MR. ARTHUR HAWKES CORRECTS HIS ERROR

An Englishman who Professes to be Able to See a Joke

(From the British News in Canada)
Once more—Here is a card from a brother journalist away down on the Gulf of St. Lawrence, telling that the New Brunswick papers are after me for saying that St. John is the capital of the province. I look up this page of two weeks ago—I didn't see it before because I have been out of touch with Toronto—and find that some impressions of the opening of the New Brunswick Legislature began with the statement that St. John the capital of New Brunswick, has a population of 8,000 and has been the capital since 1783. The truth is, of course that Fredericton is the capital; that I so wrote and that some genius in a printing office in which I have not set foot for over a year, allowed a printer's error to slip by—every proofreader knows the provincial capitals of Canada, or ought to know. Next to the mistake was an article on the Bishop of Fredericton, written in Fredericton. The whole article in which the capital error appeared was about the opening of the Legislature in Fredericton. The slip—even if it was mine, was obvious enough for a blind man.

WHAT ENORMITIES!

But the man without a sense of humour is present in Fredericton, as he is in Vancouver and Toronto. There is no defence about him. If you told him the story about the Texas hens, and added N. B.—THIS IS A JOKE, he would either come around to have it explained to him or write you a letter accusing you of wickedly and for gain, trying to deceive the public.

So, when the clippings come in, our friend reveals himself as a journalist trying to make political capital out of nothing. He copies the article which does him credit; and then, in the place where his authority dwelleth, he pronounces judgment—awful, extinguishing, final judgment. He says that I am a Tory—Lord pity the suffering people. He says I was for days in Fredericton and came in contact with all sorts of intelligent people—what frightful risk they ran.

And yet I didn't find out that Fredericton isn't St. John—absurd ignorance. And worse than all,—this is the kind of journalist man sent to England by a Tory Lord to tell the people there about Canada—could crime against the public be of a more indelible dye. Really, you know, really, I weep over my own enormities, when they are ruthlessly exposed like this.

Tell me what to do. Most every good humoured observation is labelled. That would be punishment greater than I can bear. Or must I confess ALL my sins and weaknesses even before they are committed, so that the weeping Willies of the press may go on thus dipping their pens in their tears.

The recently organized Dress and Waist Manufacturers' Association has begun a general campaign for improving the conditions under which several thousand operatives are working at the present time in the New York shops. Regulations regarding sanitary conditions have been adopted that are said to be a great deal more strict than the present State factory laws require. A corps of inspectors, authorized by the association, has been appointed, and severe penalties for violation of the accepted regulations have been fixed.

ASKED HER DRUGGIST TO GIVE HER SOMETHING.

She Had a Bad Cold, So He Recommended

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

Mrs. James Warren, Edmonton, Alta., writes:—"Just a few words in favor of your Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. A short time ago I contracted a bad cold, and tried several remedies, but had no good results. I asked my druggist to give me some good cough medicine he could recommend, so he told me to try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and I can safely say I have never tried anything like it. The first dose gave me relief, and I was completely cured of my cough before I had finished one bottle. It is the best cough remedy I have ever tried, and I can recommend it to everyone."

Obstinate coughs and colds yield to the grateful, soothing action of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

It is a remedy without an equal for coughs, colds, bronchitis, and all affection of the throat or lungs.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; price 25 cents. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

MIDDLE SOUTHAMPTON

March 26—While Ernest Ingraham of Southampton was working in Dunham's saw-mill at Campbell Settlement, last Monday he got caught on the saw and nearly lost his life. The saw cut him quite badly from the hip to the armpit. Dr. Macintyre of Hawkeshaw had to take twenty-four stitches. He is now resting easily and doing as well as can be expected.

F. C. Brown came very near losing one of his horses during the last thaw. While he and Gordon Stairs were crossing the river on the ice on their way to Canterbury Station one of the horses fell through the ice but as it happened it was on the head of the bar and the water was not very deep.

Roy Akeryley also had a mishap, while on his way to Woodstock with forty-one hundred of hay. About four miles this side of Woodstock in Grafton the road is on the bank of the river and the load slewed off, the hay going to the bottom, about forty feet. It was lucky that the hay went for if it had not, the horses would have gone as well. In getting the hay back on the road and sled, he had to use block and tackle. The "Swifter" struck Burns Akeryley in the face and Wayman Wright was struck in the eye by a hay hook.

Warden Fox sold a valuable horse to Peter Caverhill of Lower Southampton.

Nelson W. Brown, Warden W. Fox and Ezra Grant have returned home from Fredericton.

Samuel Davidson of Barony, Tyler Maxon, Thomas London and Stanley Patterson of Woodstock were recent visitors.

Rev. A. A. Rutledge held service in the Baptist Church here last Sunday night.

James Patterson, Sandy Fox and Richard Storm each lost a horse recently.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Brooks and Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Akeryley, recently went to St. Mary's to see Mr. Edward Dunphy, who is critically ill. He is in his 86th year and has been poorly all winter. He is the father of Mrs. Brooks and Mrs. Akeryley.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Hickey are cooking for Frank Grant's mill-crew at Dowville.

The Southampton Dramatic Company presented the four act drama, "Valley Farm" in the Orange Hall last Monday night. The proceeds will go toward a new organ in the Baptist Church.

A circular saw burst last week in Dunham's mill. The pieces flew in all directions, one going through the roof. No one was hurt.

Since the thaw we are having some real March weather. The roads are in fair condition.

MR. MORINE IN REPLY TO CARVELL'S CHARGES

Ottawa, Mar. 29—Mr. A. B. Morine K. C., tonight gave out a long type-written statement in reply to some of the charges made against him in Parliament today by Mr. Carvell. The statement takes the form of a copy of a letter he is forwarding to Premier Borden.

The facts in regard to his resignation from the Newfoundland Government in 1898, Mr. Morine says in effect, were that Governor Murray was personally embittered against him for some fancied slight, and was also strongly opposed to the Reid Railway contract. The Governor was urged to banish him by political opponents, one of the most active of these being the Very Rev. Bishop Howley, whose letter was quoted by Mr. Carvell. Mr. Morine says it was no secret that he was at that time counsel for Contractor Reid, and that the Premier, Sir James Winter, had consented to this. Other counsel for the contractor had sat in the previous cabinet with the knowledge and acquiescence, Mr. Morine states, of Governor Murray himself. The Governor had made no protest until

"moved to do so for party ends and because of his personal feeling. Any objection that might be made to the situation on principle," Mr. Morine continues, "was offset in this case by the fact that the Reid Railway contract of 1898 was unanimously supported by the members of the Legislature supporting the government and by half the Opposition, led by the present Premier of Newfoundland, Sir E. P. Morris. Though amended disadvantageously, that measure remains in force to this day to the general advantage of the country and it now is almost universally admitted that the contract was a splendid one for the country. I may say that a St. John's newspaper which asserted that corrupt influences were used to support the measure, was sued for libel, and most unreservedly withdrew its imputations."

WAS RESTORED TO OFFICE

Continuing his statement, Mr. Morine says that his colleagues urged his reappointment. Governor Murray, he adds, "though reconciled to me personally, demurred to a reappointment." His successor, Governor McCallum, however, "immediately restored me to office," and officially sent Mr. Morine a letter, from which he quotes as follows:—"You may possibly consider that I subjected you yesterday to a scathing detailed examination as to your relations with Messrs. Reid, past, present, and future. I have to thank you for the straightforward manner in which you replied to my many questions. As the result of the inquiries I have made I am happy to state that I shall be able to advise Sir James Winter that I am prepared to accept the recommendation which he has made on behalf of the government that you be reinstated in the position of an Executive Councillor and appointed to the position of Minister of Marine and Fisheries. I accept you as an adviser with every confidence, and feel sure you will redeem the assurance conveyed in the last lines of your letter."

Mr. Morine adds that he was re-elected at the next general election of 1904 by constituents who had extended their confidence to him without a single defeat for twenty years. He had continued leader of the Opposition till he resigned to come to Canada. He has ceased to be a member of the government in 1899 on a question of policy. Then he had once more become Reid's legal adviser.

THE CONTRACT WITH REID

Mr. Morine goes into the contract which he entered into with Mr. Reid with some detail. "He was anxious," he says, "to compensate me properly, but he desired to avoid the further friction which he feared might occur if I remained in the colony. Knowing that I had long contemplated a return to this my native country, he offered to commute my claim on him by paying to me annually, if I resided in Canada, a portion of the yearly salary that I was entitled to under my contract for serving him in Newfoundland. After mature reflection I accepted this offer, for I felt the difficulty I should experience for a long time in dealing with matters affecting contractors. He and I felt that as I could not practise for him without injuring him politically, neither could I practise against him without being accused of making use of knowledge I had obtained as his counsel."

THE BISHOP'S LETTER

In reply to the letter of his Lordship Bishop Howley, Mr. Morine says that his "deference to the office Dr.

Howley holds overcomes my anger at his wanton assault." He notes that the letter is merely of a general nature, and asks Premier Borden to allow him to explain this personal matter privately.

In regard to the court action taken against him by Mr. Reid, Mr. Morine contends that he had been merely acting in the matter for a third party, and that as trustee it was essential that, as a dispute had arisen, the point should be decided in court. While an appeal to the Privy Council was pending the arrangement above mentioned between himself and Mr. Reid was made.

MICHIGAN VOTE ON LIQUOR

Detroit, Mich., April 1—The "Wets" and "Drys" measured strength in Michigan today, when the voters of twenty-five counties of the lower peninsula went to the polls to cast their votes for or against the saloon under the county option law. Interest centers largely in the eighteen counties that have been "dry" for two years and are now having the question submitted again. They are Kalkaska, Shiawassee, Isabella, St. Joseph, Ingham, Presque Isle, Charlevoix, Otsego, Cass, Osceola, Branch, Ogemaw, Arenac, Oceana, Antrim, Missaukee, Alcona and Lapeer. The opponents of the prohibition movement believe that a change of sentiment will result in swinging several of the counties that voted out the saloon two years ago back into the "wet" column. The anti-saloon campaign managers, on the other hand, predict that the number of "Wet" counties will be materially cut down as a result of today's elections.
