WORK AND WORRY WEAKEN WOMEN

New Health and Strength Obtained by the Use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

It is useless to tell a hard-working woman to take life easily and not to worry. Every woman at the head of a home; every girl in offices, shops and factories, is subject to more or less worry. These cannot be avoided. But it is the duty of every woman and every girl to save her strength as much as possible and to build up her system to meet any unusual demands. Her future health depends upon it. To guard against a breakdown in health the blood must be kept rich, red and pure. Nothing can keep the blood in this condition so well as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They strengthen the nerves, restore the appetite, bring the glow of health to pallid cheeks, and renewed energy to listless people. Women cannot always rest when they should, but they can keep their strength and keep disease away by the occasional use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Or if a breakdown has come unexpectedly they can obtain new health through this same medicine. Mrs. M. Thomas, River Street, Toronto, says: "For several years I was almost a constant invalid, unable to do my housework and spending much of my time in bed. My nerves seemed worn out and I was so run down that all my friends thought I was in a hopeless decline. I was as pale as a corpse; I was so bloodless that if I cut my finger it would not bleed; my limbs were swollen far beyond their usual size. At the least exertion my heart would palpitate violently, and I frequently had fainting spells. I was under treatment by good doctors, but it did me no good. Then one day my husband brought home some Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I began taking them. They seemed to go to the root of the trouble, and in the course of a few weeks the improvement they were making was quite plain. Gradually as I continued taking the Pills the swelling of my limbs disappeared; the weak spells came less and less frequently; my appetite greatly improved, and finally I was completely cured and able to do my housework with ease. Later, my daughter Elma seemed to be troubled with anaemia, and we gave her the Pills with the same good results."

Why suffer in any way when you can begin curing yourself today with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

MILITANT SUFFRAGETTE ARRIVES AT QUEBEC

Quebec, Q., Sept. 27—Miss Barbara Wiley, the English militant suffragette, whose departure for this country, has been heralded, arrived here this morning. Miss Wiley stated that she came here having been promised help by Canadian women in this country.

They had been forced to fight in England, but in this country she considered that the people were too sensitive to force them to such tactics. If, however, they were obliged to make a nuisance of themselves to win, they would employ the same tactics here as in England.

She goes to Montreal today, then to Toronto and later may open a campaign in the Maritime Provinces.

FADS AND FASHIONS

Frocks, as a general thing, are longer. The trotting frock clears the ground well, but is not exaggeratedly short and all other frocks touch though their narrowness often makes them roll up when the wearer walks, so that they do not really look long. There are a good many trained frocks too; the trains usually separate from the narrow underskirts and most frequently square, though rounded, pointed and fish tail trains all appear and are likely to trail off at almost any angle instead of falling demurely in the back.

Maline hats are great favorites, and are shown in black, white, corbeau blue, copper, forest brown, combinations of peach and black, old gold and national blue, turquoise and white, and black and white.

PRODUCE PRICES IN BOSTON MARKET

(Hartland Observer.)

A number of produce buyers of this country visited Montreal and other Canadian cities last week to look into the condition of the potato market. They came home not hiding the fact that they were discouraged. Everywhere the market was full. Rot was so prevalent that the jobbers did not care to handle heavier stocks than the present demand called for. There is an over-production in all sections, notwithstanding the great reduction in the supply by rot. The fact stood out glaringly that there are more producers of potatoes in Canada than there are consumers, and that it is useless to farm if the produce cannot be sold.

The price offered the farmers at Carleton County points is now 50 to 60 cents and the dealers would rather not purchase at any price. This low price—considerably below the cost of production—coupled with a practically ruined hay crop and grain harvested in condition unfit for market, in many cases, foretells the hardest times the farmer has had for many years—since 1886, the last year the Conservatives were in power. But we do not blame the government for the weather, only for a restricted market.

Today in Houlton potatoes are bringing $1.00 a barrel. The demand for the time of year, is active. The United States has produced a large crop, the largest in history, yet prices are still good. They have simply dropped from the abnormal to the reasonable. Produce buyers in Aroostook are buying pressed hay for shipment and are paying $22 to $23 a ton for it. As late as last week they were paying 75 cents a bushel for oats.

The Canadian west has just harvested its largest crop. Late reports say that a large portion of the wheat crop must rot in the fields. So great is the yield that the railways and steamships can handle only a relatively small part of it, and the old country markets could not take more if the transportation companies could deliver it to them. Behold the United States, a day's haul from Canada's great wheat fields, anxious to buy the surplus wheat of the west prevented from doing so—by whom? Ask yourself that question.

SUSSEX LAWYER CHARGED BY MOOSE

Penobscot, N. B., Sept. 27—H. McFadden, a Sussex lawyer, was out for spin in his automobile with three young ladies last evening, and they had a novel and exciting encounter with a bull moose. The car, with one of the young ladies at the wheel was spinning along the road about three miles from Penobscot, when a big bull moose appeared suddenly in the glare of the lamps. Before the occupants of the car fully realized what was happening the animal charged, snorting at the machine. The young lady had no license for b.g game and Mr. McFadden had no rifle, so she slowed down as quickly as possible, and as the next stride of the bull seemed likely to bring him crashing into the wind shield he swerved aside. The glare of the lights had blinded him and he went at full speed into a pit from which gravel had been dug by the road-makers, falling and going end over end. In a moment he was up again and away, scared and disgusted by his undignified tumble.

PREFERRED DEATH TO IMPRISONMENT

Sherbrooke, Que., Sept. 28—Samuel Chapdelaine of Waterville, twenty years of age, who was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary, committed suicide in his cell in the jail. Chapdelaine felt his position keenly and was found hanging in his cell late in the evening.

The Rosy Bloom On a Woman's Cheek

is the most alluring beauty in the world. It is a prize within reach of almost every woman, if she will but give proper attention to her skin and her general health.

To restore the complexion, roughened and tanned by summer outings, to that soft, velvety clearness so envied in the social season, use

NA-DRU-CO Ruby Rose Cold Cream

This is a snowy-white preparation with a delicate rose perfume. It cleanses the skin, nourishes and fills out the deeper tissues, smoothes out wrinkles and imparts a velvety softness, free from roughness, redness or chaps. It keeps the skin healthy, and Nature supplies the rosy bloom.

In 25c. opal glass jars, at your Druggist's.

NA-DRU-CO Witch Hazel Cream is a delightfully soothing preparation of Witch Hazel, presenting all its wonderful cooling and healing properties in a most agreeable form.

For the skin irritation which follows too much exposure to sun, wind, salt water or dust, it is a remedy as pleasant as it is effective.

25c. a bottle, at your Druggist's.

Always look for the Na-Dru-Co Trade Mark when you buy.
