IN ENGLAND

To Cure Their Rheumatism

New Westminster, B.C. Nov. 3rd.
"I have suffered from Lumbago in the back—also from Rheumatism in the whole of my body. I took GIN PILLS and they cured me. My sister in England states she is keeping her bed through Sciatica and Rheumatism—also hear that many others in the same neighborhood are suffering from the same trouble.I enclose one dollar and ask you to send to her address in Kent, England as many as you can for the money, and have asked my sister to try GIN PILLS and distribute them."

W. E. BRENCHELEY.

If you can't get the genuine GIN PILLS in your neighborhood, write us

THREE WERE DROWNED
WHEN BOAT UPSETQuebec, Q., Oct. 29—A triple drowning accident occurred yesterday at the mouth of the Jacques Cartier River, where the Stadacona Paper Company is building a large paper mill. Comte Bertrand, Hildevert Lavallee and an Italian whose name is not known, all of Cap Haute, were out canoeing when their boat upset in a rapid, throwing the occupants into the river. The bodies have not been recovered.WILL ENCIRCLE GLOBE ON QUEER WAGERLondon, Oct. 29—Among arrivals by the President Lincoln was Chas. Meyer of New York who it is said is carry out a curious wager by which he will make a trip around the world without smiling or speaking an unnecessary word. According to his fellow passengers Mr. Meyer easily won out on the first stage of the journey, nobody seeing him smile, while the only time he was heard to speak was when some one occupied his deck chair when certainly no unnecessary words were used.

FEELING OF UNEASINESS EXISTS IN EUROPENew York, Oct. 29—A special cable from London this morning says:In the present nervous tension regarding the general European situation extreme importance attaches to a telegram which the Czar of Russia sent to King Peter of Serbia, congratulating him that the Serbian armies had proved successful in Macedonia without the need of invoking assistance from the outside.At the time this despatch is filed no information had come as to theeffect which this telegram, only made public at a late hour, has created in Vienna, but it may reasonably be surmised that it will be remarked as a most unpleasant and alarming demonstration.One has only to remember that but for German threats, Russia would have mobilized against Austria when the latter executed her Bosnia Herzegovina coup. Serbia's territorial ambitions now almost openly avowed are the chief danger points in the relations of the Great powers, Austria will not tolerate a change in the status quo. Russia by the Czar's telegram congratulating the Serbians practically approves and commends them.A Vienna despatch to the Daily Mail clearly states the Austrian position. The overwhelming success of the Bulgarian and Serbian armies is not regarded as sufficient warrant for modifying the determination of Austria to maintain the status quo should it become evident, however that the status quo can no longer be upheld, everything will depend on the attitude of Serbia toward her Austro-Hungary neighbor. This gist of statement was furnished through correspondence today on good authority."The maintenance of the status quo is not a mere phrase it is pointed out, but a solemn undertaking to which all the great powers and notably Russia set its seal. If the final crushing defeat of Turkey should lead the great powers to an unanimous conclusion that the status quo in the Balkans must be modified then everything depends on Serbia. If she shows by definite actions that she is well disposed towards Austro-Hungary all will be well.
Otherwise the dual monarchy will take her own measures to defend her interests.The dual monarchy will never tolerate again a small power at her gates as the hostile instrument of an unfriendly power. Serbia's ambitions for an outlet to the Adriatic through the Sanjak of Novi Bazar, cannot easily be squared with the Austrian policy, which regards Novi Bazar as a special legacy on the demise of the "sick man."WHEN YOUR CHILD GETS CONSTIPATEDCleanse Its Little Stomach Liver and Bowels With "Syrup of Figs"Look at the tongue, Mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's insides, the stomach, liver, and 30 feet of bowels are clogged up with putrifying waste matter and need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.When your child is listless, drooping, pale, doesn't sleep soundly or eat heartily, or is cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, or is full of cold, give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs, and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile will gently move on and out of its little bowels without nausea, griping or weakness, and you surely will have a well, happy and smiling child again shortly.With Syrup of Figs you are not drugging your children, being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics it cannot be harmful, besides they dearly love its delicious taste.Mothers should always keep Syrup of Figs handy. It is the only stomach, liver and bowel cleanser and regulator needed. A little given today will save a sick child tomorrow.Full directions for children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the package.Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Exlixir of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. This is the delicious tasting, genuine old reliable. Refuse anything else offered.
