POLITICAL BUTCHERY

Discussing the dismissal of a Nova Scotia militia captain from the service a few days ago by the Borden government, the Halifax Chronicle says:

"The Borden government has not only dismissed a dead man from office, appointed a dead man to office conferred three jobs on men who had been incarcerated in jail, but their latest effort, it seems, has been to dismiss the Captain of a Militia Regiment in Lunenburg from his position on the ground that he is a Liberal."

Wonderful indeed is the way in which the minds of the great men of the Tory party work. "Just why a Captain of a Militia Regiment should not be entitled to exercise his inalienable right as a Canadian to vote as he pleases, is difficult to understand. One of Mr. Borden's relatives has occupied one of the best and most lucrative of offices in the Militia at Ottawa, during all the years the Liberal Government was in power, and nobody ever suggested that he should be dismissed, although cause might have been found. When measured in his own bushel measure, Mr. Borden is undoubtedly the smallest and meanest of peanut politicians."

Doubtless Mr. Borden imagines that he is doing a valuable work, from a political point of view, in lopping off the heads of all the government officials appointed under the late administration. Quite possibly he believes that he is entrenching himself more firmly in the good graces of the electorate by condoning a campaign of political butchery that has few parallels in the history of government the world over. But it is a very debatable point."

THE NEXT PARLIAMENT

The Ottawa correspondent of The Toronto, Ont., News, has obtained a statement from an official of the Secretary of State Department, which shows that as a result of the recent census, Ontario will only lose four seats instead of six as has been reported. The West will get no fewer than 22 new seats, Manitoba's representation will be increased from 10 to 15; Saskatchewan will get six new seats; Alberta five, and British Columbia six. New Brunswick will lose one seat; Nova Scotia two, and Prince Edward Island one.

The following are the figures of the representation as it will likely stand by the next redistribution bill:

Next Election	Last Election
Ontario.....	82
Quebec.....	65
New Brunswick.....	12
Nova Scotia.....	16
Prince Edward Isl.....	3
Manitoba.....	15
Saskatchewan.....	16
Alberta.....	12
British Columbia.....	13
Yukon.....	1
Total.....	235
	221

This will mean 14 new members for the next House.

Bramford Expositor.—The disgrace of two Toronto bank clerks of good family who fell to the alluring evil of racetrack gambling is liable to start something worth while against the legal form of betting which now prevails. Apparently the handbook men are still active in Toronto but there is no moral difference between betting with a handbook man on the curb stone and betting at the track. The allurements of each has broken many a young man, and woman as well.

Some recently constructed locomotives are claimed to be the most powerful in the world. The locomotive and tender weigh 752,000 lbs., the fire box is large enough to hold a donkey switching engine and the weight on the 16 driving wheels is estimated to be 479,200 lbs. It is thought that these locomotives will haul 155 loaded 50-ton freight cars at 10 miles an hour.

Saskatoon Phoenix.—A Detroit Judge has been rearing a lecture to Canada on the number of Canadian marital cases that are taken for settlement to United States courts owing to the difficulty and expense of having them settled at home. Judge Stein's protest would seem to indicate divorce cases are not manifest in Canada because they are taken out of the country for settlement.

What is known as the "Greater St. John" exhibition was formerly opened by Lieut. Governor Wood on Saturday evening. The attendance on the opening night was four thousand while on Labor Day twenty thousand people passed the turnstiles. The show is said to be quite the equal of those of former years.

The new principle of railway car construction which is doing away with platforms and vestibules has been extended to dining cars and the Pennsylvania railroad now has new dining cars of this pattern. The space gained admits of the placing of two more tables, which increases the seating capacity to twenty-six.

The latest "smart" color is the carrot shade, which has made its appearance at fashionable English race tracks. Hats, stockings and sun shades are made of the color but an up-to-date manufacturer promises to have carrot automobiles on the market at once.

A bank at Budapest has carried the penny-in-the-slot idea into its own branch of business. It has erected iron boxes at street corners all over the city. The machine issues a receipt for each deposit and the bank credits the amount.

As predicted in these columns New Brunswick will not be represented on next year's Bisley team. Nova Scotia will have two representatives and P. E. Island one.

MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR GENERAL BOOTH

The official memorial service for the late General Booth was conducted Sunday night in the Salvation Army Citadel by Capt. White, officer in charge, assisted by some of the leading clergymen of the city. The Citadel was filled and was beautifully decorated in purple and white. A large portrait of the deceased General draped in mourning occupied a place in front of the pulpit, while below was a wreath which was presented to the corps by Bebbington & Son.

The service opened with the hymn "O God our help in Ages Past," the band leading, followed by "Nearer My God to Thee," after which Rev. J. E. Wilson led in prayer. Rev. Dr. MacDonald lined out the second hymn, "O Boundless Salvation," which was followed by a scripture reading by Rev. Mr. Wilson. The band then rendered a beautiful selection "Welcome Sweet Day."

REV. J. E. WILSON

Rev. Mr. Wilson spoke of the General as being a great man such as Moses, Samuel, Luther and that he himself personally had studied the life of General Booth and though he had been criticized in his early days none now would dare to say that he was in error in taking the stand he took.

REV. DR. MACDONALD

Rev. Dr. MacDonald spoke of him as the greatest evangelist of his time and also said he was a great preacher and organizer. Not only did he establish a great religious body, the Salvation Army which is now working in almost every country, but he was the founder of the great Social and Rescue Work. Special reference to the book "Darkest England and the Way Out" was made. Dr. MacDonald said that he himself personally would have conducted a memorial service in his own church had he been at home the previous Sunday.

Mrs. Capt. White, rendered "Pearly White City" which was very appropriate to the occasion.

REV. J. J. COLTER

Rev. J. J. Colter followed making some kind remarks. He said that General Booth's consecration to God made him the success he was, and that the general's belief was that the "Blood of Christ" could cleanse from all sin.

REV. N. McLAUCHLAN

Rev. Neil McLauchlan spoke of the General as being not only the Army's general but also "our general" and said that his great faith in God helped him to accomplish the great work that he did.

Capt. White on behalf of the Army thanked the speakers for the tribute paid in memory of the late General Booth.

After singing, accompanied by the band, "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross" the benediction was pronounced by Rev. Dr. MacDonald and the service was brought to a close.

New York, Sept. 3.—The market opening was dull and heavy. It was quite generally expected that dullness would continue to the end of the session. Attendance was small as large numbers of traders had prolonged their holiday in belief that the market would continue to wait for the result of the Vermont election before developing any sort of activity.

In Union Pacific the first sale was 171½ a decline of ½. Reading also opened ½. Traders were bearish on these two stocks, alleging that good selling of both was in progress. First sale of U. S. Steel embraced 2,200 shares at 73½, a gain of ½ and extraordinarily large increase in earnings of Penna system for July was regarded as testimony to activity in Steel Trade.

Bramford Expositor.—Mr. R. L. Borden was invited by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, when the latter was premier to a conference respecting Canada's naval defence and an agreement was arrived at. Mr. Borden was then forced by some firebrands in his party to break faith with Sir Wilfrid in the matter of the agreement towards the naval defence. It is improbable Sir Wilfrid will fail to give this fact consideration in considering Mr. Borden's invitation. Mr. Borden in the Premier of the broken pledge.
