BASEBALL NOTES

Honus Wagner has equalled "Pop" Anson's record of hitting for .300 or better for 15 consecutive seasons.
"Duke" Charley Farrell, the former big league catcher, will coach the pitchers with the Boston Braves the coming season.

With President Ban Johnson in the chair, the American League meetings are peaceful affairs. "Benny Kuls the Strings."
Hugh Jennings was born in Moosic, Pa., and therefore has a fine ear for melody as rendered by Ty Cobb and his mighty bat.

Steve Flanagan has sold his interest in the Brockton New England league team, and will scout for the Chicago White Sox.

John A. Elliott, of La Crosse, founder and former pilot of the Minnesota-Wisconsin league has been re-elected president of the organization.

Both the Boston Nationals and the Milwaukee Club claim Pitcher J. W. Brady. The National Commission will have to determine which club gets the twirler.

If the new Cotton States League Club in New Orleans is successful, Birmingham, Atlanta, Memphis and Nashville will have two ball teams in different leagues next summer.

Gabby Street, the Washington backstop, who has caught 931 games during the past nine years, says he expects to increase his record the coming season to 1,000 games.

The Chicago Cubs have signed A. Moore, of the Los Angeles team, who is called a second Bill Lange. Lots of them have been called a second bill, but there has been only one "Little Eva."

An innovation at the White Sox park will be a couple of benches in left field for the use of battery men between their warming-up sessions, and perhaps a Morris chair for Ed. Walsh will be added to the scenery.

Rube Waddell has signed a contract with the Minneapolis Club, which calls for $10 bonus a week during the playing season if he does not drink funny cow's milk. He will receive his salary in a lump at the end of the year, and Jos. Cantillon shudders to think what will happen when Rube gets the bunch of lettuce.

Manager Bobby Wallace, of St. Louis, has served notice that the Browns will make the American league teams fight all the way next season. Unable to forget his experience of 1911 Bobby now sings the Missouri classic:
Every time I come to town
The Boys keep kickin' my dog roun'
It makes no difference if he is a houn'
They gotta quit kickin' my dog roun'.

DAVE DESHLER
KNOCKED OUT BY
"COWBOY" FERNS

Winner Showed Lots of Class--Will be Matched with Ray Brown Next Month

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 16.—With three terrific right smashes to the jaw, each one of which sent his opponent to the canvas, Clarence ("Cowboy") Ferns of Kansas City knocked out Dave Deshler of Boston in the ninth round of a scheduled 10-round bout before 2000 members of the Grand-av A. C. here tonight.

A. here tonight.
The bout was either man's up to the opening of the fatal round, and not a great deal of damage had been done. The round had progressed less than a minute when Ferns sent over a right swing to the jaw, and followed it with a stinging left as Deshler tried to clinch, and Dave sank to the canvas.

At the count of three he got up and tried to fight back, but Ferns was on top of him like an enraged beast, and a few seconds later sent over a crashing right to the jaw. This blow straightened Deshler out flat and his head struck the floor. He turned over, his eyes closed, but by the count of nine he regained his senses enough to regain his feet.

However, his hands hung limp at his side and Ferns rushed upon him and sent over the third terrific right. It landed flush on the jaw. Deshler's head went back and he tottered to the ropes and fell to the canvas, helpless. Referee Dave Porteous declared Ferns the winner without taking the time to count Deshler out. Deshler was helped to his corner and brought to.

The club officials announced that Ferns will be matched with Ray Bronson of Indianapolis for the welterweight championship. The bout will be boxed here next month.

BRANCH OF ROYAL CALEDONIA CLUB

St. John, Feb. 19.—Notices have been sent out to the curling clubs of New Brunswick asking them to send representatives to meet Provost Gordon and Mr. Allan, of the Scottish curling team, which was recently in St. John, for the purpose of organizing a branch of the Royal Caledonia Curling Club in the province. Such a step, if realized, will have the effect of securing the clubs of the province recognition in contests for the Strathcona cup, the world's curling trophy. The meetings will be held at the Victoria Hotel on Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

HARD KNOCK FOR MONTREAL WANDERERS

An Ottawa despatch to the Toronto News concerning the 17 to 5 trimming that the Wanderers received at the hands of the Ottawa team some days ago hands some pretty hot stuff out to the Wanderers. The despatch in part as follows:—

"When one recalls that no more than twelve months ago an Ottawa-Wanderer fixture meant a capacity house with speculators demanding and receiving eight and ten dollars a pair for tickets, the popularity of the six man game in Ottawa was all the more accentuated by the half-filled rink at the last light's contest. Whole half sections were empty no one had to stand and even then rush end, always jammed at any old match, was but sparsely patronized. In past years when Wanderers came here, the rink was sold out a day or two before the match, and on some occasions the doors had to be closed on many hundreds seeking admission. But things have altered considerably in the Quinn alliance with its curtailed hockey and the cycle of popularity appears to be revolving toward the amateurs, where the good old seven men style is still vogue."

IT WAS A SCREAM

The punk exhibition of the visitors detached from some really meritorious performances by the locals. Of the stars of the night, however, Roman was easily the one best, with Goal-keeper Lesieur running along a second favorite. Wanderers lolled as though they didn't try, and even if they wanted to they could not. Boyes, the goalkeeper, might be better (with a little experience in the Gaspe Coast League, and on last night's play the whole Wanderer team might be farmed out to the Lower St. Lawrence or some other minor organization for a little seasoning. As a hockey match, it was a failure but under the caption of a burlesque it was a scream.

The Alberta Amateur Hockey League has challenged for the Allan Cup.

CANADIENS
OUTCLASSED
BY OTTAWA

Vice-regal Party Witnessed Match--Wanderers Whitewashed Quebec and are now Tied with Ottawa

Ottawa, Feb. 18.—Canadiens proved easy for the champions in the most disappointing exhibition of the season at the local arena Saturday night, the Ottawas winning by six goals to one, and thus drawing on even terms with the Wanderers in the National Hockey Association. The game was fairly fast in the first session, but the mild weather caused the ice to soften and for the balance of the hour the hockey was of an inferior quality.

Not a solitary major foul was recorded, though Kerr was cut off by Pitre and Dubeau carried off the ice as a result of a terrific cross check from Lake and Short. Five thousand people saw the match, Their Royal Highnesses the Duke of Connaught and Duchess of Connaught with Princess Patricia witnessing their first exhibition of professional hockey.

WANDERERS BEAT QUEBEC.

Montreal, Feb. 18.—Wanderers took the leadership of the National Hockey Association away from Quebec last night by defeating the Quebec sextette nine to six. The local team showed a remarkable reversal of form and in the first two periods had easily the better of the play. In the last period Russell and Sprague Cleghorn were put out of the game for rough work and Odie Cleghorn was laid out. With three substitutes on the Wanderers' line, Quebec had the better of the play, but were unable to tie up the score, although in the last period they put scored the locals.

MIKE DONLIN WILL SIGN BOSTON CONTRACT

Boston, Feb. 17.—Mike Donlin has changed his mind about accepting the liberal offer made by the Boston Braves. Yesterday at New York Pres. John M. Ward received the following telegram from Donlin, dated West Baden, Ind.

"Have mislaid contract. Send another to the Sherman House, Chicago. Wire me where we stop at Augusta. Will be there the 4th of March. Good luck for the season."

This was a great surprise to Pres. Ward, who had made up his mind that he was to have a lot of trouble before Donlin would sign. As Donlin is now taking the baths at West Baden and says that he will be at the training grounds a full week ahead of the other players it looks very much as if Michael has come down to earth and really means to take baseball seriously.

MONEY PUT UP FOR JOHNSON-FLYNN BOUT

Chicago, Feb. 17.—Jack Johnson, champion pugilist; Jim Flynn and Jack Curley today posted $20,000 in currency and certified cheques with Al Teaney, as forfeit money for the world's heavyweight championship fight between Johnson and Flynn. The time and place for the bout was not made public, but Curley said that several cities were bidding for the fight. He intimated that he would not decide on a place until May 15.

MATHEWSON'S DISCOVER DEAD

Cincinnati, Feb. 16.—Edward Ashenbach, former manager of the Syracuse N. Y., team of the New York State Baseball League, and more lately scout for the Cincinnati Club of the National League, died today at a detention hospital, where he had been confined three weeks.

Ashenbach is reputed to have been the discover of Pitcher Mathewson while acting as scout for John T. Brush, then president of the Cincinnati Club.

Ashenbach was forty years old. He was manager of the Nashua Club about ten years ago. Death was caused by paralysis.

Give your servants GOLD DUST to clean with, treat them rightly and you will have few occasions to insert a "help wanted" ad

They say a good workman is known by his tools. You cannot expect your maid to keep everything ship-shape unless you give her every modern help. To keep house without GOLD DUST is to do work by hard, old-fashioned methods. For cleaning everything and anything about the house—from cellar to attic—GOLD DUST is worth its weight in gold. It cuts grease and dirt like magic, does away with scouring and scrubbing, and saves time and tempers.

Your servant can do more and better work and keep sweet with the aid of GOLD DUST in all household cleaning.
