FIVE VOTES FOR.....

McBRIDE IS OUT FOR A CANADIAN NAVY

Victoria, B.C., Sept 12—That Canada shall without delay proceed with the execution of a strong and adequate naval policy on the lines launched by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, but further developed and expanded by the creation of an efficient Pacific unit is British Columbia's expectation from Premier Borden and his government according to Sir Richard McBride the Provincial Premier.

The Pacific province is almost as vitally interested in the naval program as are its prairie sisters in the economic problem of securing for their products a larger market. In British Columbia the navy is the outstanding issue. The demand for a Pacific unit is insistent, apart from the protection it would afford, British Columbians see in its prospective creation the foundation for future economic and commercial development. It is pointed out that it would be the forerunner of maritime industry and expansion, in that this province produces practically all the natural products required for ship building and given a well-equipped base and the inspiration of a fleet unit there would be developed on the coast a mammoth industry destined to increase the prosperity of the province and add to the Canadian achievement.

B. C. WANTS PROTECTION

"We have been opening up and developing the Province all along the coast line," said Sir Richard McBride when interviewed by The Globe at his office in the Parliament buildings, "and we want to insure our work by protecting it. To our mind the Asiatic menace to Western Canada is a much more serious and substantial danger than the German peril to England. I regard this German war-scare as an exceedingly unfortunate and ill-advised exploitation. It was my good fortune to visit Germany not long ago and to learn for myself the spirit of friendliness which prevails both in official circles and among the people themselves. I feel surprised that sanity and true statesmanship will donate the councils of both countries and feel confident that the German Emperor, under those conditions will in a manner consistent with dignity reach an understanding with the mother country."

CAME VERY NEAR BEING BURIED ALIVE

Winnipeg, Sept. 13—Pronounced dead by a qualified physician, laid out in his house while authority was being sought from the coroner to bury him without inquest, resuscitated by another physician after a police inspector had suspected a stark of life, and today walking the streets of Winnipeg, is the strange experience of S. Musik, 1009 Redwood avenue. Had it not been for a series of accidents Musik would have been buried alive, probably to awake out of his comatose condition only to be suffocated.

Musik was found to all appearances dead in his bed after an examination. Dr. Knight pronounced life extinct. The coroner, however, was not quite satisfied with the story that reached him and possibly suspecting foul play, sent Inspector MacDonald with a constable to get evidence.

While watching by the body the officer thought he detected a slight movement of the blankets. On this being repeated, Dr. Bergovitch was summoned just before midnight and made an examination. All the usual tests showed entire absence of reflex action of muscles and breathing.

Suspecting the man might be suffering from cranial pressure causing what is known as chynestokes, or suspended breathing, the physician drew off some blood serum from the spinal canal with the result that reflex action returned and with some care the man was on his feet by morning.

ILLINOIS TOWN TO CELEBRATE

Edwardsville, Sept. 11—The elaborate preparations for Madison county's centennial celebration were completed today. Special services in all of the local churches will usher in the celebration tomorrow. The exercises and festivities will continue an entire week. The big features of the programme will be an historical pageant depicting events in the early history of this section and the unveiling of a monument to commemorate the one hundredth anniversary of the establishment of the first court in Edwardsville, which event also marked the inauguration of representative government in Illinois.

The Shuberts will send out "The City" again for a road tour.

THE ASIATIC MENACE

"On the other hand," proceeded the British Columbia Premier, "we regard the Asiatic danger as a real one—one, at least that we should adequately protect ourselves against. After the Japanese treaty, for instance—what? I am not an alarmist, but I believe it to be sound sense and true patriotism to insure the safety of our coast line and to thus do something to strengthen the position of our country in the Empire. I would like you to think of this Province as the western part of the Dominion rather than as a separate unit in the federation of Provinces. We who are entrusted with the administration of affairs here feel that we are not alone trustees of this Province, but that we are also trustees for the whole Canadian people, and that we have a duty in the discharge of that trust to consider the interests of all our brother-Canadians."

"Then," Premier McBride was asked, "you in British Columbia stand for the Laurier naval policy?"

WANT A CANADIAN NAVY

"Sir Wilfrid Laurier," he replied, "is one of the greatest of Canadians I admire and esteem him, and recognize that we all owe him much. But although he may have been on the right line, the carrying out of his naval policy in our view was inadequate and insufficient. He started on too small a scale. We in British Columbia are convinced of the wisdom—aye, and the necessity—of a more substantial and effective Canadian navy. We believe in a naval force which will somewhat effectually be a protection to our Canadian coast."

"Then you oppose a policy of direct monetary contribution?" Sir Richard was asked.

"As a permanent policy the opinion of the people of British Columbia has never been tested upon it," the Premier replied. "Our people are wholeheartedly and enthusiastically loyal and if an emergency arose and the Dominion Government contributed thirty, forty or fifty millions to meet it, I am satisfied that our people would approve the action. But," concluded Sir Richard McBride, "British Columbia looks for and believes it has reason to expect from Mr. Borden some well-defined and promptly executed naval policy which provides for the proper protection of the Pacific coast of Canada by a competent unit."

READY TO BEGIN REAPER QUIZ

Chicago, Sept. 13—The Government will begin the taking of evidence in this city next Monday against the International Harvester Company, which is charged in a dissolution suit filed last May in St. Paul with violating the Sherman anti-trust act. Robert S. Taylor of Duluth has been appointed special master to take evidence. The testimony obtained by him will be reviewed by Judge Sanborn of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals.

The Government charges in its suit that the International Harvester Company controls between 85 and 90 per cent of all the harvest machine business of the country, 75 per cent of the mower business, 50 per cent of the bindery twine business, and 30 per cent of the sales of all lines of farming implements.

The Government further alleges that the Company not only has a virtual monopoly in the manufacture of all lines of agricultural implements but that the agencies for the distribution, the retail implement dealers and others are rapidly coming under

CENTRAL VEREIN CONVENTION

Toledo, Sept. 14—Many delegates are arriving in Toledo for the national convention of the Central Verein of America, which is to assemble here tomorrow for a session of several days. The Central Verein is one of the principal lay organizations of the Roman Catholic church in this country. The principal officers are: President, Joseph Frey of New York first vice president, Fred W. Immekus of Pennsylvania; second vice president, Michael F. Gerten of Illinois; secretary, F. J. Deckendorff of Wisconsin, and treasurer August Muehling of Kentucky.

The total benefits paid by the Cigermakers' International Union during 1911 amounted to $576,139.61.

Give your servants GOLD DUST to clean with, treat them rightly and you will have few occasions to insert a "help wanted" ad

They say a good workman is known by his tools. You cannot expect your maid to keep everything ship-shape unless you give her every modern help.

To keep house without GOLD DUST is to do work by hard, old-fashioned methods. For cleaning everything and anything about the house—from cellar to attic—GOLD DUST is worth its weight in gold. It cuts grease and dirt like magic, does away with scouring and scrubbing, and saves time and tempers.

Your servant can do more and better work and keep sweet with the aid of GOLD DUST in all household cleaning.
