PARALYSIS COM- PLETELY CURED

"Fruit-atives" Performs Another Miracle

BRISTOL, N. B., JULY 25th, 1911
"I had a stroke of Paralysis in March 1910, and this left me unable to walk or help myself, and the Constipation of the Bowels was terrible.

Nothing did me any good and I was wretched in every way.

I then took "Fruit-atives" for the Constipation and it not only cured me of this terrible trouble, but gradually this fruit medicine toned up the nerves and actually cured the Paralysis.

By the use of "Fruit-atives", I grew stronger and stronger until all the Paralysis and weakness left me.

I am now well again and attend my store every day. I say "Thank God for Fruit-atives"

ALVA PHILLIPS.

"Fruit-atives" not only cured the terrible Constipation, but so toned up the nervous system and the general health as to completely overcome the palsy.

Truly "Fruit-atives" is a wonderful medicine.

PAYS HIGH TRIBUTE TO BRITISH CABINET

(Toronto Globe)

A notable tribute to the British Cabinet was paid by Rev. A. T. Taylor at Cooke's Presbyterian Church last evening at the course of a sermon. Dr. Taylor returned Saturday from a three months' stay in Europe He said:—

"The British Cabinet is devoting its magnificent powers to the service of the under-bill. The old conception of police duty constituting the function of the Government, has been altered by it to read: 'The Government's function is to do paternal duty.'"

"Not in the memory of the present generation has there been a Government of such great intellectual gifts, at the same time endowed with such lofty ideals and actuated by such high moral purposes. The establishment of the Labor Exchange, an institution which provides for the transportation of workmen from centres suffering from a surplus of labor to places where labor is in demand; the passing of the employers' liability act, which, though it hits some of us rather hard, yet is only simple justice to the one-third who are often in actual need of the necessities of life; the insurance bill, the principle at the back of which is to make 'the ships take care of the sailors,' all testify to the Cabinet's new conception of the function of government. Even the home rule bill, which certainly meets with no approval from me, is not inconsistent with their desire to render justice to their people."

WILL GO TO TRENTON

Dr. Taylor has accepted a call from the Third Presbyterian Church of Trenton, the leading church of the capital of New Jersey, and will probably leave to take up his new duties in four or five weeks. A meeting of the Session will be held a week from Wednesday to consider his resignation, after which the pulpit will be declared vacant and thrown open to such candidates as may be invited to occupy the pulpit on trial.
A temporary assistant may be secured. Dr. Taylor's ill-health last December made it necessary to instal Rev. K. J. Macdonald as assistant.
Mr. Macdonald occupied the pulpit during Dr. Taylor's absence, but he has now left to accept a charge at Galt.

Dr. Taylor found large audiences awaiting him both morning and evening yesterday. A hearty welcome was also accorded him on his appearance at the Men's Brotherhood meeting in the auditorium of the church in the afternoon.

IOWA HIBERNIANS MEET

Cedar Rapids, Ia., Aug. 21.—The Iowa State convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians was held here today, with an unusually large attendance. The proceedings began with the attendance of the delegates at solemn high mass, following which the business session was called to order by President Dennis Maher of Iowa City.

DEATH OF DETECTIVE WHO ARRESTED CRIPPEN

Quebec, Aug. 20.—Detective Denis of the Provincial Police force, died on Saturday at his home in Levis.

Born in 1856, Mr. Denis entered the Quebec police force at the age of twenty-five, and nine or ten years later he succeeded Mr. Nadeau as chief. In 1908 he left the Levis force after thirty-two years of service and entered the service of the government.

It was the late detective who assisted in arresting the notorious Crippen on the Montrose, off Father Point.

Denis, in company with Chief Mc-Carthy of the Provincial Police force of Quebec, and Inspector Dew of Scotland Yard, boarded the Megantic dressed as pilots.

Dew went to the captain's cabin and McCarthy told Crippen, who had not then been identified positively, that he wanted to speak to him in the captain's apartment. As Crippen went in with McCarthy through the narrow passage that led to the cabin, Denis followed on his heels.

As soon as Dew had a good look at Crippen's face he said "That's Crippen," and immediately after Chief McCarthy made the formal arrest for the murder of Belle Elmore.
It was Denis, however, who told the prisoner to hold out his hands and slipped the handcuffs on his wrists.

During the entire voyage from Father Point to Quebec the detective stayed on watch in the cabin where Crippen was imprisoned, and assisted in bringing him to the temporary cells in the quarters of the Provincial Police in the Parliament Buildings that night.

FATHER OF THE STEEL INDUSTRY

Bethlehem, Pa., Aug. 21.—John Fritz, known far and wide as the father of the steel industry in the United States, attained his ninetieth birthday anniversary today. The dinner given at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York ten years ago in celebration of the eightieth birthday of Mr.
Fritz is still remembered as one of the most remarkable gatherings ever assembled in this country of captains of invention and industry and the central figures of finance allied with the iron trade.

It was hoped that some similar affair might be held to commemorate Mr. Fritz's ninetieth year, but the precarious condition of his health caused the idea to be abandoned. For the past six months the veteran ironmaster has been in very poor health and during much of the time has been bedfast. During this time messages of inquiry and cheer have been received at his home almost daily from leading men in the iron and steel world, from Andrew Carnegie down to the active present day plant managers, many of whom in years past were numbered among Mr.
Fritz's "boys."

John Fritz long ago earned his title of father of the steel industry, not by any single invention or discovery, but by a contribution of new devices, new methods and practical work in building up the industry in the United States. With only a district school education, gained near his birthplace in the middle part of Pennsylvania, he gained a position in the steel industry that has been recognized by the whole world.

At the age of 16 Mr. Fritz left his father's farm to work in a country machine shop, with a view of learning the trade of a machinist. After various experiments in steel making at Norristown and Safe Harbor, he went to Johnstown, where he remodeled an old mill and built what is now known as the Cambria Iron Works. It was at this period that, in connection with his brother George he designed and erected the well known "three high bloomers," with their automatic tables and the "three high mill." These inventions started an economical revolution in steel manufacture.

When the United States Government, some twenty-five years ago, decided to build a modern navy of armor-plated vessels equipped with guns of great calibre, there was no plant in the country where the plates, guns and forgings for such ships could be made. Bethlehem was selected as the site for the projected plant and Mr. Fritz was chosen as the man to build it. He went to Europe and spent some months in studying the plate and gun making plants there, and when he returned he built a plant that surpassed its European models. Among other features it contained the greatest hammer and the most powerful press in the world. When Mr. Fritz built this, the first armor plant in America, such men as Schwab, Corey and others who subsequently became famous in the steel industry, were still boys.

Mr. Fritz is the only man now living at the small group that introduced into the United States the Bessemer steel process. A great economical revolution was thus effected, from which has flowed the tremendous development seen today in steel manufacture in the United States. In 1893 the British Iron and Steel Institute gave Mr. Fritz the Bessemer gold medal, which is the highest distinction a steelmaker can receive.
