MR. SPROUL OF KINGS MUST WALK THE PLANK

Sussex, May 6—There is considerable talk of a Conservative convention in Hampton in the very near future. It is expected that two of the old candidates, Messrs. Murray and Jones, will be nominated again, but the third one, F. M. Sproul, will not be asked to come before the people. Mr. Sproul in 1908 was considered the most valuable member of the ticket. He was the campaigner—"the man upon the stump"—who knew more about provincial politics than both of his colleagues put together. He has been a warhorse in several previous elections, and when the votes were counted he led the poll.

Almost, however, from the day of his election he seemed to beat odds with Messrs. Jones and Murray. It was an open secret from the start that if any of the faithful wanted anything, the recommendation must come from the Sussex members of the ticket. Mr. Sproul was not in it. He was only successful in saving the position of registrar of deeds for his friend, H. J. Fowler. The office of this gentleman was wanted by several of the more prominent supporters of Messrs. Murray and Jones. They could not see why, when every other Liberal was feeling the edge of the axe, Mr. Fowler should be spared. Mr. Sproul knew the reason and his stood by Mr. Fowler and his job.

Today, however, it looks as if the sacrifice had to be made in order to provide a place for Mr. Sproul himself. His colleagues are determined to get rid of him, and they are quite willing to violate all the principles of political decency and dismiss an official who is respected by every man who has had anything to do with him or his office. Mr. Fowler is a good official. There is none better either in King's County or in New Brunswick. He had the cordial support of hundreds of Conservatives who think that the patronage axe should be kept clear of the one office in the county, which contains the records of their property titles; but Mr. Sproul must be provided for. The Conservatives have said and said openly—that they will not stand for him being a candidate again, and thus it will be that when the convention meets and the member from Hampton has made his retiring bow, another member will be presented for ratification by those assembled.

Opinions differ as to who it will be. John E. Macaulay some time ago would have liked to be in the field. Mr. Smith of Hampton, is ready at any time to offer himself as a sacrifice, and Hedley Vickers Dickson of Jubilee, in the Parish of Rothesay, is being considered as a probable choice. E. A. Flewelling of Perry's Point, does not at the present time seem to be in the running, and his friends are not altogether satisfied with the manner in which he has laid them aside.

POSERS FOR MR. JONES.

It is not likely that the representatives will take up the public accounts in detail so far as they relate to the County of Kings, but as George B. Jones, M.P.P., seems to be the financial man of the trio, it would be interesting if he took a short time to explain how it was that he violated the law so openly in his sale of lumber to the Central Railway the first year he represented the county and, further, how it happened that an employee of his, J. P. Macaulay, who represents his firm day after day in the country market in St. John, was able to sell so much lumber, paint and hardware for the ordinary bridges in Kings County during the years 1910 and 1911.

In those years the name of Jones Bros. does not appear in the public accounts, but the name of their employee, J. P. Macaulay, is found quite frequently. Lest Mr. Jones may not be aware of the fact or might find it difficult to discover J. P. Macaulay's name, a reference to the public accounts of 1910, on pages 96, 97 and 98, will show that the name of Mr. Macaulay (initials J. P. and not J. E.) is found in connection with:

Malone bridge—J. P. Macaulay, hardware, $ 2.64
Ash Brook bridge—J. P. Macaulay, lumber, etc., 29.89
Cunningham bridge—J. P. Macaulay, spikes, 75
Tabor steel bridge—J. P. Macaulay, spikes, etc., 6.00
Dunfield Upper bridge—J. P. Macaulay, rope, 4.80
Clark's bridge—J. P. Macaulay, lumber, 19.68
Peters (Edwin) bridge—J. P. Macaulay, cements, 10.60
Gibbon bridge—J. P. Macaulay, paint, 5.04
Kierstead (George) bridge—J. P. Macaulay, lumber, 17.34
Graveyard bridge—J. P. Macaulay, lumber, 24.60
Bell bridge—J. P. Macaulay, lumber, 26.85
O'Neil bridge—J. P. Macaulay, paint, 6.00
O'Neil bridge—J. P. Macaulay, lumber, 2.25
Ryan bridge—J. P. Macaulay, lumber, 22.46
Penol's Station bridge—J. P. Macaulay, lumber, 51.75
Bloomfield Station bridge—J. P. Macaulay, lumber, 16.05
Upper Corner steel bridge—J. P. Macaulay, dynamite, 5.30

WILL PLEAD FOR RICHESON'S LIFE

Boston, May 6—Clarence V. T. Richeson's father Thos. Varland Richeson will appear before Governor Foss this week and make an effort to his son from the death penalty. Not alone will be the aged father a veteran of the southern confederacy, but added to his plea are those of his brothers and a sister.

That his son is insane and has shown characteristics peculiar to unsound mind during many years, probably will be the basis of the arguments which Mr. Richeson will set forth as a reason why his son should not be executed.

Added to the spoken words of the Richeson family will be the affidavit of Mrs. Lydia Edmonds, the wife of Moses Grant Edmonds and mother of Miss Violet Edmonds former fiancée of the condemned pastor.

In the year 1910 was in very considerable demand as a supplier of material for the public works in Kings County. So far as is known, while he was working in the city market as an employee of Jones Bros., he lived at or near Apohaqui. But in the year 1911 Mr. Macaulay was not in New Brunswick. He left for Vancouver in the latter part of 1910, and he returned to New Brunswick in the latter part of 1911. Yet in the public accounts of 1911, on pages 9, 10 and 101, it seems that J. P. Macaulay was just as active as in 1910. He may have left a business representative behind him, but whether he did or not, it looks as if his name was used just the same, for it appears in the following items as furnishing supplies for Kings County bridges during the year he was absent from the country:

Ebb Mill Dam bridge—J. P. Macaulay, one iron culvert, $22.40
Kierstead bridge—J. P. Macaulay, lumber, 15.89
McNair bridge—J. P. Macaulay, paint and oil, 10.60
Sealy bridge—J. P. Macaulay, paint, 4.00
Wilcox bridge—J. P. Macaulay, lumber, 21.19
McConnell bridge—J. P. Macaulay, lumber, 17.87
Ryan bridge (John E.)—J. P. Macaulay (probably meant for J. P.), lumber, paint, etc., 47.94
Macaulay (Robert) bridge—J. P. Macaulay, paint, etc., 10.30
Soper bridge—J. P. Macaulay, one iron culvert, 22.48
Cheese Factory bridge—J. P. Macaulay, lumber, 54.78
Centreville bridge—J. P. Macaulay, lumber, 22.44
Ryan Brook Mouth bridge—J. P. Macaulay, lumber, 2.46
Gibbon bridge—J. P. Macaulay, lumber, 22.75
Sussex steel bridge—J. P. Macaulay, lumber, 63.42
It would seem to be in order for Mr. Jones when he comes before the people on convention day to explain just how it is that J. P. Macaulay, who in 1910 was an employee of his firm, should sell so much of the same kind of goods carried by Jones Bros. to the government and still have no visible source of supply from which to obtain them; and he might further explain how it was possible when J. P. Macaulay was in Vancouver that he could still sell the same kind of material for Kings County bridges to the government which he, Mr. Jones, as an M.P.P. for Kings County, supports and approves of.

DOES BOOM IN C.P.R. ANTICIPATE STOCK ISSUE

On January 2 last Canadian Pacific sold at 234½, ex an $8 right. It later declined to 226½, and recently made a new high record of 256, the highest price at which a 10 percent. stock has ever sold on the New York board, yielding at that level less than 4 per cent. income return.

In the last decade Canadian Pacific has seen fit to capitalize its expansion on an average every two years. At the current rate of physical expansion, this interval is much too long.

The 1911 fiscal year, ended June 30, closed with working capital decreased $13,336,000, notwithstanding that $6,161,000 consolidated debenture stock was sold in London, and the last payment of $7,500,000 on the 1909 stock issue was received during the period.

The 1912 stock issue will net the road $27,000,000 before next October. On the other hand, plans have been announced for the expenditure of $20,000,000 for improvements west of the great lakes during 1912. In addition 250 miles of branch lines will be constructed, while 350 miles of main line is to be relaid with 80-pound rail. Furthermore, plans are being considered for a new main track from Montreal to Winnipeg, which if decided on, will cost approximately $60,000,000.

In financing this expansion Canadian Pacific stockholders will, of course, reap valuable rights. It is not absurdly premature to say Canadian Pacific is now selling in anticipation of another stock issue carrying a substantial right.

President Shaughnessy has predicted that Canadian Pacific's gross during the current year will increase an average of between $1,000,000 and $1,200,000 per month. Actual figures for eight months show gross increased $10,923,000, or 16 per cent. and net advance 14 per cent.

GOVERNOR FOSS TO ACT ON RICHESONS PLEA

(Boston American)

Governor Foss will early this week take action regarding the petition of Clarence V. T. Richeson, who has asked the Governor and the Council to commute the sentence of death passed on him for the murder of Avis Linnell, to life imprisonment.

The Governor has been going over the evidence submitted to him, which is, for the most part, in form of affidavits presented to show that Richeson inherited taints of insanity that made him irresponsible at times.

As the Council does not meet regularly until May 15, it is expected that the Governor will call a special session of the body to take up the Richeson life fight. Speedy action is necessary in this case because Richeson is sentenced to die in the week beginning May 19.

CALL MANY WITNESSES

Many witnesses will be called before the Council in the case. The case for Richeson will be presented to the Council by John L. Lee of Virginia and William A. Morse of Boston, attorneys for the condemned man.

The lawyers are meeting with some difficulties in securing witnesses, for they cannot be summoned in a case of this kind. Many of them were perfectly willing to sign affidavits when they were assured that there would be no publicity attached to their names, and that only the Governor and his Council would know their testimony. Now that the case has assumed proportions making it necessary for personal appearance, they are less willing.

Mr. Lee reported to Mr. Morse that he had secured the promise that they would attend the Council hearing of affidavits which he secured in the South before the hearing, and also several new witnesses, most of them members of the faculty of William Jewell College in St. Louis, from which institution Richeson was expelled.

Mr. Dunbar has been busy at the Newton Theological School and has had very success in his work there. Several members of the faculty and former classmates of Richeson have agreed to come before the Governor's Council and testify as to the condemned man's action.

To Mr. Morse has fallen the task of securing witnesses in Cambridge, where Richeson had his pastorate, and about the city of Boston. In Cambridge, few of the condemned man's former parishioners are willing to testify. The Charles Street jail will provide several important witnesses, including Sheriff Quinn, several doctors and ecclesiastics and those guards who have been with him most of the time.

SHERIFF'S STATEMENT

Sheriff John Quinn, in an official statement, told of Richeson's life in jail. He said:

"Richeson can see no one whom he does not express a desire to see. Any one visiting him must have the sanction of the District Attorney and myself. He has expressed a desire to see clergymen of his own faith and several ministers have called and encouraged him. He appears to have received consolation from their visits. Among those who have been here are the Rev. Herbert Johnson, the Rev. Helms, Professor Archibald and others.

"It is true that Richeson smokes a little in his cell. I have encouraged him in this. I do not believe he smoked before he came here. I told him it would be better for his nerves if he would smoke a little, and I brought him the first little cigars he smoked. One day he had four of these little cigars and two days later when I went into his cell he had two of them left.

"Under the old rules there was no smoking allowed among the prisoners, but I do not believe it is harmful and, in fact, it helps to cheer up

WAS TROUBLED WITH Headache AND Constipation.

After Suffering For Two Years Was Cured By BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS.

Headache of whatever nature is nearly always symptomatic of other diseased conditions, rather than a disease itself, but in most cases a disordered stomach, constipation, or bad circulation is the chief source of the difficulty. Burdock Blood Bitters removes the cause of the trouble through its cleansing, strengthening and tonic action on the stomach, liver, bowels and blood. Mr. Wm. Redmond, Cardigan Bridge, P. E. I., writes:—"I have been troubled with headache and constipation for about two years. After trying every doctor I knew, a friend advised me to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I found myself, after using one bottle, getting much better, and after using three bottles I was completely cured."

"After then I was on a visit, and found my cousin very sick, and the doctor told her there was something wrong with her head. I told her to use Burdock Blood Bitters and she was cured in a short time. I can safely recommend it to all."
