HEADACHY, BILIOUS, UPSET? "CASCARETS"

Bilious, Throbbing Headache means Bowels are Clogged and Liver Stagnant

You're bilious, you have a throbbing sensation in your head, a bad taste in your mouth, your eyes burn, your skin is yellow, with dark rings under your eyes; your lips are parched. No wonder you feel ugly, mean and ill-tempered. Your system is full of bile not properly passed off, and what you need is a cleaning up inside. Don't continue being a bilious nuisance to yourself and those who love you, and don't resort to harsh physics that irritate and injure. Remember that most disorders of the stomach, liver and intestines can be quickly cured by morning with gentle thorough Cascarets—they work while you sleep. A ten-cent box from your druggist will keep your liver and bowels clean; stomach sweet and your head clear for months. Children love to take Cascarets, because they taste good and never gripe or sicken.

BECKER MURDER TRIAL ON MONDAY

Chronological outline of the famous Rosenthal murder case, in which another important chapter will be begun on Monday morning, when Police Lieutenant Charles A. Becker is placed on trial in New York for alleged complicity in the murder.

July 16—Herman Rosenthal, a notorious gambler who had threatened to expose an alleged connection between Lieut. Becker and New York's gambling and vice syndicate, was shot down in the glare of the lights of the Hotel Metropole, within a few hours of the time he was scheduled to tell his story before the grand jury.

July 16—Within a few hours of the crime the car in which the murderers are alleged to have escaped, with William Shapiro, the driver, were arrested.

July 18—"Bald Jack" Rose, well known gambler and former partner of Rosenthal, surrendered to the district attorney, to whom he is said to have confessed as having acted as Becker's "collector," also giving the details of the alleged murder conspiracy and the names of those concerned.

July 21—On the strength of the statement made by Rose, "Bridgey" Webber, alleged gambling house proprietor, and Sam Paul, notorious gang leader, were arrested and charged with complicity in the murder. Both are said to have admitted having an intimate acquaintance with Becker.

July 22—Harry Vallons, a gangster suspected of having been one of the occupants of the murder car, surrendered to the police.

July 26—Frank Cirofici, another suspect, taken into custody.

July 26—Mrs. Rosenthal, widow of the murdered gambler, testified before the grand jury that Becker collected money from her husband, as did Rose for Becker.

July 23—Lieutenant Becker arrested and locked up on a charge of murder.

Aug. 1—Frank Muller, alias "Whitely" Lewis, one of the gangsters who fled from the city immediately after the murder, arrested in the Catskills.

Aug. 5—Disclosures concerning alleged deposits of thousands of dollars put in banks in New York City and elsewhere by Lieut. Becker and his wife.

Aug. 20—Blanket indictment returned against Becker.

Aug. 22—Sam Schepps, who is alleged by Jack Rose to have been the man who hired gangsters for Becker and paid them off after the murder had been accomplished, was apprehended in Hot Springs, Ark., and returned to New York.

Sept. 3—Becker's trial fixed to begin before Recorder Goff on September 12.

Sept. 11—The trial of Becker postponed by agreement of counsel until October 7.

Sept. 14—Harry Horowitz, alias "Gyp the Blood," and Louis Rosenberg, alias "Lefty Louis," found in a flat in Brooklyn and arrested for the murder. These two were suspected of having done the actual shooting of Rosenthal, and their capture completed the round-up of all of those believed to have been directly concerned in the crime.

Sept. 26—John F. McIntyre, Becker's chief counsel, declared his belief that the accused police lieutenant would be acquitted or that there would be a disagreement of the jury, because of the character of the witnesses and because of the legal questions involved.

Sept. 27—District Attorney Whitman, in charge of the prosecution, expressed himself as more confident than ever that Becker would be convicted of murder and that the convictions would survive any review by the highest courts.

The salary of President G. W. Perkins of the International Union of Cigarmakers has been increased from $30 to $40 a week.

NEWS FORECASTS FOR THE COMING WEEK

Washington, D. C., Oct. 5—The middle West promises to be the storm centre of the national political campaign the coming week. Governor Wilson will be heard in Kansas, Missouri, Illinois and Ohio. Colonel Roosevelt will visit the same section and will be heard in several cities of Illinois a day or two before the appearance of the Democratic standard-bearer. Governor Marshall, Democratic candidate for Vice President, expects to devote the week to Illinois, Iowa and Wisconsin.

Republicans and Democrats of Rhode Island will hold their State conventions to name candidates for governor and other State officers and representatives in Congress.

The trial of Police Lieutenant Becker for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, which is expected to be one of the most notable criminal trials that has taken place in this country in years, is scheduled to begin in New York City on Monday.

The by-election in the MacDonald constituency in Manitoba, which is fixed for Saturday, is attracting international attention from the fact that reciprocity with the United States is figuring as the most prominent issue in the contest.

Many educators of wide note will gather at South Hadley, Mass., on Tuesday for a two days' celebration of the seventy-fifth anniversary of the founding of Mount Holyoke College, which is the oldest institution in America for the higher education of women.

Another event of the week of interest in educational circles will be the formal inauguration and dedication of the Rice Institute at Houston, Texas. The institute is said to be one of the richest colleges in America and possesses an endowment of approximately $10,000,000, left by the late William Marsh Rice, for whose alleged murder in New York some years ago Albert T. Patrick is serving a life sentence in Sing Sing prison.

Monday is the day fixed for the re-assembling of the British House of Commons for the autumn session. The program for the session is a heavy one, especially when the importance of the legislation is considered. Foremost on the agenda are Home Rule, Welsh Disestablishment, the Franchise Bill and a measure to allow trades unions to contribute to funds for the support of Labor members of parliament.

During the week James Whitcomb Riley, the beloved Hoosier poet, is to be the center of the greatest ovation ever tendered an American writer. Monday will be the poet's birthday anniversary and during the week special exercises in honor of the occasion will be held in the public schools and in literary and art societies throughout the country.

A total eclipse of the sun is to take place Thursday, but it will be invisible in the United States except as a very small partial eclipse in Florida and the southern portion of the Gulf States. The path of totality will cross South America from a point near Quito, Ecuador, to Rio Janeiro, Brazil, thence southeast across Atlantic ocean.

Canadian historical and patriotic societies will join at the end of the week in a suitable celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the battle of Queenstown Heights, in which the British were victorious over the American invaders, though they lost their valiant commander, Sir Isaac Brock. On Saturday exercises in observance of the centenary will be held on the battlefield, which is marked by a magnificent monument of General Brock.

CONFESSION PLOTTING IN MURDER

Tulsa, Okla., Oct. 5—The Reuter murder case, one of the most sensational in the records of Tulsa, was called in court today and it is expected the trial will get under way the first of next week. Charles T. Reuter, a lawyer, formerly of Peoria, Ill., was murdered in his home in the best residence section of this city on the night of May 5 last. The police investigation resulted in indictments for murder being returned against Mrs. Laura M. Reuter, widow of the slain man, and Guy D. Mackenzie, "Bud" Bellow and Joe Baker. Bellow is alleged to have confessed that the motive for the murder was "love, revenge and robbery," though declaring at the same time that the wife had no knowledge that her husband was to be killed. Mrs. Reuter is confident of acquittal, and public sentiment now appears to be strong in her favor.

NEW PROFESSORS FOR ACADIA COLLEGE

The following new professors have been appointed at Acadia University: Mr. Ralph P. Clarkson has been appointed to the Ivan Curry Professorship of Engineering. Mr. Clarkson is a graduate of Worcester Polytechnic Institute, having taken his work in Electrical Engineering; he also included most of the Mechanical subjects. Besides practical work he has taught one year in the University of Vermont and left there to accept an important position in the Patent Office in Washington. There Mr. Clarkson has been employed as a government in the examination of applications for United States patents in Engineering subjects, passing judgment on the operativeness, usefulness and novelty of machines submitted. Mr. Clarkson will take up the work in Engineering formerly done by Professor Durkee.

Harold Garnet Black has been appointed Professor of English. Mr. Black was a native of Pugwash, Cumberland County, prepared for college in Sackville Academy and graduated from Mt. Allison in 1907 when he was valedictorian of his class. The following year he taught in the Mt. Allison Ladies' College and since then has been doing graduate work in English at Harvard. He has received his M. A. from the latter institution and has almost completed his residence for his Doctor of Philosophy requirements. Mr. Black comes to Acadia with the highest recommendations and the authorities feel assured of his success.

Members of the San Francisco fire department demand a twelve-hour workday.

"In the Case of MY Little Girl—"

In choosing and using a soap for your "Little Fairy" you will find no soap so mild, so neutral, so agreeable to tender skins as FAIRY SOAP.

Being made from products that you could eat, FAIRY SOAP agrees with even the tender skin of a babe.

FAIRY SOAP

is white—pure—floating. It comes in a handy oval cake. We could charge you five times the price asked for FAIRY SOAP and we could add nothing to its quality.

In higher-priced soaps you are paying for high-priced perfume and fancy wrappers—not better soap.
