CANADA WANTS LARGE MARKETS AND FREER TRADE

Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, the Principal Speakers at a Large Political Demonstration at Soulanges on Saturday--Tories won Last Elections by Appeals to Passion and Prejudice--"Larger Markets" and "Down With Trusts," the Liberal Slogan

Montreal, Sept. 15--"We want a larger market and that market is in the United States," was the text preached yesterday by Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, who with their friends from Montreal and elsewhere to the number of several thousand held a demonstration at St. Clet in the county of Soulanges.

Reciprocity was in the air while the devices were: "Down with the Trusts" and "Larger Markets." Sir Wilfrid told his hearers that Canada had 250,000,000 bushels of grain to export, and as England could not take this surplus a market must be found elsewhere. His government had offered a market but the present rulers of Canada were responsible for the people's refusal and must find a substitute.

Sir Wilfrid gave an absolute denial of the statement made by Mr. Bourassa to the effect that he had signed a secret agreement with the Imperial authorities as to the disposition of the Canadian fleet in time of war. He had been in conference with the foreign office four times and no agreement was signed that had not been openly submitted to parliament.

Sir Wilfrid said he had reached an age when the future was uncertain, yet he felt he could still successfully defy his political opponents. As for this naval policy of the present government, the Liberal leader declined to pronounce himself before the prime minister had made known his policy. Then Sir Wilfrid said he would judge the matter on its merits.

Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, the next speaker declared that the battle of the tariff will have to be fought over again, saying: "The vote of Sept. 21 last was not a vote against the fiscal policy of the Laurier government, but a vote of prejudice and passion which will not be repeated." Canada he said wants wider markets for her farm products, while such devices as "Down with the Trusts," and "Give us a wider market" floated to the breeze.

J. O. Mosseau, M.L.A., for Soulanges, the organizer of the demonstration, said: "Reciprocity is the one question. Which responds to the interests of the Canadian people. It is in the hearts of the masses and is feared by the manufacturers and the capitalists."

PELLETIER WILL STAY
Quebec, Sept. 15--The banquet given to Hon. L. P. Pelletier, postmaster-general, by the mayor of Levis and the Conservatives of the County on Saturday night, was one of the most successful given a public man in this district. The banquet was attended by some 275 guests. Two of the postmaster-general's fellow cabinet members were present--Hon. Dr. Reid and Hon. J. D. Hazen. The banquet was presided over by Mayor Bernier, of Levis.

Mr. Pelletier referred to his trip to Europe with the premier. He had admitted Mr. Borden before he left for Europe, but his admiration had greatly increased through his association with him on the other side.

Turning to newspaper predictions, Mr. Pelletier said some of them had been busy with his political disposition, even going so far as to predict his political death or resignation. Borden had refused to accept his resignation, even going so far as to offer to administer the post office department himself.

"Providence has given me a renewal of my health," said Mr. Pelletier, "and I will stay at my post and continue my work."

Mr. Pelletier said the defence of Canada and the empire was a duty for Canada, but a plan to carry out that duty must be formulated, and this the government is endeavoring to do.

GUNMEN ARE CAUGHT

Gyp the Blood and Leftie Louie were Arrested in Brooklyn

Wanted for Complicity in the Murder of Gambler Rosenthal--Made no Resistance

New York, Sept. 14--"Gyp the Blood" and "Leftie Louie," the missing gunmen, indicted as two of the actual slayers of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, were found by the police tonight living with their wives in a flat in the Brownsville section of Brooklyn. They were arrested by Deputy Police Commissioner Doherty and a squad of detectives, who brought them to police headquarters and locked them up. They will be arraigned on Monday.

The two gunmen had been occupying the flat since August 15 alone, until last Tuesday, when they were joined by their wives, through whom clues to their whereabouts were obtained by the police.

The four were sitting at tea when Deputy Commissioner Doherty and his men burst open the door of their apartments and with revolvers drawn ordered them to hold up their hands. Neither of the gunmen made any show of resistance.

"Drop your guns, you've got us," said "Gyp."

"Give us a little time to get dressed, will you?" said "Leftie," with equal composure.

Scarcely another remark was made to the police by either man until they were examined at police headquarters later by Assistant District Attorney Moss, acting for District Attorney Whitman, who has gone to Hot Springs to take testimony of persons who talked to Sam Schepps, a witness in the case.

The arrest of "Gyp" and "Leftie," whose real names are Harry Horowitz and Louis Rosensweig, means that all of the seven men accused of the murder of Rosenthal, of which Lieut. Charles Becker, is the alleged instigator, are now in custody.

The capture of the two men was the fruit of unbroken surveillance of the wives and relatives of the men since their disappearance on the day of the murder, July 16. This surveillance was maintained by sixty detectives, working in relays, who kept Deputy Commissioner Doherty constantly in touch with what they did and where they went. The final clue came as the result of putting together a number of conversations overheard by detectives and reported to the commissioner at different times.

Federal forces numbering 350 under command of Col. Manuel Landan entered Ojunga proper driving the rebels before them.

TO FIGHT WHITE PINE RUST

Washington, D. C., Sept. 16--Hearings were commenced at the Department of Agriculture today with a view to determining the best course to be pursued to prevent the importation of the white pine blister rust into this country. The rust is a fungous disease that is now ravaging pine trees in practically all of Europe. To prevent the introduction of the rust into the United States it is probable a sweeping quarantine will be declared against European countries as to the importation of the various species of pines liable to introduce the blight.

CRITICIZES PEOPLE'S ROAD

Mathew Lodge Says I. C. R. Should go to a Private Corporation

Politics He Says Has Always Been the Curse of the Railway and Will Remain So

Montreal, Sept. 16--The I.C.R. is at present a blight upon the lower provinces and the sooner the men at the head of affairs at Ottawa realize this fact the better it will be for all concerned, declared at the Lodge of Montreal president of the maritime board of trade, who declared today that he was a convert to the idea of disassociation of government ownership with the Intercolonial Railway.

Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, Mr. Lodge says, lose an incalculable amount every year from the fact that every other part of Canada considers that the I.C.R. is such a drain on the public treasury which the other provinces have to refill, that any other legitimate demand from the provinces by the I.C.R. is scoffed at and the I.C.R. is flouted in the face of every man who is interested in the developments of the three provinces and who seek Government assistance.

Politics heads is the curse of the I.C.R. and will always remain so, notwithstanding the fact that the minister of railways, or those in charge of the road, may be animated by the best intentions.

Mr. Lodge thoroughly believes that if the government of the day had handed over the I.C.R. to the C.P.R. when that company extended its rails to the Pacific Ocean, or to any other strong transcontinental company, the provinces of Nova Scotia would be blooming like the rose instead of being more backward than the larger provinces.

Mr. Fred Pearson, proprietor of The Halifax Chronicle, declared that he thought public opinion in all the provinces was now about ripe for such a change.

POLITICAL SIGNIFICANCE IN SATURDAY'S BELFAST ROW

London Chronicle's Correspondent Says That Erroneous Accounts of the Affair Were Sent Broadcast--Affair Said to Have Been Planned by Belfast Members of Unionist Clubs--Appeared on the Field Carrying Orange Bannerettes and Revolvers

London, Sept. 16--According to the Chronicle's Belfast correspondent there is a political significance in yesterday's football riot.

Accounts of the affair calculated to convey an erroneous idea of the causes of the riot, were sent broadcast over the wires," says the Chronicle. Celtic Park, where the match was played, is at the extreme end of the Nationalist quarter. During the week there were rumors of serious trouble but no one paid serious attention to them. It now transpires the whole affair was organized amongst the members of the Unionist clubs in the Belfast shipyards.

These people came on the scene with orange bannerettes and armed with revolvers which they began to use the moment the trouble started. They took up their positions in the unreserved area on a raised bank at the end of the grounds where they formed a solid mass.

Long before the game they freely gave expression to their desire to "Kick the Pope." When the visiting teams had lined up, they continued their insults and unfurled hundreds of Orange banners.

When the Celtic banner appeared its bearer was knocked down and brutally kicked. It would be too much to expect other sympathizers to look on quietly and soon there were thousands mixed up in the scuffle.

The Daily Mail, Conservative organ says: "While we are most anxious to in no way exaggerate the importance of this encounter it was unquestionably a political riot, not an ordinary fight between partisans of football clubs. Popular passion in Belfast may pass beyond control and it is clear Mr. Churchill now realizes that the home rule bill cannot be forced through in its present form."

A FIERCE FIGHT.

Belfast, Ireland, Sept. 14--A fierce fight was waged in the Celtic Park football grounds this afternoon in which sixty persons were severely injured, two of them being in a critical condition. Five of the injured are suffering from shot wounds.

The fight took place at half time in a game in the league series between the Belfast Celtic team and a team representing Linfield. The Linfields were leading by a score of 1 to 0, when Celtic supporters unfurled a green and white flag and started to parade. Linfield partisans displayed a Union Jack, and immediately stones, bricks and clinkers were hurling through the air.

The police were powerless. Men were seen falling, bleeding in all directions. The opposing mobs, thousands strong, surged towards the playing patch, where a regular battle was fought in full view of the spectators in the grand stand.

The report of a revolver caused a lull and many left the grounds, but the stone-throwing was soon resumed both inside and outside the grounds. More revolver shots were fired, but police reinforcements arrived and separated the mobs.

Ambulances were summoned and started to remove the injured lying on the field, some of them being in a shocking state, covered with blood. Altogether twenty-five persons were taken to the hospitals.

TO STOP EXPERIMENTS WITH MONOPLANE

London, Sept. 17--Nearly all the newspapers this morning endorse the order of the British War Office, directing that the Royal Flying Corps temporarily suspend experiments with monoplanes. The Daily Mail says the order is the result of three fatal accidents which have occurred recently to members of the Flying Corps and declared the action of the English authorities simply follow that of the French War Office which some months ago, after a series of similar accidents to monoplanes, discarded the use of these machines. It holds the biplane is easier to handle with the important advantages of strength, solid, and stability.
