MURPHY SAYS CHANGE WILL NOT BE MANAGER

Chicago, Sept. 29.—Frank L. Chance, manager of the Chicago National League Baseball Club said here today that he had received no official notice that he had been deposed from that position by Pres. Murphy of the club.

Chance said that the operation he recently underwent in New York for the removal of a blood clot in his spinal canal was a complete success and that he expected to play ball all next season.

Chance and Murphy did not meet today. Murphy was positive in his assertion that there was no likelihood of Chance being retained as manager. "My stand with regard to drinking by the Cubs and the announcement that Chance will not be manager next year stand just as they were first expressed," said Murphy.

JACK HEPPLEWAITE
BEST OF TRACK-STARTERS

Jack Hepplewaite, the veteran Manchester, Eng., starter in track athletics, who died recently after a long illness, was considered the best of all starters. It was almost impossible to beat the gun on him and "Strephon," the well known sporting authority of the Athletic News of Manchester, gives as a bona fide Hepplewaite's, which applied to fast men of the track. "He's never done me yet," he would say, "but he does keep me busy."

"Stephen" tells this story of Hepplewaite: "Very, very rarely in his long experience did anybody catch a flyer from him. Arthur Duffey got ever so slight a run on his gun in a heat. When he went back, Jack opened up his handbag and, showing the American a double-barrelled pistol, said to him: 'Does tha' see this pistol, Duffey? Well, I'm going to use it next time, and if tha' tries that trick again tha'll get what's in t' second barrel where tha'll feel it.'"

The following additional bulletin concerning the series as well as the revised rules that will govern them was also issued today by the commission:

"Play will begin on each ground at 2 p.m.

"A rain check coupon will be attached to every ticket placed on sale.

"The official ball of the National League will be used on the National League grounds and the official ball of the American League on the American League grounds.

REVISED RULES FOR BIG GAMES

The revised rules of the commission for the conduct of the series are partly as follows:

"A scheduled game postponed or legal cause, called before it becomes a regulation game or terminating with the score tied, shall, unless the schedule explicitly provides to the contrary be played off on the grounds for which it was scheduled before the succeeding scheduled game for the other city shall be contested, and the dates assigned for subsequent games shall thereupon be moved forward.

"Before the commencement of the sixth game, the commission shall determine by lot when and where the seventh game shall be played in the event that an additional game be required to decide the winner of the series.

"Neither of the contesting clubs shall give or pay any bonus or prize to any one or all of its players before or after the completion of the series and a player released by a club to another club in the same league shall not participate in the proceeds of such series as a present or reward from his former teammates, the releasing club or any of its officials."

The official scorers appointed by the commission are Francis C. Richter of Philadelphia and J. Taylor Spink of St. Louis.

The National Commission with its business representative, umpires, official scorers and respective owners of the contesting clubs will meet in New York on Monday, Oct. 7 when special instructions will be given to officials and club owners.

BOTH GIANTS AND SOX WELL EQUIPPED WITH PITCHERS

Boston Expert Picks Joe Wood as Greatest Twirler in the Game--Tesreau Will be Used by New York as Counter-Balance--Mathewson Admitted to be Master of Pitching to His Field

(T. H. Murnane of Boston)

Without high-class pitchers, at their best, no baseball team can enthrall over their chances for winning a post season series.

In the coming battles between Red Sox and Giants both teams are well equipped as regards boxmen, Boston will depend on Joe Wood, who has displayed the best form of any of the American League Pitchers. I believe that Joe Wood is the greatest pitcher today in the game. Wood also is a good batsman and a superb fielder, which goes to strengthen the team when he is on the rubber.

Joe Wood has nerve and confidence. His two clean-cut victories over Walter Johnson this season, shutting out the Senators in both games, made it plain to all that the Boston Red Sox had a wonderful performer.

The Giants will try and match Wood with Tesreau, a strapping young fellow with the moist ball for a treadwinner. It is Tesreau's first season in the big league and New York will bank on his ability to stop the Boston men. He is not the fielder or hitter that Wood is and should the Red Sox get to his spitter the young man will have to depend on his speed. Wood can use either speed or as fine a line of curves as can be served up by any pitcher.

Tesreau has shown great form against the best hitters of the National League and should he prove as effective against Boston, the Red Sox will have a heap of trouble in negotiating runs off his delivery moist-ball pitchers have bothered the Red Sox, but they have a way of winning over the best box men.

Mathewson is a cool workman, and while having lost much of his effectiveness, I expect to see the veterans give the Red Sox a good argument. Mathewson is a fine fielder, can hold the runners close to the bases and should do his best work in the World's Series. Many experts believe that Mathewson will be the one man to give the Speed Boys the most trouble.

Buck O'Brien a moist-ball pitcher, with a good head and a strong nerve will be given a chance to show his best stuff, and I expect to see him come across with the goods. O'Brien has shown improved form as the season progressed. He loves nothing better than a real battle for the honors.

Ray Collins and Rube Marquard, both left-handers, will be important factors in the series. Marquard started the season in great style. Then he fell off, but he has been coming back. Wood has it on the others when it comes to cleanup drives. Tesreau is the weakest batsman in the bunch and rather a weak fielder.

Wood's fine record of putouts is the result of covering first base and taking slow ground balls on the right line, as the Boston man is a wonderful ground coverer.

Mathewson will pitch to his field as no other man in the business can. Base running will be a dead letter when the veteran is in the box. Collins can hold the runners close to their bases. This is Wood's weakness. Wood's fielding and hitting should be nearly as big a feature of his work as his pitching. Wood and Collins can be counted on for nerve in the pinches, and O'Brien has shown well in this respect, especially with men on bases.

I would not be surprised to see Mathewson open the series at New York and I expect to see Joe Wood open the series for Boston, as Manager Stahl will depend on the "cyclone" to repeat before the series of games are completed. Wood and Collins can do good work with one day's rest. Tesreau, too, can pitch every other day for New York.

Wood will have the most trouble in finding an umpire who can properly judge his effective drop ball. I look for Klem and Evans to give the most satisfaction behind the bat. Klem will work behind the stick in the opener at New York and Evans will hold the indicator in the first Boston game. In baseball any of the great pitchers may have an off day and the second string man may then step in and outpoint them for the honors.

PUNTS AND DROPS

The St. John Times says.—At a meeting of delegates from the Fredericton High School, Rothesay College and St. John High School here on Saturday, the Inter Scholastic Football League for the season was practically reorganized. C. M. Lawson of this city, but formerly coach of the Fredericton team, represented Fredericton; B. D. Millidge and D. W. Macnam the St. John High School, and Messrs. Hunter and Lockhart were present in the interests of the Rothesay team. The meeting was held in the High School building.

A schedule for the season was drawn up but was not satisfactory to all and it was decided to allow this matter to stand over for the present. It is likely that the first game will be played here on or about October 5, the opposing teams to be Rothesay and St. John. The Fredericton team are anxious to have the first game take place at the capital.

Melrose joined the U. N. B. Rugby squad yesterday and worked in well with the forwards although needing improved condition. The backs who were expected failed to appear but McGibbon and Balkam probably will be on hand today.

Joe Duguay was acting captain of the forwards in yesterday's practise and probably will remain in that position.

Johnny Eatman is a regular attendant at U.N.B. practises. Taking a lead out of the book of the baseball players Capt. Murray probably will rub the pigskin over Johnny's head before each match for luck.

The cops play Rugby in Toronto. Policeman O'Neill is showing up well in the Argonaut practises.

According to present information, weight is to be of secondary consideration in qualifying for the U. N. B. forward line this year. Speed and quickness in forming are to be the main requisites.

The Toronto News says.—"Jack" Ryan, otherwise known as "Rufus," has turned out with Ottawa Rough Riders. My, we are glad that Ryan does not have to be reinstated again.

The pro-amateur quest on is cropping up in Upper Canadian Rugby as is evidenced by the following in Toronto newspaper.—

"Dutch" Becker and "Kid" Smith, of Hamilton, may have some trouble qualifying as amateurs after playing baseball this summer.

Afternoon classes again played havoc with the U. N. B. turnout yesterday and "Duke" Church had the squad devote its attention to preliminary work and attempted no play. The forwards practised scrim formation, dribbling and quick breaking away. Punting and catching formed the work of the backs.

BROWN TO LEAVE CHICAGO

Chicago, Sept. 29.—Waivers have been asked on Mordecai Brown by President Murphy of the Chicago Nationals. The pitcher injured his knee in winning a 10-inning game last July and since that mishap has been of no use to the club. Manager Chance today confirmed the news that Brown is to leave the team.
