading parties, will meet in convention in Harrisburg to decide whether to put a Keystone ticket in the field or endorse the candidates of the older parties. In South Dakota, where the nominations are made by primary, State conventions will be held for promulgating platforms and naming candidates for presidential electors.

President Taft has accepted an invitation to visit Philadelphia Monday to attend the annual saengerfest of the Northeastern Saengerbund.

Some two hundred of the principal citizens of the United States, according to reports, have decided to adopt the "safe and sane" plan for the celebration of the national independence day next Thursday. The substitution of musical festivals, historical pageants and outdoor sports for the dangerous firecracker and toy pistol is expected to result in a material reduction of the number of casualties that has marked the celebration of the Fourth in previous years.

The conference committee of manifest Eastern railroads will meet in New York Monday with representatives of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers to discuss the recent demands of that organization for increases in pay amounting to $25,000,000 annually.

The Department of Agriculture's estimate of the acreage planted in cotton in the United States will be issued at noon Wednesday, with the monthly report showing the condition of cotton on June 25.

GREAT 4-MILE TUNNEL COMPLETED

Salt Lake City, Utah, July 2—In the town of Spanish Fork, about fifty miles south of this city, a big celebration was held today to mark the completion of the two million dollar Strawberry irrigation tunnel.
The tunnel is the second largest of its kind in the world. It pierces the solid rock of one of the highest peaks of the Wasatch Mountains, 2,000 feet below its crest, and is almost four miles long. It will divert an entire river, the Strawberry, from one valley to another, forty-five miles away, and reclaim 50,000 acres of Utah land.

Suffered Greatly With Her Heart.

Became So Weak At Times
Could Hardly Walk.

Many people may be unaware of having anything wrong with their heart till some excitement, overwork, or confinement in an overheated or overcrowded room, or public building makes them feel faint and dizzy.

On the first sign of any weakness of the heart or nerves, flagging energy or physical breakdown, you should not wait until you case becomes deperate before you avail yourself of a perfect cure by using Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Mrs. D. McGilvery, Bathurst, N.B., writes:—"Just a few lines to let you know what Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have done for me. I suffered greatly with my heart and became so weak at times I could hardly walk. A friend of mine advised me to try your Pills, which I did, and soon found great relief.
They are the best medicine I have ever taken for heart trouble."

Regatta, which is to be attended for the first time by the King and Queen, the assembling in London of the Congress of the Universities of DRIVING HIM TO THE GRAVE

"Fruit-a-lives Saved my Life"

NIAGARA FALLS, ONT., JULY 26th, 1917.
"For thirteen years, I was a terrible sufferer from the tortures of Sick Headache, Indigestion, Constipation and Vomiting. I could not retain much food, and this, together with the pain, and headaches, was driving me to the grave."

Then I used "Fruit-a-lives" and almost at once I got relief.
"Fruit-a-lives" stopped the vomiting, relieved the constipation, toned up the stomach, and gave me the first relief in years. I feel that I owe my life to "Fruita-lives" and for the sake of other victims of Indigestion and Headaches, I will allow this statement to be published."

"Fruit-a-lives" is sold by all dealers at 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c, or
