STRAY TOPICS FROM LITTLE OLD NEW YORK

New York, February 10.—What Mayor Shank of Indianapolis is doing on a large scale for the poor consumers of his town, the Rev. Dr. Madison C. Peters, one of New York's most noted ministers, is trying to do for the people of New York. At the Home for Homeless Boys in East 123d Street he has opened a store where he sells groceries and other necessities of life at cost price, or rather just enough above cost price, to cover the cost of handling the goods. As the demand increases, Dr. Peters expects to buy in larger quantities, thus making additional savings in cost which will benefit the consumers. He also has arrangement to eliminate another profit that comes out of the pocket of the ultimate consumer by engaging a broker to do his buying direct from the farmers, instead of dealing through the commission houses.

The store he has opened, Dr. Peters states, is merely a forerunner of a chain of stores which he hopes to establish in all parts of the country. His plan is to divide the country into districts and place the cost price stores in each district under the management of an advisory board and an executive. The executive will be a practical wholesale grocer, who will be allowed 1 percent. on the sales in his district, or will be placed on a salary sufficient to make the position worth his while.

The wolfish greed of the dealers in produce is strikingly illustrated by the experience of a wealthy farmer in the vicinity of Elmira, who usually spends the winter months in New York City. While he sold the potatoes raised on his farm to the agents of produce and commission merchants for 50 cents a bushel free on board cars at the nearest railway station, he had to pay $1.60 a bushel for the same potatoes, purchased from the retail dealers in New York, for his own home use. As the cost of transportation is about 10 cents a bushel, the dealers charged the consumer more than double of what the potatoes had cost originally, plus the cost of transportation to New York. One dollar, less the insignificant cost of handling the potatoes after their arrival in the city, represents the profit of the dealer on every bushel of potatoes sold by him.

The report for the year 1911, which Police Commissioner Waldo has submitted to Mayor Gaynor, is an interesting document. The figures showing the amount of crime in New York are quite startling and those relating to the disposition made of police cases by the various courts are even more so. According to the report there were 148 murders committed in the city during the past year. For these murders 125 persons were arrested; seven committed suicide prior to police action; thirteen persons were convicted and not a single murderer executed for his crime. The remaining cases were still unsolved. During the same period sentences were suspended and convicted men freed by judges in 11 cases of felony, 11,370 cases of misdemeanor, 1,860 cases of juvenile delinquency, making a total of 13,844 suspended sentences. Many of the cases the action of the judges was entirely arbitrary and absolutely unwarranted.

Included in the report is, among other interesting things, a table which compares with the homicide records of London, with its 7,000,000 inhabitants with those of New York, having an estimate population of 5,000,000. London statistics 1911 were not yet available, but the statistics for 1910 show that in that year 23 murders were committed in London against 147 in New York. Of the murderers 14 were arrested in London, 109 in New York. In London 6 of the murderers committed suicide, in New York 5. The number of conviction in London was 12, in New York 30. For the years 1908 and 1909 the figures were quite similar.

in proportion. Mrs. Belmont, the intellectual and financial head of the Woman's Suffrage movement in this city is an energetic woman and quite ambitious. Not satisfied with the success of her lunchrooms and beauty parlors conducted at the suffrage headquarters, Mrs. Belmont is planning a bank where the shop girls may deposit what money they have left after buying 15-cent lunches and various beautifying toilet preparations. The bank plan interests Mrs. Belmont considerably, but even more dear to her is the plan of establishing a woman suffrage paper, which is to bear the somewhat lengthy motto "The Truth the Whole Truth and Nothing but the Truth" upon its title page. The paper is to have no fixed policy or politics and is to publish no advertisements except such relating to woman's suffrage matters. It is believed that the paper is to contain no news except relating to woman's suffrage matters and no editorials which were not dictated by Mrs. Belmont. It is expected to be a highly interesting and edifying sheet. It may be added that Mrs. Belmont does not expect the paper to pay.

New York is undoubtedly "easy pickings" for the burglar fraternity and it is easily understood by the members of that fraternity hate to absent themselves, even temporarily, from this Eldorado of their craft. Estimates based upon the reports of the police indicate that during the month of January just ended, jewelry representing an aggregate value of about $200,000 was stolen in this city by burglars. Practically no arrests were made and only a small part of the plunder recovered from the various pawnshops.

Unless an endowment is obtained soon for the Trinity Methodist Church, at 118th Street, near second Ave., the church will have to be closed for lack of funds. Some time ago a charitable woman donated to the church three lots in the vicinity of the church building, but that did not help much, as cash is needed more than one estate. The pastor of the church, is a man of considerable shrewdness and business ability and he conceived of the plan to obtain an endowment by means of the three lots. He proposes to collect $100,000 in voluntary contributions and invest that fund in a modern apartment house to be erected on the three adjoining lots. The rents from the building would afford a handsome income making the endowment not only permanent but available at once. The church is the only Methodist church in a district containing a population of 100,000.

LOST 45 POUNDS IN WEIGHT

NOW WEIGHS 125 POUNDS,
THANKS TO "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

PLANTAGENET, ONT. Jan. 31st, 1910.
"About March 1st, 1909, I was taken deathly sick with Liver Congestion and Stomach Trouble. I failed from 125 pounds to 50 pounds and was confined to bed for eight weeks. The doctors said they could do nothing for me, and as a last resort, one of the doctors told me to try 'Fruit-a-tives'—if they would not cure me, nothing would. My husband bought some 'Fruit-a-tives' and inside of ten days, I was able to leave my bed. My stomach got strong and I could eat and retain my food. Today, I weigh 125 pounds."

SHOE MACHINERY HEARING

Washington, D. C., Feb. 13.—Of interest alike to shoe manufacturers and makers of shoe machinery throughout the country is the hearing begun before the House Judiciary Committee today on the two bills introduced by Representative Thayer of Massachusetts intended to prevent discriminations in the sale or lease of machinery used in the manufacture of shoes. The bills are aimed directly against the United Shoe Machinery Company, commonly called the "shoe machinery trust," against whose officers criminal action is pending in the Federal courts. The bills make it a criminal offence for any firm of individual to place any restrictions upon the free purchase and use of any tools, appliances or machinery used in the manufacture of shoes.

ONE DOSE USUALLY CURES INDIGESTION OR A BAD STOMACH

Every family here ought to keep some Diapiesin in the house, as any one of you may have an attack of Indigestion or Stomach trouble at any time, day or night.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a distressed, out-of-order stomach five minutes afterwards.

If your meals don't tempt you, or what little you do eat seems to fill you, or lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of Indigestion.

Ask your Pharmacist for a 50-cent case of Diapiesin, and take a little just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach. Nausea, Debilitating Headaches, Dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapiesin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it prevents fermentation and takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is at your drug store, waiting for you.

These large 50-cent cases of Pape's Diapiesin contain more than sufficient to cure any case of Diapiesin, Indigestion or any other Stomach trouble.

Hurrah, Hurrah for the Duke on Connaught
The man who cannot be bribed or bought.
