TAFT WOULD REPEAL RECIPROCITY AGREEMENT

New York, July 23.—A Washington despatch says President Taft now favors the repeal of the Canadian reciprocity act. He has written to the Senate Finance Committee a letter stating that, in view of Canada's failing to accept the policy for closer relations, the legislation now standing on the American statute books might as well be repealed.

At present the United States is in the attitude of making a standing offer to Canada, the benefits of which may be realized at any time the Dominion enacts reciprocal concessions.

The Senate has already voted to repeal the reciprocity act, an amendment for that purpose having been attached to the steel bill. Because the House Democrats, led by Representative Oscar W. Underwood, are still devoted to reciprocity, that, with all other Senate amendments, was disagreed to, and the steel bill remains in conference.

IT LOST TAFT VOTES.

The Senate Finance Committee already has favorably reported a separate bill for the repeal of reciprocity introduced by Senator McCumber of North Dakota. Reciprocity was so unpopular in Mr. McCumber's State that President Taft, as its sponsor, ran a poor third in the presidential preference primaries.

President Taft aroused much hostility throughout the middle west and northwest by his advocacy of the policy. Although reciprocity was about the only Taft policy that the third term candidate (Roosevelt) endorsed, he repudiated it as soon as he discovered it was impeding his canvass for delegates against Mr. Taft.

"SCARECROW" AGAINST FARMER.

It is expected that further and more specific announcement of the President's willingness to see reciprocity repealed will be made before the assembling of the new Progresssive Convention. Many of the President's friends have advised him to jettison the policy, on the ground that reciprocity is dead anyway. To keep it on the statute books, they say, is only nursing a forlorn hope and maintaining a scarecrow against the farmer vote.

Repeal would deprive the third term candidate of a chance to pillory President Taft as the champion of a policy highly unpopular in the agricultural states. The president, having urged the repeal of reciprocity, can readily maintain that he still believes in it, but also thinks that when Canada sees the advantage now spurned, a new agreement can be negotiated, upon which the representatives of the American farmer in Congress may pass anew.

EFFECTS ON PULP AND PAPER.

One effect of the repeal of the reciprocity agreement as a whole would be to restore wood pulp and paper to the dutiable list. Those products now enter Canada free under the only operative clause of the agreement.

The United States began an investigation today to determine whether the right of free entry should be extended to wood pulp and paper made from certain crown land wood in British Columbia on which that province recently removed the restrictions on exportation. Ordinarily this action would abolish the duties. Secretary of State Knox will make the investigation.

As the restrictions are removed only on the part of the crown lands in British Columbia, Secretary of State MacVeigh will be called on to decide whether they constitute a subdivision of territory which can be recognized under the law, or whether restrictions must be applied to all the crown lands in the province of give free entry to the products of another.

The question involves much wood pulp and paper for the west.

SKINS WRINKLED ON THE POTATOES

(Montreal Herald)

Potatoes for which housekeepers were willing to pay $2 and $2.50 a bag last winter are now rotting and sprouts are beginning to shoot from them for the want of buyers.

Although the potatoes are sprouting and the skins wrinkled, dealers declare they will be as sound as ever if they are put in cold water for about an hour before cooking. Housekeepers are afraid of potatoes when they start to sprout, but the sprouts make little or no difference. Restaurants, hotels and large boarding houses buy in such cases and their guests seldom complain. The average housekeeper is continually worrying over the increased cost of living, yet she will have the Best Virginia potatoes at 70 cents a peck, when she can buy the old ones at 20 cents a peck.

"Unless the old potatoes are all sold within the next two weeks," said a local dealer, "we won't be able to get them away."

Many dealers have plenty of potatoes left, caused by their holding on to them too long.

At the present time Virginia potatoes are on the market at a wholesale price of $3.50 a barrel.

It takes six car loads of potatoes every day to keep Montreal satisfied.

A local dealer declares that the public will not eat potatoes when they are in season, but want imported potatoes "even in the winter when our own potatoes have only been in storage about a month," he said, "and some dealers bring in new potatoes from Bermuda, which cost about $10 a barrel."

Although a large acreage has been sown in Ontario this season and the weather has been favorable, it is impossible to tell how the crop will turn out. If the yield turns out well, the ruling price will be about 90 cents a bag.

Then there combinations of straw and sponge, straw and linen, straw and white felt. Sometimes a hemp braid of gay hue trims a soft white felt faces its trim and there are other cheaper sappy straws blocked in the roll brim Panama shapes.

WAS A GREAT SUFFERER FOR FIVE YEARS FROM DYSPEPSIA.

Dyspepsia is one of the most prevalent troubles of civilized life, and thousands of people suffer untold agony after every meal, for nearly everything that enters a weak dyspeptic stomach acts as an irritant.

The long train of distressing symptoms, which render life a burden to the victim of dyspepsia, may be promptly cured by the use of Burdock Blood Bitters. Mrs. Wm. J. Boyne, Lepreau, N.B., writes:—"I thought I would write and tell you of the good Burdock Blood Bitters has done me and also tell you how thankful I am.

"For five years I had been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, and tried different doctors and proprietary medicines, but could get no relief. One day a friend told me to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I did not have much faith in it, but I thought I would give it a trial. To-day I am completely cured, and I will always recommend it."

Burdock Blood Bitters has been on the market for about thirty-five years and is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
