SEPARATE SCHOOLS

The Orange Sentinel does much less than justice to the Liberals of Manitoba in its comments on the alliance between Premier Roblin and Archbishop Langevin for the re-establishment of separate schools in Manitoba. The Sentinel states the facts quite plainly when it says:

"It is clear from the action of Hon. G. R. Coldwell that the Manitoba government has decided to permit the establishment of separate schools in that province. The legislation passed at the last session carefully avoided any mention of separate schools. But the amendments to the School Act were apparently designed to facilitate such an arrangement as Mr. Coldwell is now trying to make with the Winnipeg Public School Board. However, it may be glossed over, it is not necessary to penetrate very deep to discover that the provincial government of Manitoba has at last surrendered to Archbishop Langevin. That is the bad truth, no matter how it may be sugar-coated by the politicians."

By force of circumstances The Sentinel is compelled to condemn the Roblin government, but it evens matters up with its Tory readers by telling them that

"It is probable that both parties have been lining up to put this deal through. And while the actual culprits may be the members of the Conservative government, there are no signs that their Liberal opponents are going to make any serious objections. It is the same old story of never-ending intrigue by the Roman hierarchy working out successfully through the treason of politicians of both parties to the principles in which the vast majority of the people believe."

Commenting on the above, The Toronto Globe says:

"Now, what are the facts? The Greenway government abolished separate schools in Manitoba. The minority appealed against this legislation of the Liberals of Manitoba, and Sir Mackenzie Bowell, an Orange grand sovereign, or something of the sort, decided that Manitoba should be coerced into restoring them. When he was evicted by 'The Nest of Traitors' Sir Charles Tupper took over the business as a running concern, and in his turn did his best to pass the Remedial Bill that would have meant the restoration of separate schools in Manitoba by the strong arm of the Dominion. Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the Liberal party declared against coercion and won, despite very great odds. There was no coercion. The people of Manitoba were left free to settle their school troubles in their own way, and so long as Laurier was in power at Ottawa the settlement then made remained in force."

"With a year after the Liberals went out—and with Tory governments in power at both Ottawa and Winnipeg—The Sentinel declares that the government of Manitoba has surrendered to Archbishop Langevin. But instead of doing what a real sentinel on the walls would do—sounding the trumpet against the Roblin government—it lamely concludes that 'it is probable both parties have been lining up to put the deal through.' This is a most pusillanimous attitude, and one that The Sentinel should be ashamed to take. What warrant has The Sentinel for saying that 'their Liberal opponents are going to make no serious objections' to the re-establishment of separate schools in Manitoba by the Roblin government?"

Winnipeg Free Press:—The National Review is truly a terrible journal. In the table of contents on the cover of the current number you read "A Treacherous Wind-bag," by Navalists, and you turn the page to find that the brave pseudonymous author is writing—haranguing about Mr. Winston Churchill. The journal is in no sense a national review; it is a rabid party review. A national review is above the billingsgate and general antics of the monthly edited by Mr. L. J. Moxe.

A recent despatch from Ottawa published in a Winnipeg Conservative organ, is illuminating as to the closeness of the alliance between the Conservatives and the Nationalists in Quebec, in the last general election campaign. The despatch says:—"It is a well known fact that although the Bourassa wing is the noisy element, his party would not have been able to move had it not been for the financial support they received from the old wing of the party and the knowledge of the fact will keep the reasonable Nationalists at least on friendly terms with the men who are behind Mr. Borden in the province." In short the flag-flapping Tory millionaires financed the anti-British campaign and the Tory organs are glorying in their shame.

Winnipeg Telegram:—Premier Roblin told a friend the other day that one danger of fluency was talking too fast. It reminded him of a banquet at which the walls were adorned with many beautiful paintings and a well known college president was called upon to respond to a toast. In the course of his remarks, wishing to pay a compliment to the ladies present, and designating the paintings with one of his characteristic gestures, he said:—"What need is there of these painted beauties when we have so many with us at this table?"

Viscount Milner statesman, diplomat, and empire builder, has honored Fredericton by a visit today. His Lordship filled the important post of high commissioner to South Africa during the Boer war and as such his name became a household word throughout the British dominions. His stay in Fredericton will necessarily be brief, but he is none the less welcome on that account.

The proposal to grant a lease of the Opera House to St. John parties will be dealt with by the City Council this evening. The matter is one of great importance and should be approached with caution by the council. The Opera House has been conducted satisfactorily for some time past and there is no public demand for a change.

Quebec Telegraph:—The news that a New Brunswick man has been shot in mistake for a deer is another illustration of the fact that a man should have some knowledge of the woods and some command of his nerves before going in search of game. Every year human life pays the penalty of the passion for sport.

WHEN A LAXATIVE IS NEEDED—"CASCARETS."

Salts, Colomel and Cathartic Pills are Violent—They act on Bowels as
Pepper acts in Nostrils

Take a Cascaret tonight and thoroughly cleanse your Liver, Stomach and Bowels, and you will surely feel great by morning. You men and women who have headache, coated tongue, can't sleep are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick gassy, disordered stomach, or have backache and feel all worn out.

Are you keeping your bowels clean with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passageway every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels.

Remember a Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning. A 10-cent box from your druggist means healthy bowel action; a clear head and cheerfulness for months. Don't forget the children.

MARYSVILLE TOPICS

Marysville, October 1.—Mr. William Lonsy who is conducting a confectionery and fruit store on Morrison Street is doing a good business and as his goods are always fresh and up to date it would pay the citizens to deal with the genial "Billie."

The labor problem that is so noticeable in larger cities faces Marysville at the present time. In the history in our progressive little town hel- (both male and female) was never so scarce, not a department in the Cotton Mill is running in full strength on account of the scarcity of hands. The output of the mill is not much more than half its capacity, notwithstanding this it is the intention of the Canadian Cotton Ltd., to install two hundred more up to date looms in order to fill the orders which are yearly increasing on account of the growing country in the west.

The crew of men who have been rafting logs for the Partington Paper Company at St. John, got through with the main work on Saturday only a few little details remain to be cleared up which work will be accomplished today when the operations on the Nashwaak for this season will be at end.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Vickers of Brownville Junction, are at the Queen.
