WELL FILLED FIGHT CALENDAR

Chicago, July 1—No greater bunch of high-class pugilists was ever rounded up for a holiday boxing bill in this country than the aggregation scheduled to take part in the sessions of the glorious Fourth this week. The air will be surcharged figuratively speaking with "bang! bang!" from the Atlantic to the Pacific. With the heavyweight mill between Jack Johnson and Jim Flynn, which is to be pulled off at Las Vegas, N.M., providing the authorities don't bang down the lid, and the lightweight title match between Ad. Wolgast and Joe Rivers at Vernon Calif., to say nothing of the Abe Attell-Tommy Murphy match at San Francisco and numerous lesser events the fight fans will be afforded a feast of fistcuffs that should appeal to the most satiated of the blasé patrons of the game.

Tom O'Rourke has matched Fred Storbeck of South Africa and Jim Stewart of Brooklyn. There are scheduled to box 10 rounds at the Garden A. C., New York, July 8.

Fredericton Wallops The League-Leaders Yesterday

The Locals Trim the Houlton Reds in a Double Header at Scully's Grove Yesterday Afternoon--St. John Takes One From Us on Saturday. But We Still Hold down Second.

It looked yesterday as if the Houlton Reds need a new brand of war paint. The locals out-played them at every angle, and incidentally had Houlton at all stages up a gum-tree. They hit at the right time, bunted opportunely and ran the bases in most approved fashion. What they didn't do in the morning they accomplished in the afternoon session and the fans were all to the merry that they dug down in their kick and came out in bunches to see the frilly frillers put on by the Ganley-Dugganites.

The locals have had a hard time of it lately and have been riding the bumpers. Nothing of the horse-shoe variety has been coming their way and with a demoralized pitching staff it's lucky that we hold down second position. Bates has been laid away with a touch of ptomaine poisoning. Cram hasn't shown what everybody expected of him and two pitchers can't win every game, even in the opinion of the hard-headed knockers. However, with things going right and luck going half-way, we rubbed Houlton's nose in the mud yesterday and the blancherite was tickled. Keaney made his appearance in the local line-up yesterday and was as popular as a comic supplement. In the morning game he slugged two out for a second station visit and fielded his position in fine fettle. On the bases he was given a free rail, and his run home from first in the third inning on a sacrifice hit was all to the punokin.

Ganley and Duggan both worked their bean at all stages and Brown and Harrington were there with the unadulterated pepper. The Houlton outfield played classy ball, Hughes and Johnston making some hard stalls. McElwee also scintillated but Finnamore as a catcher was a huge joke and allowed the locals to cavort at will around the circuit. Art's position is centre-field and there's none to say he can't play it but as a catcher Art is sure off his grub stake.

Below is a detailed account of the score:

THE OLYMPIC GAMES AT STOCKHOLM GREATEST EVER

Stockholm, June 29—The stage is set and players assembled in readiness for the rise of the curtain for what promises to be the greatest exhibition of athletic prowess, of strength and speed and skill the world has ever seen. Competitors from the four corners of the globe have gathered in Stockholm to take part in the Olympic games of 1912, which will be the fifth renewal of the great public games of the ancient Greeks since the Athens tournament of 1896 marked the revival of the events after an interval of more than 1,500 years.

Twenty-five countries have sent representatives to the tournament and the total number of contestants will exceed 2,000. Next to Sweden, which naturally leads in the number of entries, the countries having the largest numerical representation are Great Britain and the United States. The other countries that have entered fairly full teams are France, Germany, Russia, Hungary, Austria, Norway, Finland, Denmark, Canada, Bohemia, Holland, Italy, Australia and New Zealand. Other countries that will be represented in the athletic competitions and some of them in other events as well are Japan, Greece, Switzerland, Serbia, Turkey, Belgium, South Africa and Portugal.

Several preliminary competitions, including shooting and lawn tennis, were started today, but the real spirit of the meet won't take place until a week hence, when the formal opening will be held and the first field games pulled off. A parade will feature the opening ceremonies. The representatives of the various countries will form into groups, divided according to the sports in which they are competing and will carry their national banners. The preparations are on a gigantic scale.

All of the visitors are loud in their praise of the perfection of the arrangements made by the Svenska Idrottsforbundet—to use the official name of the association which is in charge of the meet. Committees have been on hand to receive each arriving foreign delegation and nothing has been left undone that would contribute to the comfort or the convenience of the visitors.

The stadium where the competitions are to be held is within easy access of the city. Seating accommodations have been provided for 40,000 spectators and it is estimated there will be standing room for an additional 25,000, but this probably will not be necessary. The grounds within the stadium provide several athletic tracks, a banked track for the cycle races, a cinder path for running and a turf track for hurdle racing.

The sports are to continue for a fortnight, and will occupy the morning and afternoon of each day. The order of the principal athletic competitions in which the United States and Great Britain are expected to figure most prominently is as follows:

July 6—Throwing the javelin; 70-100-metre flat, trials; 100-metres flat, trials; 800-metres flat, trials.
July 7—Running high jump, trials; 100-metres flat, final; 100-metres flat, final; 800-metres flat, final; Pentathlon.
July 8—Running high jump, final; standing broad jump, final; relay race, 400-metres, trials; relay race, 400-metres, final.
July 10—Pole vault, final; putting the shot, best hand, final; 200-metres flat, trials; 1,500-metres flat, final; 5,000-metres flat, final.
July 11—Putting the weight, right and left hand, final; 200-metres flat, final; 110-metres hurdle race, trials; 10,000-metres walking race, final.
July 12—Running broad jump, final; throwing the discus, best hand, final; 400-metres flat, final; team race, 3000-metres, final.
July 13—Standing high jump, final; throwing the discus, right and left hand, final; 100-metres flat, final; team race, 3,000-metres, final.
July 11—Throwing the hammer, final; marathon race, 40,200-metres, final; relay race, 1,000-metres, trials; Decathlon, first day.
July 15—Relay race, 1,500-metres, final; cross country race, 8,000-metres; hop, step and jump, final; Decathlon, second day.
The metric system of measurements is used by the Olympic committee for all distances in the games at Stockholm. For the convenience of readers the following table of distances is given:
100-metres run, 109.3 yards.
200-metres run, 218.6 yards.
400-metres run, 437.2 yards.
800-metres run, 874.4 yards.
1,500-metres run, 1,639.5 yards.
10-metres hurdle, 127.2 yards.
400-metres hurdle, 437.2 yards.
10,000-metres run, 10,930.0 yards.

SATURDAY'S GAME

Fredericton dropped a hard game at the winter port Saturday. Dinsmore was wild and his inability to find the plate along with a few timely wallops by the Marathons lost us the game. Below is the detailed score:

YESTERDAY ABROAD.

Woodstock dropped two tight ones at St. John yesterday and the cellar position looks as if it might be creeping away from the Marathons. The first game ended 5-1, and the second 4-2. The first game was a thirteen inning contest and was marked by heavy hitting on the part of both teams, Woodstock getting eleven and Marathons fifteen hits. Everyone tightened up in the afternoon and but three and four hits were made by the respective teams.

MINOR LEAGUE CHANGES

Quite a number of minor league clubs have "hit the chutes" this season owing to lack of attendance. Among the changes that have taken place in the minor organizations are the following:

Virginia League—Lynchburg and Danville dropped from circuit.
Connecticut League—New Britain team transferred to Waterbury.
Ohio and Pennsylvania League—New Castle and Connellsville dropped to Reading; Lancaster team transferred to Atlantic City.
Ohio Interstate League—Disbanded.
Cotton States League—New Orleans team transferred to Yazoo City; Hattiesburg team transferred to Columbus.
Texas-Oklahoma League—Greenville and McKinney from circuit.
New York-Connecticut League—Disbanded.
Blue Grass League—Winchester team transferred to Mt. Sterling.
Oklahoma State League—Oklahoma City and Anadarko dropped from circuit.

BASEBALL NOTES

Eddie Slevers, former Detroit Tiger pitcher, is umpiring in the Southern Michigan League.
Birmingham has the call in the Southern League. The Barnes top the bunch and are traveling like winners.

Umpire Johnstone, of the National League, wears a metal covering over his shoes to protect his feet from foul tips.

Johnny Shovelin, for whom Pittsburgh paid Erie $4,500, is playing third base for the Newark team in the Ohio State League.

Rumor has it that Manager Kling, of the Boston Braves, has offered Vin Campbell in a trade for Rebel Oakes, of the Cardinals.

Cobb and Jones are the only members of the Detroit team hitting for .300 or better, and Zimmerman is the only Cub in the .300 class.

Al Orth, the former big league pitcher, has made a hit as an umpire in the Virginia League, and may be given a trial in the major leagues.

Milan, of the Washington team, is the leading base-stealer in the American League, and Doyle, of the Giants holds the same honor in the National League.

When his pitching days are over, Otis Crandall, of the Giants, who is leading the National League in hitting, will still be able to stick in the game as an outfielder.

Delaying of the cornerstone at Ebbetts Field, Brooklyn's new baseball park, will take place on July 6. Manager McGraw and his Giants will be the attraction of the day.

Another Walter Johnson is to join the big show. The Racine Club, Fraser, Ill., of the Wisconsin-Illinois League, has sold Pitcher Walter Johnson to the Chicago White Sox.

Losing thirteen straight games was the unenviable lot of Pitcher Saint of the Greenwood Cotton States League team. He got the ax before he could make it fourteen.

Pitcher Weitman of the Maysville, Ky., team, who stands six feet six inches has been sold to the St. Louis Cardinals. He is known as the "skyscraper" of the Blue Grass League.

The Northwestern League teams are running a real pennant race this season. Less than 75 points separating the first from the last team in the standing shows some traveling.

In a recent game between York and Columbus in the Nebraska State League, Davis of York was credited with two home runs, one three-bagger, two two-base raps and a single—a total of sixteen bases.

CANADIAN CYCLING CHAMPIONSHIP

Waterloo, Ont July 1—A reminder of the good old days when the high wheel flourished and a bicycle championship meet was one of the biggest of the annual fixtures in sports was furnished here today, when scores of speedy cycle racers assembled for the annual championship meet of the Canadian Wheelmen's Association. The day's programme provided for a five-mile two-mile and three-mile motor-cycle races in addition to the wheeling races.

RING NOTES

Young O'Neill of Boston has been matched to meet Marty Brown, the New York lightweight, at Lynhurst, L. I., July 5. Brown will meet Bat Hurley at Newark, six rounds, on July 9, and on July 20 he will box Willie Howard 10 rounds in Brooklyn.

Bobby Wilson of Utica and Battling Hurley of New Jersey have been matched to box 10 rounds at the St. Nicholas A. C., New York next Tuesday night. Jas. Wagner will box Johnny Coulton, and K. O. Sweeney and Eddie Kelly are scheduled to go 10 rounds at the same meeting.
