

CASCARETS FOR A SICK, SOUR STOMACH

Gently but thoroughly cleanse and regulate your Stomach, Liver and Bowels while you sleep

That awful sourness, belching of acid and foul gases; that pain in the pit of the stomach, the heartburn, nervousness, nausea, bloating after eating, feeling of fullness, dizziness and sick headache, means indigestion, a disordered stomach, which cannot be regulated until you remove the cause. It isn't your stomach's fault. Your stomach is as good as any.

Try Cascarets; they cure indigestion, because they immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the acid and fumes, take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the decomposed waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels. Then your stomach trouble is ended forever. A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your entire family feeling good for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing too.

TREATY WITH WEST INDIES

MISS PANKHURST MAY BE IN BOSTON

Boston, April 9.—It is reported that Miss Christabel Pankhurst, the suffragette who has been sought for over a month by the English police, is in Boston. She is said to have spent the last ten days of March as a guest of Mrs. Nedder, an English woman and an old friend, who is superintendent of the Sherborn Prison near South Framingham.

TWO WRIGHTS ARE MARRIED

New York, April 9.—Two "Wrights" made a very happy married couple, according to a corrected version of the register in the hotel Breslin. These two Wrights in question are from Ottawa and were not related when they came here on one of the Canadian excursions to spend the Easter holidays. They are related now for they were married yesterday at City Hall, hence the change on the hotel register.

Charles J. Wright, one of the leading florists of Ottawa married Miss E. Louise Wright, also from the Canadian capital, unknown to any of the other five thousand Canadians who formed the Easter invading party.

"Who performed the marriage ceremony?" he was asked. "I don't know. I think it was the policeman. At least I know we were married and we mean to keep it a secret and that's all we care about."

Got A Pain In Your Back?

IF YOU HAVE
HEED THE WARNING.

You get a pain in your back, and you wonder what is the matter. When the back aches or becomes weak it is a warning that the kidneys are affected in some way.

Heed the warning; cure the weak, lame, aching back and dispose of any chances of further trouble.

If you don't do this, serious complications are very apt to arise, and the first thing you know you will be troubled with Dropsy, Diabetes or Bright's Disease; the three most deadly forms of kidney trouble.

On the first sign of a pain in the back, Doan's Kidney Pills should be taken. They go right to the seat of the trouble, cure the backache and prevent any further complications arising.

Mr. Stewart Johnston, Richardson Mines, N.S., writes:—"For years I was troubled with my back, and I had to give up work. I tried Dr. after Dr., and was getting no better. I had almost given up hope when I began to try Doan's Kidney Pills. I took three boxes of them, and found I was completely cured. I feel I owe my life to Doan's Kidney Pills."

Price 50 cents per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

When ordering direct specify "Doan's."

JOHNSON TO FIGHT SAM LANGFORD

Chicago, April 9.—A New York syndicate has offered Jack Johnson, $25,000 to fight Sam Langford, ten rounds, in a ball park in that city, the latter part of May. Johnson replied he would accept the offer provided he might have the privilege of taking fifty per cent of the gross receipts in lieu of the $25,000.

PROVINCIAL SECY. McLEOD CHATS WITH CYRUS DIFFIN

(Carlton Sentinel)

I left off last week where Flemming was talking.

He's one of the busiest talkers I ever met.

There was just one thing I didn't like about him.

That was his clothes.

If he was mine I'd dress him differently.

It's none of my business but his coat wasn't becoming to him and he wants to shift when he goes after the farmer vote. He's one of those fellows that look's best in his shirt sleeves.

Mr. Flemming has one awful good quality. He is perfectly democratic in his tastes.

He would just as soon talk to a backman as to the Governor General. Just give him someone who will let him do all the talking and not interrupt and he will babble right along as happy as a jocular child.

He can go right along with his biography from chapter to chapter without making a single break, or missing a punctuation mark.

Before I tell you of the other men that I met I must speak of Colonel Harry McLeod, who is holding down the chair of the Provincial Secretary.

As soon as I was introduced Mr. McLeod told me he was glad to see me and he would be pleased if I would interview him.

"Interviews," says he. "Are as necessary to the politician as Walkers rye is to a celebration on the appointment of new postmaster in Woodstock."

"I would just as soon interview you as not," says I. "And under modern scientific methods, where the interviewer uses a properly sterilized fountain pen, it can be done without pain."

To begin with, do you expect to be the next Federal representative from York?

He paused.

There was no one to tell him what to say and under these circumstances it is hard for some men to talk, but after what I could see was an awful struggle, he said:

"I don't know."

That struck me as being diplomatic and at the same time frank and I put my next question with the idea of giving him a chance to expand on well known lines.

"Upon what," says I, "do you base your claim to the office of provincial secretary?"

"On my legislative service," says he. "I have been in the local legislature several terms and have done nothing."

"That alone has led many to high office in the Tory government, but it did not satisfy me. I assisted in almost getting that Hazen-Flemming electric railway. I repeated a great speech on this subject, mostly about myself, with strong and sarcastic allusions to Carvell and Pugsley, who up to that time had never heard of me. Since being provincial secretary I have had the pleasure of voting for the Pugsley-Carvell railway scheme, which I had strongly opposed."

"I talked economy and voted for all the appropriation bills and was most successful in announcing a deficit of $56,000, to which is to be added $146,554.76; in short, I showed myself to be a modern Tory statesman."

"Well," says I, "I think you'll win the nomination for Ottawa unless Crockett gets more votes than you, but perhaps you will both get the flag, in which case bets should be barred."

Not desiring to further embarrass the colonel by asking him questions which he could not answer, and knowing he would try no matter what they were, I wound up the interview by saying:

"Would you like to be premier?"

He gasped.

"Mr. Diffin," says he, "and speaking as a man of superior intelligence to one of ordinary ability, I am surprised that the people of New Brunswick have not long ago demanded that I be elevated to this high position. It is no reflection on me that they have not done so, but what they have done has made them the laughing stock of Europe."

"Are you known in Europe?" I asked, thinking if he was it might be a question who was the laughing stock.

"Yes," says he, "and—"

But I stopped him at this point, with the feeling that nothing but my duty to The Sentinel would ever have driven me into his presence, and nothing but the fact that I represented a newspaper would ever let me into it without a fee.

One thing I admired about the colonel was his frankness. He didn't disguise that he was a Tory and did not seem to realize that it was anything to be ashamed of because he spoke of it openly.

Just at this point Donald Munro and some others walked in and what was said I will tell you in my next letter.

Yours truly,

CYRUS A. DIFFIN.

P.S.—I could write a lot more about Mr. McLeod, but I don't want to bore you.

PILES CURED

Writing from Poplar, B.C., Mrs. C. Hanson, proprietress of the Commercial Hotel, says: "I suffered for years with bleeding piles. The pain was so bad at times that I could hardly walk, and ordinary remedies seemed utterly unable to give me any ease. Finally I decided to undergo an operation, and went to the Sacred Heart Hospital in Spokane. There they performed an operation. For a time I was certainly better, but within twelve months the piles became as painful as ever. I tried liniments, hot poultices, various 'pile cures,' and indeed everything I could think would be likely to do any good, but still I continued to suffer, and the shooting, burning, stinging pains, the dull, aching, 'worn-out' feeling that the disease causes continued as bad as ever."

"One day I read about Zam-Buk and thought I would try it. The first one or two boxes gave me more ease than anything else I had tried, so I went on with the treatment. In a short time I began to feel altogether different and better. Well, I went on using Zam-Buk, and by the time I had used six boxes I was delighted to find myself entirely cured. That was three years ago, and there has been no return of the trouble."

Zam-Buk is a sure cure for piles, eczema, ulcers, abscesses, eruptions, chapped hands, varicose sores, burrs, scalds, bruises, inflamed patches, and all skin injuries and diseases. Druggists and stores everywhere, 50c. box, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price.

DOG TEAM DRIVER MADE NEW RECORD

(Canadian Press.)

Nome, Alaska, April 9.—(Via Ashcroft, B.C.)—A. A. (Scotty) Allan, driving the team of Malamute dogs owned by Mrs. Charles E. Darling of Berkeley, Cal., won the all-Alaska sweepstakes, crossing the finish line at Nome at 1.32 yesterday. Allan's time for the 472 miles from Nome to Candle and return was 37 hours, 32 minutes, 5 hours and 52 minutes more than his time last year, when he won the race with the same team.

Alexander Holmson, driving Johnson's team of Siberian wolf hounds, holder of the record of 71 hours, 14 minutes and 20 seconds, was second, driving into Nome one hour behind Allan.

THRILLING ESCAPE FROM A FORTRESS

London, April 9.—The thrilling escape of the former foreign minister of Montenegro, Jovanovich, with other ministers, who were fellow prisoners in the fortress at Podgoritz, is related in a Constantinople despatch to The Chronicle. Jovanovich and his comrades made their way out of the fortress by digging a subterranean passage. They were condemned in October 1907, to fifteen years imprisonment for complicity in a plot against Nicholas I, of Montenegro.

Had Boils On Neck and Arms.

Had Them Lanced But Got No
Relief Until He Used

Burdock Blood Bitters.

Boils in themselves are not a dangerous trouble, but still, at the same time are very painful. They are caused entirely by bad blood, and for you to get rid of them it is absolutely necessary to put the blood into good condition. For this purpose there is no remedy that can compare with Burdock Blood Bitters. This preparation has been on the market for about 35 years, and has a reputation unequalled by any other for the making of pure, rich, red blood. Mr. H. J. Batten, Stratford, Ont., writes:—"I have been troubled for several weeks with boils on my neck and arms. I had them lanced by the doctor, but as soon as one went others came. I tried all kinds of so called remedies, but could get no relief till I was advised to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I am pleased to say I am now quite free from those most painful things, and feel much better in every respect."

My boy, of nine years, had a rash come over his back and legs, so we gave him a few doses and now he is all right again."

JACK FROST STAYS FLOODS

Montreal, April 8.—Cold weather has prevented further rising of the water in the Farnham and Chateauguay districts, where floods have seriously disturbed railway traffic but has not done much to alleviate the situation as the tracks in several places are now covered with several inches of ice.

The bridge over the Yamaska River near Farnham, which was damaged by ice today, has been repaired and trains will run across it tomorrow.

The New York Central tracks near Chateauguay were covered today by six inches of water for a distance of 500 yards and the trains were considerably delayed, being switched to Huntingdon and running over Grand Trunk tracks.

Washouts on the lines running into the Eastern Townships are also reported and travellers were forced to leave their trains and walk through fields around the flooded districts for several hundred yards, boarding trains which awaited them at the further side of the flooded area.

Dynamiting is being resorted to to remove the ice jam on the Yamaska. The floods have done little damage so far except to tracks of the railroads. There are no serious floods in any of the towns of this district.

Don't let repairs eat up your profits

Whether they represent actual cash outlay, or only the time of yourself and your help, repairs are waste just the same. When you make an improvement—no matter how small its cost may be—let it be permanent. Then it is a real investment, something on which you can realize in cash should you decide to sell your property; and something that will pay you constant dividends in convenience, sightliness and comfort as long as the farm remains your own.

Concrete Improvements Are Permanent

They last as long as the very hills themselves. They do not require experts to build them. Their first cost, in most cases, is no more than for inferior materials.

Aren't you interested in the subject of permanent, modern farm improvements?

Then write for the book that describes hundreds of them—

"WHAT THE FARMER CAN DO WITH CONCRETE"

It isn't a Catalogue. Every one of its 160 handsomely illustrated pages is interesting and instructive. They tell how to mix concrete, how to place it, what can be done with it. The book was printed to sell for 50 cents, but we have a copy for you, free.
